MITTANK/TRASK/McKEEVER CEMETERY

This cemetery was evidently overlooked by the DAR in the 1940's. I could reference to it in their readings. Now many references are made to this small, se forgotten burial ground. I had trouble finding this cemetery, but finally as luck have it, I located it. It seems no two people told me the same directions. In th Public Library you will find several directions to this cemetery. One map I found developers map. Evidently the Moses McKeever farm was destined to be a small sub-division. As of May 1994, this has, thus far, eluded the planners. This ceme about 100 to 150 feet behind a barn owned at this time (1994) by John Clester. Ge permission from him when visiting this site. One reference states that Moses McKe and relatives are probably buried here. This is very likely, although the only re found to McKeevers, is Aldona son of John and Nancy McKever (not misspelled, as fo on stone).

The cemetery also carries the name of Trask, this was a nearby postoffice, years ago. The Mulberry Schoolhouse was also located nearby at this time. I note place made reference to this cemetery by the name of Carter. Many Carters owned l around the Moses McKeever farm, perhaps there are also Carters buried here. The cemetery is fenced in, and a new gate has been installed fairly recently. It is a 35 feet wide by 70 feet long, room enough to have probably 50 to 60 grave sites. only guess at what is actually here, for very few markers are left to mark the gra people who are resting here.

I would also like to note that in the early years of this township, Mittan nearby on the river.

This cemetery is located in Jefferson Township, Twp. 23 Range 9 E , N.W. 1 Sec. 21./8421 S. 810 E.

On the following page I have included a recent map of the area which is fa accurate in showing the roads as they are actually laid out. Hopefully this map w the test of time, so that others will not have the same problems I did in finding little cemetery.

*Denotes a stone not found at this time.

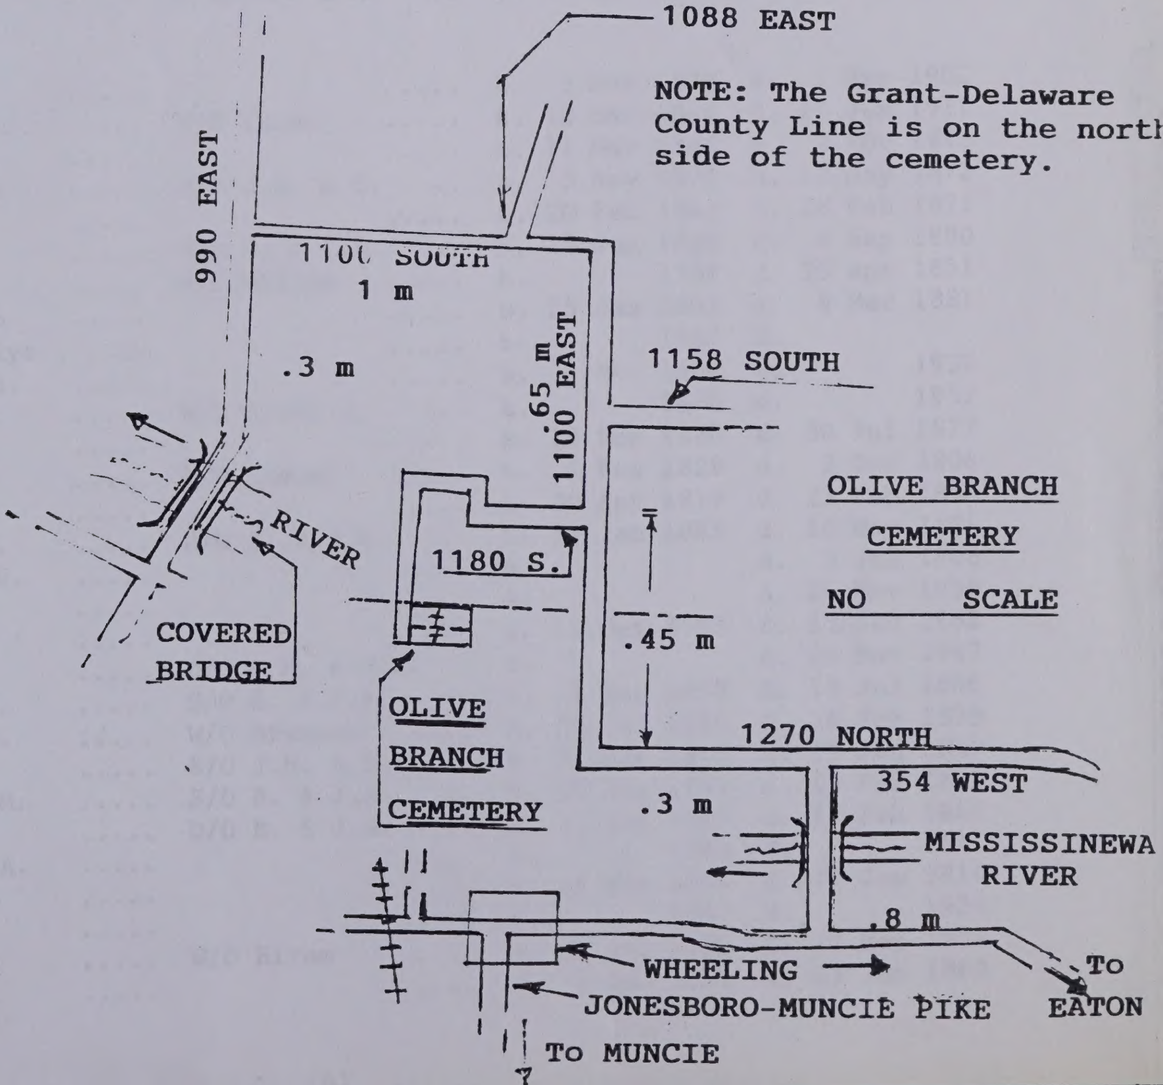
This cemetery is well maintained and is listed as being in excellent condition. There are no broken monuments on the ground and the lawn is carefully mown.

The public road ends at the gate to the new section of the cemetery (south section). Do not park on the public road as it is used by the local farmers to gain access to their fields. Use the last gate and park inside the cemetery. There is plenty of room.

The sketch below should be used by Grant County residents who wish to visit this cemetery. Remember it is a sketch. The entrance route from the south, Wheeling way, is also given for those that desire the Delaware County route.

The gate (entrance) sign reads: "1812 OLIVE BRANCH cemetery 1979". Cemetery trustee and President, Robert Morton, 7704 Devonshire Rd., Muncie, IN 47302, 317-288-4028.



NOTE: The Grant-Delaware County Line is on the nort side of the cemetery.

widow of George Kolp, of Bureau county, Illinois; Catherine died after her marriage to Coleman Sanders, leaving a family of children; Eliza is the wife of John Dunlap, near Fairmount, and they have no children; Mary died after her marriage to Albert McCoy, of Delaware county.

David Mittank, who was born in Pennsylvania, November 15, 1824, was seven years of age when the family went to Ohio, and four years later became a resident of Grant county. He grew up to manhood, in the midst of pioneer conditions, and his schooling was of the most limited character. After his marriage he started out to work out his salvation on a place in Jefferson township. He first leased land, the old McPherren farm, the property of his wife's father, and situated on the Mississinewa river. There he lived, developed a good home, bought out the other heirs to the estate, and finally was possessed of a homestead of one hundred and thirty acres. His death occurred on that place, November 16, 1897. He came of age during the declining years of the Whig party, and probably supported that organization by his vote, and when the Republicans perfected a party organization in 1856, he was one of the supporters of its first candidates, and steadily voted that ticket until his death. However, he was reared in a family of Democrats, and according to the belief of that party. He was long an active member of the Shiloh Methodist church, in Jefferson township. Throughout his career he was known and respected for his uprightness, his honesty, his worthy citizenship, and his thrift and enterprise. While he had no early advantages in education, he became by self effort a thorough student, read history extensively, was constantly studying the Bible, and it is said that by virtue of his remarkable memory seldom forgot a fact acquired through reading or observation, and could repeat for a long time afterwards the substance, and even the greater part of the words of the sermons which he heard. Few men have so splendid a natural endowment of intellect.

David Mittank was married in Jefferson township, October 3, 1850, to Margaret McKeeber. She was born in Clinton county, Ohio, July 29, 1833, and when two years of age was brought to Grant county, so that practically all her life was spent in this section of Indiana. Her parents were Moses and Sarah (Moore) McKeeber, both natives of Virginia, but were married in Clinton county, Ohio, in 1832. Her father on coming to Grant county bought land in Jefferson township, and settled in the rough log cabin which was almost the only improvement on the place. The cabin had no floor, and for a time the fleas were so numerous that the family suffered constant discomfort from their ravages. Moses McKeeber died on the old homestead in middle life, while his widow married a Rev. Mr. Wheat of the Methodist Protestant church, and had one child by that union, and was afterwards twice married, but without children by either of her last husbands. Mrs. Margaret Mittank, wife of David, died June 16, 1900, at the home she had lived on practically all her life. She was for many years a devoted member of the Shiloh Methodist Episcopal church. Her children were as follows: John W. and Amanda, both of whom died in childhood; Amariah, who lives on a farm in Jefferson township, is married and of her three sons and two daughters all are married, except one son; Mary Etta is the wife of William Tibbett, of Marion, and they have four sons; Edward died in infancy.

Anderson D. Mittank was born on the old home farm, February 17, 1861, received a public school education, and as soon as he reached his majority, he started out on his own account, and has effected a generous prosperity. He now owns the old McKeeber homestead, where his father lived for so many years, comprising one hundred and thirty-three acres in sections twenty-one and forty-eight and half acres in section twenty-nine. All his land is kept up to the highest notch of modern cultivation and improvement, and in 1908 a comfortable rural dwelling of eight rooms, painted brown, and with all the modern furnishings and facilities was built. The barn is now about seventeen years old, and all the improvements show how progressive a farmer Mr. Mittank is.

Anderson D. Mittank was married at Upland in 1885, to Miss Clara Gadbury, who was born in Licking township of Blackford county, Indiana, in September, 1861. Her parents were James and Mary A. McVicker Gadbury, the former of whom died on his father's farm in Licking township, in Blackford county, having been born April 25, 1833, and dying May 12, 1891; while his wife, who was born in Ohio, May 14, 1832, was brought in childhood to Blackford county and died there December 28, 1874. James Gadbury was an active member of the United Brethren church, a Democrat in politics, and a prominent and influential citizen of his community. Mrs. Mittank, who was reared and educated in Blackford county, was one of six children, as follows: Hulda, who died when ten years of age; Mrs. Mittank; Emma, who died after her marriage to Henry Hanley, and left three children; Riley, who is a farmer in Licking township of Blackford county, has two sons and three daughters; John, who lives on the old homestead in Blackford county, has five children; Jennie, who died when nine months old. To the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Mittank has been born one child, William B., on February 21, 1886. His education was in the public schools, and since taking up the serious responsibilities of life he has proved a capable manager of his father's farm in Jefferson township. William B. Mittank married Gertrude Sutton, of Jefferson township, and to their marriage two children have been born as follows: Eva Marjorie, born March 28, 1909; and Opal C., born December 10, 1911. Mrs. Mittank is an active member of the Kingsley Methodist Episcopal church.

Warren Fergus. In 1832, one year after Grant county government was organized, the Fergus family was transplanted from Ohio to the unbroken wilderness and hills and valleys of Jefferson township. Many lives have entered into the development of Grant county, and of those of pioneer stock none have done more credit to their lengthy residence than those of the Fergus kith and kin. Warren Fergus, whose ample and fruitful acres and establishment makes him one of the most prosperous of Grant county's farmers, was born here before the county had finished the first decade of its existence, and is the grandson of a patriot who bore arms for the colonies in the war of the Revolution.

His ancestry is Scotch-Irish, and his grandfather, Francis Fergus, was born September 8, 1752, in the north of Ireland, and of that people of Protestant lineage, who several generations before, had been transplanted from Scotland to the northern counties of Ireland. Francis Fergus with two brothers came to America some time previous to the Revolutionary war, and he and one of his brothers took up arms and fought in behalf of the colonies, during that struggle. The other brother, however, was a Tory, and in his loyalty to the mother country returned during the course of the war to England, and remained there until the final triumph of the American cause, when he returned to this side of the Atlantic and spent the rest of his years in the independent colony. Francis Fergus and his brothers lived in Virginia, the former was a farmer, and after the death of his wife, whose maiden name was McCormick, of the same family which produced the makers of harvesting machinery, he went to live with a daughter in Tennessee, where he

McKEEVER (McIVOR) FAMILY

IRISH LINEAGE

It seems that about the date of the Indian Wars, there were at least two McIvor brothers on Capon; one of these, Hugh McIvor, married a daughter of Thomas and Mary Hiett Edwards and went to live in the fertile valley of the Greenbriar River, remote from White Settlements. The Indians came and killed the father and carried the mother and children into captivity.

After five years she escaped but never again saw her children whom she had been permitted to see only once while with the Red people. (This is the Hiett Version).

According to the McIvor legend there was an Indian massacre and only one person of the McIvor name was left, a child taken and brought up by a German family who changed the spelling of the name to McKeever, the name by which the family is now known, and that he is the ancestor of the McKeever generations following. This McIvor may have been the son of one of the men killed in the first battle of Fort Edwards – 1757.

Many years after, Henry Frye, on his hunting expedition, had found the Capon Springs, its grounds was laid off into lots and named Watson. By legislative enactment trustees were appointed, 1787; one of these men being Paul McIvor, (McKeever).

At some time after the Indian Wars and before the close of the Revolution, Paul McIvor acquired the farm later known as the Alfred S. Anderson place, as its first occupant and built his home there. It is a beautiful Capon Valley farm of 540 acres near Yellow Springs.

Paul McKeever was married twice and no record of his first marriage has been found, but according to one relative, the first wife's name was Chesher (Cheshire), and from another I learned that they had seven children: Paul, Jr., John, Martha, etc. Paul Jr., lived in Pocahontas county, now West Virginia at the time of the settlement of his father's estate as did, also, other relatives.

After the death of the first wife, Paul McKeever married Margaret Switzer (or Switzerine), later called Swisher, daughter of John and Mary Switzer, and their children were: Mrs. Fanny Kackley, Mrs. Rhoda Pennington, Mrs. Margaret Pennington, Christina McKeever, Hugh McKeever, Moses McKeever, Mrs. Sarah Arnold, Mrs. Elizabeth Capper, Mrs. Julia Ann Ogden and Eleanor, Mrs. Michael Brill. We do not know if Christina remained single, or if she married a McKeever, but probably the former. She lived in Pocahontas county. John I. Ogden, who married Julia Ann McKeever, was a brother of Lucinda who married a Hugh McKeever.

Mr. and Mrs. Kackley went west; the Penningtons and Brills remained on Capon and Timber Ridge. John, of the first children, went west.

There is a story that the brothers, Hugh and Moses, fell in love with the same young girl in youth. They fought over the matter and Moses departed for Indiana, never to return. Neither of them married the girl. Moses married ———; left six children, in Indiana.

HUGH McKEEVER married Lucinda Ogden, daughter of David and Rebecca Hughs Ogden; both were born in 1804. Residence, Wardensville. Children:

1. ISAAC, married Emma Keller; two children: Hortense and Aubry, deceased.

John Pennington
Hampshire Co. Va.

Levi Pennington came to Wyandot county, Ohio, in 1824, with his father, John Pennington, who had served in the war of 1812. The trip, which was made by wagon, required twenty-six days of tedious travel over rugged roads or no roads at all, up hill and down dale, from the starting point to the termination. The first location selected for a home in Ohio by John Pennington was in Eden township, Wyandot county, and there he lived with his family for five years, and thence came to Sycamore township, where the father, John, rented land for one year. The latter then bought four hundred and eighty acres of wild land, a description applying to most land in those days, a part of which was in Seneca and a part in (then) Crawford county. He died in Sycamore township, in that part of Crawford county now known as Wyandot county. His children, twelve in number, were named as follows: Phebe, Nancy, Isaac, Adam, John, Henry, William, Enoch, Levi, Susan, all deceased; James and Fannie.

Levi Pennington lived with his parents until their decease, when he inherited eighty acres of land, on which he resided until 1832, when he married Miss Hummon. To this marriage were born the following children: Salomie, widow of Jacob Stalter, of Sycamore; Levi, a farmer in Sycamore township; James, farming in Seneca county; Peter, the subject of this biographical sketch; and Elizabeth.

Levi Pennington, the father of this family, died on his farm in March, 1900, but had lost his wife May 9, 1899. Peter had been a Democrat all his voting days, was a very prominent man after reaching mature years, and was respected wherever he was known.

Peter Pennington, the subject of this sketch, lived on the home farm until his marriage, in June, 1858, to Miss Hettie Johnson, of Melmore, Seneca county, Ohio, and a daughter of Joseph and Margaret (Beatty) Johnson. To the subject and wife has been born one child, Margaret E., who is married to Peter Grubb, a clothing merchant at Sycamore. Mrs. Pennington was born in Bucks county, Penn., August 16, 1833, and was a maiden of but fourteen years when she accompanied her parents to Seneca county, Ohio. Here she received her education in the common schools. She and her husband have traveled in faithful companionship for almost half a century and are now spending their declining years in their comfortable home, respected by all.

Mr. Pennington lived in Seneca county after his marriage and was there engaged in farming until 1899, when he returned to his native township of Sycamore. Here he owns a tract of three hundred acres, on which he now resides, and has carried on general farming with unusually good success, although he no longer takes an active part in the labor connected with the cultivation of the place.

In politics Mr. Pennington is a Democrat, and is also a member of Lodge No. 475, K. of P., at Sycamore, of which he is a charter member. He is one of the public-spirited citizens of the township, always ready to contribute financially toward improving its conditions, and is one of its best-known agriculturists. He bears a fine reputation and is deservedly respected by the entire community.

Mr. Pennington is a true pioneer of Wyandot county, and can remember when Sycamore had but one house and when there was not a railroad in this county. He re-

(O) HORGAN

This is, and always has been, an almost exclusively Munster surname. The 66 birth registrations for 1890 were all for that province, 40 being in Co. Cork and 21 in Co. Kerry. The 1864 figures are even more striking as of 86 Horgan births registered that year all except two (Dublin and Clonmel) were in Counties Cork and Kerry. There are no less than 4 Ballyhorgans in Co. Kerry, all in the barony of Clanmaurice, and the 1911 census records 142 families of Horgan in that county. The most notable person of the name, Rev. Mathew Horgan (1777-1849), P.P. of his native parish of Whitechurch, Co. Cork, was a poet, Gaelic scholar and antiquary. Of course the name occurs occasionally outside the borders of the southern province, e.g. pardon of David O'Horegane, a kern, of Lex (Leix) in 1551. This, however, is probably a mis-spelling of O'Horahan (or O'Hourihan) since a sept so called was located at Dunamase, Co. Leix. This name is Ó hAnradháin in Irish, better known in Thomond where it is anglicized O'Hanrahan.

The Gaelic form of the name Ó hArgáin is said to be a corruption of Ó hAnradháin, which is the name of the erenagh family of Ross, Co. Cork, anglicized Hourihane there and Hourigan in Co. Limerick. Synonyms of Horgan used in Munster are Harrigan (Listowel) Horrigan (Kenmare and Mallow) and Organ (Cashel.)

HOWARD, O'Hure
IVERS
MacKEEVER, MacIvor

The Thomond sept of Ó hÍomhair, in allowing their ancient and honourable name, formerly anglicized O'Hever, O'Huar, O'Hywer etc, to be superseded by Howard, assumed one of the most aristocratic of English surnames; but the fact that the form O'Hawrde was used as early as 1542 should acquit them of any snobbish motive in so doing. O'Huer was still in general use in Clare in the seventeenth century — it is listed in Petty's census as one of the principal names in the barony of Inchiquin — but now they are all Howards, even the few families around Corofin, who sixty years ago were still called O'Hure, having succumbed to the prevailing tendency*. The sept was allied to the O'Deas, though located further north in the county near Mount Callan, and is listed in the " Wars of Turlough " among the principal Thomond septs at the Battle of the Abbey in 1317. It has been stated that certain Ó hÍomhair families who forsook the Irish cause and became of the ascendancy used the name Ivers not Howard. However, Thomas Dineley, who visited Mount Ievers (now spelt Ivers) in 1682, tells us in his diary that its owner Henry Ievers had acquired the place only fourteen years before that, having come to Ireland as a barrister's clerk. He was High Sheriff of Co. Clare in 1673. Before his time Mount Ivers was called Ballinareela. In the census of 1659, referred to above, the name, spelt then O'Heever, appears numerous in the barony of Corran, Co. Sligo. O'Donovan in his notes in the Tribes and Customs of Hy Fiachrach states that Ó hÍomhair (descendant of Ivor), the name of a Sligo sept located in the parish of Kilglass on the east side of Killala Bay, had become Ivers in some places at that time (about a century ago). It is not common there now. Ivers is a name which is to be found today also in Co. Louth, but I think it is an abbreviation of MacIvor which is there an alternative form of MacKeever — Mac Íomhair in Irish. Both MacIvor and MacKeever are well known names in Counties Monaghan, Tyrone and Derry. It is interesting to note that on a Dungannon jury convened in connexion with the Plantation of Ulster in 1609, 23 of its 24 members had Gaelic Irish surnames including Edmond MacOwen MacIvor. In the Patent Rolls of that time it occurs as MacEver in Co. Armagh. It has been suggested that the MacKeevers are Mac Éimhir not Mac Íomhair and a branch of the MacMahons, with whom the forename Éimhear (anglice Heber) was favoured. MacKeevers appear in the Hearth Money Rolls for Co. Armagh (1664); and one Neile MacKeever was secretary to Shane O'Neill in 1567. Possibly the Iverses of Co. Louth are descendants of one of the Ivers (or Evers) families (relatives of the Taaffes) who were among the leading gentry of Co. Meath in the sixteenth century.

*Though called O'Hure verbally the use of Howard officially was evidently universal a century ago since the birth indexes for 1864 to 1866 record no registration for O'Hure or Hure.

According to Woulfe Howard is used as the anglicized form of the rare surname Ó hOghairt. This would hardly be worth mentioning here were it not for the fact recorded by Matheson that in the Ballymoney area Hogart and Howard are found as synonymous. Woulfe, however, differentiates between Ó hÓgairt and Ó hOghairt. I have no first-hand knowledge of these names beyond noting that one Hygyn Hogart was among the muster of captains, archers etc. reviewed at Mellifont Cistercian monastery in 1434.

All the Howards who have been prominent in Irish life were born or lived in Dublin. Four of them were of the family the head of which was created Viscount Wicklow in 1785. Hugh Howard (1675-1737) was a noted portrait painter and collector of pictures; Gorges Edmond Howard (1715-1786), a voluminous author chiefly of legal works, is notable for the fact that he was one of the earliest advocates of Catholic Emancipation. Though not of an Irish family Cardinal Dominic Howard is of interest to Ireland because he brought the head of Blessed Oliver Plunket to Rome, whence it was later transferred to Drogheda.

Capon Valley

Near the fort Chas. Keller was killed, grandfather of Chas. Keller, later proprietor of Frankfort Inn. General Turner Ashby and his brother Richard, who was killed June 26, 1861 at Dan's Run, officers in the Civil War and buried at Winchester, were grandsons of Capt. John Ashby who did service in Hampshire during the French and Indian Wars. The town Fort Ashby, is named for John Ashby.

The writer was principal of the school at Fort Ashby four years. The old fort near the run changed into a dwelling house still stands. This town is situated on Patterson's Creek, now Mineral County. It was laid off as a town in 1787, 139 acres of land, by John Sellers, with John Mitchell, Andrew Cooper, Ralph Humphreys, John Williams, Sr., Jas. Clark, Richart Stafford, Hezekiah Whiteman and Jacob Brookhart, "gentlemen", Trustees. The town has a beautiful location.

THE COOPER FAMILY.—Two brothers, named Keifer, emigrated from Germany a little before the Revolutionary War. One settled near Frederick City, Maryland; the other near Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Both families adopted the English name Cooper. James Cooper, United States Senator from Pennsylvania nearly half a century ago, was a grandson of the Pennsylvania Cooper. Near the close of the eighteenth century, the Maryland Cooper sold his property and purchased land and located in Hampshire. He left three sons and two daughters; John, Adam, and Christopher were the sons. Adam married Catherine Kertz, of North River; the late Rev. Christopher Kertz, so prominent in the early history of Methodism on North River, was her brother. They left four children, Sarah, Charles, Mary, and Samuel. Sarah married Rev. John Engle. They left four sons and three daughters. Their eldest son, Rev. J. J. Engle, now owns and lives on a fine farm near Berryville, Clarke County, Virginia. He has been a prominent minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for over forty years. He was chaplain to Colonel Burk's regiment, Stonewall Jackson's brigade, in the Confederate service. His brother, Lieutenant B. Holland Engle, belonged to the same brigade, was wounded and died. The youngest brother, Samuel Engle, belonged to the cavalry commanded by Captain Sheetz, and was killed at Brandy Station. Mary Engle married James Carter. They left four sons and two daughters. Their eldest son, Lieutenant Jefferson Carter, belonged to Imboden's command. The well known and successful merchant of Pleasant Dale, this county, John W. Carter, is one of the four brothers. Charles Cooper, now eighty-five years old, lives on his fine farm seven miles southwest of Cooper Bridge.

Hampshire Co. W. VA

Samuel Cooper, the youngest of the family, was born 1824, and retains physical and mental faculties seldom enjoyed by one of his age. He has been in the mercantile business at Capon Bridge nearly forty years. In his youth, schools were few in Hampshire, and education was obtained with difficulty. He saved his money and invested it in books, and by close application he qualified himself for teaching school long before he was twenty. He taught in winter and attended school in summer. In 1851 he was nominated by the Democrats of Hampshire for county surveyor. The Whigs also placed his name on their ticket, and he was elected by one thousand majority over two good men. He was justice of the peace, member of the old county court, and member of the board of education and its presiding officer. He was twenty years president of the Capon district board of education. He also held the office of sheriff of the county. In 1866 he was elected to the legislature with Henry G. Davis, afterwards United States Senator, as his colleague. They were Hampshire County's first representatives after the war. Colonel Cooper, being a Democrat, was on the minority side in the legislature; but his course won for him the respect, confidence, and esteem not only of his constituents, but of the whole State.

Little is actually known about Paul. He was an early resident of Hampshire Co. and could have been born in that area.

He had seven children by his first marriage and eleven children by his second marriage. Many of these children, and their families, eventually came west to Ohio and Indiana.

He did own property and left a will. He wrote his will 9 Mar. 1828, and it was probated 19 May 1828, which places his death between the two dates.

McKee, Mary, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth McKee, Sr., was born in 1762; died on Jan. 30, 1847 in Hampshire County, Va. She married William Hook on Aug. 13, 1782 in Frederick County, Va. He was a Revolutionary soldier. Source: Family records deposited in DAR Library.

McKee, Mary daughter of Robert and Jane (Cather) McKee, Jr. was born on Jan. 13, 1808 and died on June 20, 1876, Bloomery District of Hampshire County. Her husband was Joseph Leith, son of James and Sarah (Rust) Leith, Jr. Joseph was born in 1798 and died in 1873. Apparently he lived on the old Leith homeplace, or nearby, because this couple and some of their children were buried in the family graveyard. McKee, Robert Jr., son of Robert and Elizabeth McKee, Sr., was born in 1767 and died in Frederick County, Va. on Oct. 30, 1830. He married Jane Cather, daughter of Jasper and Barbara (Lawrence) Cather, on Sept. 5, 1793 in Frederick County. His father, Robert McKee, Sr., has often been confused with two other Robert McKee's, one of whom was a surgeon in the Revolutionary War. Robert of Frederick County was not the same person as Robert of Rockbridge County, Va.!

McKee, Robert, son of William and Martha (Hammond) McKee, was born on April 26, 1792 and died in Frederick County, Va. on June 9, 1850. He married Elizabeth McMorris, daughter of David and Nancy (McDonald) McMorris, on March 3, 1816. She was born on April 23, 1797 and died on May 5, 1877. Her second husband was named Samuel Hook of Capon Bridge, W.Va.

McKee, Sarah, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth McKee, Sr., was born circa 1786 and died on June 25, 1865. She married John Giffin. They lived on Timber Ridge, near the boundary between Hampshire and Frederick Counties, Va. Source: Records from Ralph L. Triplett Esq.

McKee, William, son of Robert and Elizabeth McKee, Sr., was born in 1765 and died on July 9, 1837 in Frederick County, Va. He married Martha Hammond on May 4, 1791. The Hammond origin has not been determined at this time, but researchers are probing for clues. Source: Private family records.

McVicker, Duncan ("Dunkin") and wife Jane (nee McConnell) were residents of Hampshire County. Duncan died sometime prior to Dec. 15, 1815, the date that his real estate was settled among his heirs. THE McKEEVER FAMILY

From George Washington's Surveys for Lord Fairfax: "Surveyed for Darby McKeever, Sr. a tract of ungranted land on Cacapon River containing 412½ acres on April 10, 1750, (metes and bounds are given.)" "Surveyed for Darby McKeever, Jr., a tract of land on Cacapon on April 10, 1750 containing 315 acres." (Paul McKeever sold this tract to Frederick Conrad in October of 1770, at which time Paul McKeever was of legal age.) In 1785 this tract passed from Frederick Conrad to Jacob Cline of Frederick County, Va. Also surveyed by young George Washington for Lord Fairfax to McKeevers was yet another tract, "Surveyed for Darby McKeever and son on Cacapon, metes and bounds given, a tract on Cacapon containing 555 acres, and dated April 19th, in 1750." Darby Sr., and Darby Jr., McKeever were in the area and on those tracts well before 1750 and along with the other earliest settlers desired these surveys to be made in order to definitely establish boundaries. After a number of years of peaceful relations with the Indians who roamed through the area and hunting therein came the year of 1753 when all the redmen disappeared from the Valley; later it was learned they had gone to the westward areas where the early French inhabitants, attempting to claim the Ohio region busily incited their wrath against all English claim. Soon followed Braddock' War, and following Braddock's defeat atrocities by the Indians grew rapidly, and many forts were erected for the protection of our early ancestors. I will quote from page 78 of Samuel Kercheval's History of the Valley of Virginia. "In the year 1757, a numerous body of Indians crossed the Alleghany, and, as usual, divided themselves into small parties, and hovering about the different forts, committed many acts of murder and destruction of property. About thirty or forty approached Edward's Fort on Capon River, killed two men at a small mill, took off with a parcel of corn meal, and retreating along a path that led between a stream of water and a steep high mountain, they strewed the meal in several places on their route. Immediately between this path and the stream is an abrupt bank seven or eight feet high, and of considerable length under which the Indians concealed themselves and awaited the approach of the garrison. Forty men under the command of Capt. Mercer sallied out with the intention of pursuing and attacking the enemy. But, Oh! fatal day ! Mercer's party, discovering the trail of the meal supposed the Indians were making a speedy retreat, and unapprised of their strength, moved on at a brisk step until the whole line was drawn immediately over the line of Indians under the bank, when the latter discharged a most destructive fire upon them, sixteen falling dead at the first fire. The others attempted to save themselves by flight, were pursued and slaughtered in every direction until, out of the forty, but six got back to the fort. One poor fellow, who ran up the side of the mountain, was fired at by an Indian, the ball penetrating just above his heel, ranging up his leg, shivering the bones, and lodging a little bit below his knee; he slipped under the lap of a fallen tree, there he hid himself, and lay in that deplorable situation for two days and nights before he was found by his friends, it being that length of time before the people at the fort would venture out to collect and bury the dead. This wounded man recovered, and lived many years after, though he always was a cripple from his wound. Capt. George Smith, who now resides on Back Creek informed the author that he was well acquainted with him.. Sometime afterwards the Indians, in much greater force, and aided, it was believed, by several Frenchmen in person, determined to carry this Fort by storm. The garrison had been considerably reinforced; among others, by the late General Morgan (Daniel), then a young man. The Indians made the assault with great boldness; but on this occassion they met a sad reverse of fortune. The garrison sallied out, and a desperate battle ensued. The assailants were defeated with great slaughter; while the whites lost comparitively few men." Both Darby McKeever Sr., and Darby McKeever, Jr.

were among those slain in this Indian battle. The widow of Darby McKeever, Jr. Rachel, with her family of children were inside the fort along with the families of the other fallen men. Rachel is believed to have been a daughter of one of the early Edwards settlers, Samuel,Thomas or William, (the family of Joseph Edwards is known). As did the others, the widows and children stayed in or very close by the Fort Edwards for quite long periods of time, some for several years, it being unsaf for them to return fatherless and husbandless to their lands. When Rachel McKeever returned to the McKeever tracts she was fortunate to have the good neighbor Valentine Sweitzer (several spellings of this name, it was soon to become Switzer) and John Sweitzer,his brother, for these recent immigrants were ever solitious of their widowed neighbor and her orphaned children. These children were; Paul McKeever who is my great-great-great grandfather, and about whom more later. Rachel McKeever who married James Stephenson; Ann McKeever who married Samuel Park of John Park, (see under Park genealogy before given); Hugh McKeever who was a soldier in the Revolution,during which he married in Old Swede's Church in Wilmington,Delaware on December 27,1777 to Elizabeth Talbot. Hugh returned to Hampshire County and on February 23,1778 he witnessed a deed , Henry Batton and wife Margaret to James Largent, and shortly after that date departed to the Greenbrier area where he too was slaughtered by Indians,(See Border Warfare by Withers), becoming one of the la victims of the Indians east of the Ohio. James McKeever, son of Darby Jr., and Rachel McKeever also served in the Revolution and he also married April 6,1776 in Old Swede's Church in Wilmington,Delaware to Susanna McCafferty, but this marriage was for short duration, and he married secondly in the same church on July 16,1777 to Mary Edwards, his childhood friend and playmate in those grim days in Old Fort Edwards. Mary Edwards McKeever was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Hiett Edwards. There was a Talbot family in early Hampshire in that part that was soon to become Hardy County, and it is possible that Thomas and Mary Hiett Edwards also had a daughter,Elizabeth Edwards who had married a Talbot son, been widowed and could have been the Elizabeth Talbot who married Hugh McKeever, son of Darby Jr.,and Rachel McKeever, this I am disinclined to believe, for the account of the death of Hugh McIvor at the hands of the Indians in the Greenbrier mention only a wife, but no children, this does not agree with the family lore as given by Maude Pugh in her Volune Two of Capon Valley Pioneers on page 97, and the story given on page 176 of the same book appears to be pertaining to a different time--that of the attack on the garrison of Fort Edwards. Other children of Darby Jr., and Rachel McKeever were John, Darby 3rd, and Esther. Just how soon Rachel McKeever remarried I do not know, but she was married to a widower Hugh Shannon who had one daughter,Ruth, unmarried at the time of his death in 1783 (shortly thereafter she married James Albin) one daughter Jane (or Jean) who was married to ____Fugate and had a daughter named Jean, and one daughter named Esther who was married to ____Clark, and she to had a daughter Jane Clark. Hugh Shannon and Rachel McKeever had no children. I have a copy of the will of Hugh Shannon, written December 7,1783, but not proved until March 9,1794 so that it supposed he lived a number of years after executing his last will and testament. "Take 40 pounds out of estate; from this pay to my well beloved granddaughter Jean Clark, twenty pounds put out at interest until she becomes of age. Pay to my well-beloved granddaughter,Jean Fugate 20 pounds to be put to interest until she is of age. One third of my movable estate to my well beloved wife Rachel, that third to include wagon and two oldest wagon-horses for her natural life, and at her decease to her daughter Esther or her heirs- and if Esther and her heirs should both die before the widow, then Darby McKeever and John McKeever are to divide the widow's third equally between them after her decease. And the remainder I give and devise to my well beloved daughter Ruth Albin, the kettle that was promised her, and one full quarter of the breeding hogs. I give and devis to my well beloved son-in-law,Darby McKeever a 6 year old colt, and I give and bequeath the same to John McKeever. I give unto my well-beloved daughter,Esther Clark my personal estate, bonds and bills due." The executors named were Jeremiah Reed and Paul McKeever. Witnesses: Alex Monroe, John Arnold and John Harris.

Hugh Shannon appears on the Census of Hampshire County, 1782 on the list of Levi Ashbrook and shows the household to contain four white souls - on the census two years later Ruth Shannon on the list of Elias Posten, again there are four white souls in the household. All of the children of Darby Jr., and Rachel McKeever were born prior to the Indian raid on Fort Edwards men with the possibility of a birth which could have occurred after the father's death had Rachel been pregnant at the time. Darby 3rd McKeever apparently disappears from the Capon Valley, and John McKeever is believed to have been the progenitor of the Berkeley branch of the McKeever family.

X Paul McKeever, son of Darby Jr. and Rachel Edwards (?) McKeever was born about 1745/8 and was perhaps about 12 years of age at his fathers death. No doubt that he spent a serious and laborious boyhood, and far more than his share of responsibility which served him well - for by his two marriages he was to have a very large family. He married first a daughter of Samuel and Ann Cheshire, her given name unknown, and upon the early census of Hampshire County, there were 9 souls in his household in 1782, and 10 souls therein on the 1784 census, which generally translates into 7 children in 1782, and eight in 1784, and we can account for 7 of these children. His oldest son, Paul Jr. McKeever lived in Hampshire County on the 1810 census and had one daughter under ten years of age. He was in the Greenbrier area at the time of his father death in 1828. John W. McKeever, son of Paul & ____Cheshire McKeever is believed to have married a daughter of Jacob Hoover. He died before his father Paul McKeever who leaves ninety-six dollars to his heirs one of whom was Jacob McKeever, born about 1815 who married Rachel _____and the 1850 census of Hampshire County, Virginia shows the following children of Jacob and Rachel, John Wm. 13 (1837), Tilbury 11 (1839) Lemuel 8 (1842), Elias 6 (1844), Asa 4 (1826) and Mary E. 6/12 (1850). The 1880 census reveals 3 more children, Sarah 17 (1853) and twin daughters, Louisa E. and Elmira, 13 (1837) Asa their son and Mary E. McKeever, their daughter age 20 were yet in the home. Elias McKeever, son of Jacob and Rachel appears on the 1880 census age 34, married to Mary C. also 34, and twins Margie A. 3 and James E. 3 years of age. Tilbury McKeever, son of Jacob and Rachel ______McKeever married Jane Kline and had at least one son James R. McKeever who married on November 12, 1907 to Mrs. Minnie Bayliss. Jacob McKeever is living in the home of David Pugh, age 73 and gives his age as 65 on the census of 1880. John Wm. McKeever son of Jacob and Rachel married Mary _____and they had Wesley Elias McKeever who married Asbernia Good, the daughter of James W. & Priscilla Good. "Azzie" Good McKeever is buried in Shiloh Cemetery at Concord and her stone reads b. Nov.26, 1866-d. November 8, 1947. They had a son Wesley E. born 3/6/1907 who was drowned October 7, 1968 when his tractor ran over the bank on the road from Shiloh to Back Creek and he was buried in Shiloh Cemetery. Another son of John W. and ____ Hoover McKeever was Thomas McKeever who gave his age 45 on the 1850 census of Hampshire Co. Va, and his wife was Elizabeth, age 31. Living in their household was Catherine Brown, age 32 and Eliza J. Brown age 9., relationship, if any, unknown. Martha, daughter of Paul and _____Cheshire McKeever is provided for in the will of her father in 1828, and she is apparently single and incompetent. No further record found of her. Rachel McKeever, daughter of Paul and _______Cheshire McKeever was married to John McNeal, who by February 26, 1784 was in Greenbrier County, and one son Isaac McNeal is remembered in the will of his grandfather, Paul McKeever in 1828. Nancy McKeever, daughter of Paul and ___Cheshire McKeever was married on February 5, 1800 to John Hoover son of Jacob Hoover. A daughter of Paul and ___Cheshire McKeever married Wm. Richardson, and another daughter married Reuben Bumgarner.

The first wife ______Cheshire McKeever of Paul McKeever died and Paul McKeever married secondly on February 12, 1794 to Margaret Switzer, born 1770 (age given as 80 years on the 1850 census of Hampshire County, Virginia where Margaret Swtizer McKeever is living in the household of my great grandfather, Michael Brill who had married her youngest daughter, Eleanor. She was the daughter of Johannes Sweltzer (Americanized by himself and his two brothers to Swisher) and Anna Maria Hawk, the daughter of John and Christina Hawk. Thus John and Christina Hawk are fourth great grandparents of the author, and John and Anna Hawk Swisher his wife are third great grandparents and I share a cousin-ship with literally thousands of the descendants of these earliest settlers. John and Anna Maria Hawk Swisher had 12 children, Margaret, Elizabeth, Catherine, Sarah, Christine, Mary Ann, Philip, Michael, Stephen, John, Isaac and Eleanor. The Swisher genealogy is published in the Vance Scrapbook, Copyright 1970 by Joseph Harvey Vance and will not be repeated in this volume. I have this book from Mr. Joseph Vance, I value it greatly for we share so many common ancestors and it is a work that few genealogists interested in Westdrn Frederick County, Virginia - Eastern Hampshire County, West Virginia would not value greatly. Children born to Paul and Margaret Swisher McKeever numbered eleven: Fanny McKeever the eldest daughter was born April 5, 1796 in Hampshire County, married there to Benjamin Kackley, and as young marrieds they moved to the west. Margaret McKeever, second daughter of Paul and Margaret Swisher McKeever was born September 5, 1797 and she married Thomas Pennington, born 1789, died 1857, the son of Elijah and Elizabeth Schried Pennington. Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington, parents of 6 children, lived their entire lives in Hampshire County, Thomas Pennington wrote his will February 4th, 1857 and it was offered for probate May 25, 1857 and at that time Margaret McKeever Pennington was living. William Paul Pennington born about 1825, son of Thomas and Margaret McKeever married about 1849/1850 to Anna Levina Kelso, the second daughter of James and Anna Hite Kelso, born January 12, 1827 on the James Kelso farm which lies by the Timber Ridge Church. The story and genealogy of the family is told in the Harloe-Kelso Genealogy edited by my cousin, Dr. Charles B. Harloe 1886-1969 of Winchester, Virginia. After the birth of their first two daughters in Virginia, Wm. Paul and Levina Kelso Pennington moved to Clinton County in Michigan where another daughter and a son were born. Lured by the gold fever which followed the discovery of the precious metal in California, Wm. Paul Pennington joined a group going to the goldfields, became ill on the journey, so ill that he died and is buried along the trail through Nevada where he was buried along that Humboldt trail. Anna Levina Kelso Pennington and her four children returned to Virginia, and here she reared her four fatherless children. The son Albert spent many years of his youth in the home of my grandparents, Joseph Alexander and Elizabeth Millslagle Kelso. Albert Pennington, born in 1857 was twelve years older than my father, Isaac Edgar Glaze Kelso and held a very special place in his childhood and his memories all of his life. Please refer to the Harloe-Kelso Genealogy for the descendants of William Paul Pennington. Isaac J. Pennington second son of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington was born 1818. Conflicting dates on later census and on his stone. He married Louisa J.______born 1835 and the 1870 census shows the following children, William J. 10 - Mary 7 (she died August 14, 1874) - Lydia A. 6 (born Oct. 23, 1865, she married Tilberry Spaid) - John E. 2, and Sarah J. age 1 year. The 1880 census shows two more children born to them, Annie L. 8 (b. 1872 and Isaac W. 5 (b. 1875. Margery Pennington, born 1814/15 daughter of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington married Mr. John L. Mar. 18, 1847, died June 14, 1931 at age 84y, 2m, 6d. Alfred Anderson died February 21, 1923 and this couple are buried in Shiloh Cemetery at Concord, W. Va. They had sons Hunter S. Anderson, born May 29, 1872, died December 3, 1910 and the Rev. Courtney H. Anderson, birth and death dates not given, nor do I have the name of his first wife. He married secondly Lillie Good, and their son was Murrell Anderson, born March 15, 1907, married Miss Helen Larrick and had one daughter Joan Anderson. Murrell Anderson died August 17, 1971 and is buried at Shiloh Cm. and his obituary mentions that he is survived by daughter and a sister Mildred who in 1971 was Mrs. Fred Madigan. The aforementioned Children born to Paul and Margaret Swisher McKeever numbered eleven: Fanny McKeever the oldest daughter was born April 5, 1795 in Hampshire County, married there to Benjamin Kackley, and as young marrieds they moved to the west. Margaret McKeever, second daughter of Paul and Margaret Swisher McKeever was born September 5, 1797 and she married Thomas Pennington, born 1789, died 1857, the son of Elijah and Elizabeth Scharlod Pennington. Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington, parents of 6 children, lived their entire lives in Hampshire County. Thomas Pennington wrote his will February 4th, 1857 and it was offered for probate May 25,1857 and at that time Margaret McKeever Pennington was living. William Paul Pennington born about 1825, son of Thomas and Margaret McKeever married about 1849/1850 to Anna Lavina Kelso, the second daughter of James and Anna Hite Kelso, born January 12,1827 on the James Kelso farm which lies by the Timber Ridge Church. The story and genealogy of th family is told in the Harloe-Kelso Genealogy edited by my cousin, Dr. Charles B. Harloe 1885-1969 of Winchester,Virginia. After the birth of their first two daughters in Virginia, Wm. Paul and Lavina Kelso Pennington moved to Clinton Count in Michigan where another daughter and a son were born. Lured by the gold fever which followed the discovery of the precious metal in California, Wm. Paul Pennington joined a group going to the goldfields, became ill on the journey, so ill that he died and is buried along the trail through Nevada where he was buried along that Humboldt trail. Anna Lavina Kelso Pennington and her four children returned to Virginia, and here she reared her four fatherless children. The son Albert spent many years of his youth in the home of my grandparents, Joseph Alexander and Elizabeth Millslagle Kelso. Albert Pennington, born in 1857 was twelve years older than my father, Isaac Edgar Glaze Kelso and held a very special place in his childhood and his memories all of his life. Please refer to the Harloe-Kelso Genealogy for the descendants of William Paul Pennington. Isaac J. Penning ton second son of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington was born 1818. Conflicting dates on later census and on his stone. He married Louisa J.____born 1835 and the 1870 census shows the following children, William J. 10 - Mary 7 (she di August 14,1874) - Lydia A. 6 (born Oct.25,1865; she married Tilberry Spaid) - Joh E. 2, and Sarah J. age 1 year. The 1880 census shows two more children born to them, Annie L. 8 (b.1872 and Isaac W. 5 (b.1875.Margery Pennington, born 1814/15 daughter of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington married Jr.John L. Anderson, son of John and Mary Pierce Anderson and they had a son Alfred Anderson, and this Alfred T Anderson was born November 27,1839, served in the C.S.A. army. He married Julia Bumbardner, b. Mar.16,1847,died June 14,1931 at age 84y,3m,6d. Alfre Anderson died February 21,1923 and this couple are buried in Shiloh Cemetery at Concord , W. Va. They had sons Hunter S. Anderson, born May 29,1872, died December 3,1910 and the Rev. Courtney H. Anderson, birth and death dates not given, nor do I have the name of his first wife. He married secondly Lillie Good, and their son was Murrell Anderson, born March 13,1907, married Miss Helen Lerrick and had one daughter Joan Anderson. Murrell Anderson died August 17,1971 and is buried at Shiloh Cm. and his obituary mentions that he is survived by daughter and a sister Mildred who in 1971 was Mrs. Fred Madigan. The aforementioned Alfred E. Anderson should not be confused with his cousin, Alfred S. (Simaton)Anderson born two days earlier than he, and who died but one month and eight days after him. The genealogy of Alfred Simaton Anderson appears in the Harloe-Kelso Genealogy on page 170 and I share a "cousinship with both, Alfred E. Anderson through my McKeever ancestry and with Alfred S. Anderson through my Kelso ancestry. Two daughters of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington were born , one between 1815 and 1820, the other between 1820 and 1825. They are not named in the will of Thomas Pennington in 1857, if living at that time they were no doubt married. Sarah Pennington, born 1825 is named in his will and she is living in his home at the time of the 1850 census. Mary Pennington, born 1830, daughter of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington, married William L. Ridgeway, born 1818 and the Ridgeways had a son Frank born 1870, and Allie born 1872. Frank Ridgeway left Hampshire County in the fall of 1892 and went to Clinton County,Ohio. There he married Mary R. Biggs of near the county seat town of Wilmington, in later years they were to make their home 6 miles from that city at the village of Cuba,Ohio. The Ridgeway family was very early to America from England and were staunch Quakers, and Frank seems to have re-embraced that faith after he went to Ohio. Edna Ridgeway, daughter of Frank and Mary R. Biggs Ridgeway was born 1899. She married Todd Lowry and live near Dayton,Ohio where Todd Lowry is employed at an airfield there, and the Lowrys had 5 children in 1946. William B. Ridgeway, born 1903 in Clinton County,Ohio, married Vivian Brown. One daughter was born to the Wm. B. Ridgeways,Beverly Ridgeway. Wm. B. Ridgeway is a farmer at Martinsville,Ohio. Frank L. Ridgeway died at his home in Cuba,Clinton County,Ohio May 19,1939 and his wife Mary R. Biggs Ridgewas was deceased also in 1944. Two interesting notes are in my files: " John Ridgeway states on affdavit to the claim of Elizabeth Kline for a Revolutionary pension for the service of her husband Phillip Kline, that he,(John Ridgeway) is age 81." The date of affdavit was 1854, subtracting his 81 years gives us his birthyear as 1773. This note came from the April 26,1867 edition of th South Branch Intelligencer which reads; "John Ridgeway died at the residence of his son on Timber Ridge on Saturday the 6th inst., He was a soldier of the War of 1812. He had son William, born 1818, who married Mary Pennington, sister of Isaac Pennington." James Pennington, born 1833 (age 17 on 1850 census of Hampshire County,Virginia) son of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington, is not mentioned in the will of his father nor do I find him in Hampshire County after that date (1850) Ere the next census of 1860 he has probably left the area, or it is possible that he died before the writing of the will of his father in 1857. Julius Pennington son of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington was age 15 on the 1850 census (b.1835). He is mentioned in the will of his father in 1857, but that is the last record I have of him.

Rhoda McKeever, born 1799, daughter of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever married in 1818 to William Boyer Pennington, born 1794, son of Elijah and Elizabeth Schreid Pennington and they removed to Ohio. From Mrs. Larry L. Throop I have the descent of her husband from this couple. He and I share a common ancestry back to Darby McKeever,Sr. one of the earliest settlers of Capon Valley in Virginia. Thank you, Mrs. Throop. Rebecca Pennington, daughter of William B. and Rhoda McKeever Pennington was born in 1820, and she married in 1939 John McCracken Preshaw. She died 1888 in Solomon, Dickenson County,Kansas. Caroline M. Preshaw, born 1850, daughter of John M. and Rebecca Pennington Preshaw, married in 1869 to Thomas Arthur Leisure, and she died in 1918 in Portland,Oregon, (Multnomah County). Their son Claude Orlando Leisure was born 1873 and he married in 1907 to Mable Joy Hannawald. He died in 1953 in Portland,Oregon. Lyndall Caroline Leisure, daughter of Claude O. and Mable J. Hannewald Leisure was born 1912 and in 1931 she married Albert W. Throop. They are parents of Larry Lynne Throop, born in 1932 who married Josephine Louise Walsh in 1969. This couple lives in Maryland.

Phoebe McKeever, born October 1,1800, daughter of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever married Elijah Enoch Pennington. She married about 1821-22. Phoebe McKeever Pennington is yet alive in 1880 living in a residence by her son Samuel J. Pennington and his family. Her unmarried daughter Elizabeth lives with her. On that census she states that she was born in W.Va., her father was born in W. Va., and that her mother was born in W. Va., (meaning of course the same area where she was then living, for there was no W. Va until 1865). The 1850 census gives the family of Enoch and Phoebe, he age 57, she age 50 - Elijah 27 (1823) Enoch 25 (1825 - William Paul 22 (1828) - Mary Ann 16 (1834) - Samuel 14 (1836) Hannah 10 (1840 and Elizabeth 8 (1842) It is very probable that the parents of this family are buried in Shiloh Cemetery, but there are no stones which so say this, but their residence was very near there. Elijah Pennington, son of Enoch and Phoebe Pennington was living with his sister Mary A. Brown, a widow as shown on the 1880 census. He gave his age as 57, and his sister as age 46. Enoch Pennington, son of Enoch Sr. and Phoebe Pennington had this family as shown on the 1880 census of Hampshire County, W. Va. Enoch Pennington age 54, Mary _______45 (I have been so far unable to discover her maiden name) Phoebe 21,(1859) Frances M. 13 (1866) Ulysses V. 11 (1869) and Mary S. 9 (1871) (the gap in the births of his children would indicate that Enoch Jr. Pennington may have been a soldier in the War between the states. In Shiloh Cemetery at Concord are the stones which read "Pennington, James F. born 1865, died 1953 Phoebe E. (Pennington) his wife born 1859, died 1944, Florence, their daughter born June 25,1898, died February 17th, 1972." This causes me to believe that Phoebe Pennington, daughter of Enoch Jr. and Mary _____Pennington married her cousin James F. and I believe he may have been the son of either Julius or James (sons of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington) - I find the following on the 1880 census: Braithwaite,Francis M. 27, Laura B. 21 his wife, Amanuel H. 4 adopted son, Julius W. 1, son and Charles M. age 3/12 (born Feb.) son, and living with them Pennington, Sarah J. 59, aunt-in-law (born 1821). Would Sarah J. Pennington be the daughter of Thomas and Margaret McKeever Pennington, And would Laura Braithwaite have been nee Pennington, and a daughter of Julius Pennington ? - That she names a son Julius causes me to believe this. Francis M. and Laura Braithwaite, and their son Julius and his wife (Aramintha O. Reid Braithwaite, and of late Kenneth A. John Oscar Pennington, son of Samuel and Margaret Michael Pennington, living in 1963 as reported in the obituary of his sister Lydia Jane Pennington Arnold. The children of Bula (also spelled Beulah) and Caudy G. Gray were and are; Bryon A. Gray, born at Hanging Rock, W. Va Sept.17,1917, married Grace Spaid, died June 13,1970. No children mentioned in his obituary-buried at Timber Ridge Christian Church Cemetery Harold G. Gray, son of Beulah Arnold and Caudie Gray died Sept. 29,1960, this date on his munoment at Timber Ridge Cemetery. Willard Eugene Gray, son of Caudie G. and Beulah Arnold Gray was born June 8, 1920. Children named in his obituary are Mrs. Bonita Triplett, Mrs. Linda Mason and son Roland E. Gray. He died July 4, 1972, and he too is buried at Timber Ridge Cemetery. Other children born to Caudie G. and Beulah Arnold Gray are Mrs. Opal DeHaven, Mrs. Wanda Wetzel, Mrs. Geraldine Michael, Mrs. Marget Burton, and sons Forrest Gray, Gentry Gray and Cecil Gray. Caudie Garland Gray and Beulah Arnold Gray were divorced and Caudie Gray married secondly Nettie Fishel and four more children were born to him, Daniel Gray, Caroline Gray (she married a Mr. Hockman, both living at Wardensville, Caudie Eugene Gray, born February 10,1945, died September 20,1961, and a daughter Retha Lee Gray, born and died January 15,1948; these two and their father buried at Wardensville, W.Va. I have no record of Hannah and Elizabeth Pennington, the two youngest children of Enoch Sr. and Phoebe McKeever Pennington other than that Elizabeth was yet living and with her mother Phoebe on the 1880 census.

Christina McKeever, born June 20,1802, daughter of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever. I have no record other than this birthdate.

Hugh McKeever, son of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever was born March 4, in 1804 and he married Lucinda Ogden,, born 1804,daughter of David and Rebecca Hughes Ogden and they established their home near Wardensville where they live out their lifetime, as did many of their children and grandchildren. The genealogy of this family is well-given in the Vance Family Scrapbook and also in Volume 2 of Maude Pugh's "Capon Valley, Its Pioneers and Their Descendants." so will not be repeated here.

Moses McKeever, born June 19,1806 in Hampshire County, Virginia, he married Sarah Moore, the daughter of James and Elizabeth Moore,she born 1811 as established by the census of 1850, Liberty Township, Grant County, Indiana where she is living next to her sister and brother-in-law Charles and Elizabeth McKeever Capper. It reads: Sarah McKeever, age 39, born Virginia. Margaret McKeever 16, born Ohio; John age 14 also born in Ohio (1836) Rhoda 10, born Indiana, Rachel 6, Albert 3, and Matilda age 1, the last three also being born in Indiana. This tells us that the move was made from Ohio to Indiana between 1836 and 1840, and also that Sarah was widowed sometime between 1848 and the time of the census taking which was usually in the summer.

Elizabeth McKeever, daughter of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever was born September 28,1808 in Hampshire County,Virginia and there she married Charles Capper, son of Michael and Sarah Capper, his birthyear 1793 for this is the family of Charles and Elizabeth McKeever Capper as shown on the census of 1850, Jefferson Township,Grant County taken on August 28th of that year. Charles Capper, 57, farmer, born Virginia; Elizabeth age 42 and children - Lydia Capper 17, born Va. (1833) - Charles S. 15 born Va. (1835) - Asa,12, born Va. (1838) - Michael 10, born Indiana which will show the move from Virginia to have been between 1838 and before August 28, 1850. David 10, a twin of Michael, born 1840 in Indiana, - Almira 8, born 1842 in Indiana, James 5, born 1845 in Indiana, Meredith 3, born 1847,Indiana and Margaret age 1, born 1849 in Indiana. They are near neighbors of the Richard Lyon family, whose sons are also there with families, they being the same age group as Elizabeth McKeever and born and reared in Capon Valley as was she, also the Michael Pugh family with his wife Elizabeth Caudy Pugh (see the Caudy genealogy in this volume) as well as many other former Hampshire and Frederick County,Virginia acquaintances of their childhood and youth.

Sarah McKeever, a twin of Moses McKeever, born June 19,1806, daughter of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever married James Joseph Arnold, son of Levi and Mary Elizabeth Boucher Arnold and this couple moved over into Wood County, Virginia and are reputed to have spent the rest of their lives there. I have not followed the genealogy of Sarah McKeever Arnold.

Julia Ann McKeever, daughter of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever was born July 2, 1810 and she married John Ogden, a brother of Lucinda Ogden who had married her brother Hugh McKeever. They lived near Wardensville, Virgini

Eleanor McKeever, born June 17,1813, youngest child of Paul and Margaret Sweitzer McKeever, married on September 15,1832 to Michael Brill, son of Henry and Elizabeth Orndorff Brill. In slightly more than the next eighteen years she was to bear ten children, and she died December 23rd,1855 at the age of forty two and one half years of age. It must have been a very sad Christmas at the home; the children ranging from age 19 down to 5 years of age. Her mother Margaret Sweitzer lived with Michael and Ealeanor McKeever was to outlive Eleanor by more than two years, and gave her age on the 1850 census as 80 years, thus giving the birthyear of Margaret Sweitzer McKeever as 1770. She wrote her will January 6,1857 and it was probated on September 28,1857. The family of Michael and Eleanor McKeever Brill is given on page 275-6-7 of Maude Pugh's Volume 2 of Capon Valley Pioneers and on pages 136 and 137 of The Vance Scrapbook but will be updated and corrected in this volume in the genealogy of the family of Henry and Elizabeth Orndorff Brill...Phoebe McKeever Pennington died Oct.2,1891 ae 91y, Ida.

THE PENNINGTON FAMILY

On November 1, 1699 Edward Pennington married Sarah Jennings. Their son Isaac Pennington was born September 22nd, 170__(yeardate not given in Hinshaw's Quaker Records) and Isaac married about 1724/5 to Ann Biles, daughter of William and Sarah Biles of Bucks County, Pennsylvania. (See #172, Bucks County,Penn. Wills and Hinshaw's Quaker Records). Their children were Edward Pennington, born October on the 4th in 1725 who married Sarah Shoemaker,daughter of Benjamin Shoemaker on November 26,1754. Mary, born April 5, 1732; Sarah born April 10, 1734 and Thomas, born February 1, 1738. Isaac Pennington was buried May 5, 1742. It is not known whom Thomas Pennington married and since he is not found in the early records of the Quaker Meetings he has probably wandered away from the faith of his fathers. His son Elijah was born about 1758 or 1759, and his son William born within a year or two before or after this date. Whether Thomas and his family ever moved into Delaware is not certain, but his two sons were to enlist from Dover in Delaware where they serve in the Revolution, Elijah attaining the rank of Corporal. (See Delw. Archives). Shortly after the close of that War,Elijah Pennington is to appear in Hampshire County, one of the earliest mentioning of him being contained in the will of his father-in-law which says " to Charity, my dearly beloved wife all my lands, goods, tenements and chattels, to have and to hold during her life - she to pay debts. I also bequeath unto Elijah Pennington, my well beloved son-in-law, all my lands and tenements that is now in the possession of William Crawford if same can be recovered from him, to have and to hold forever. To my daughter Elizabeth Pennington 200 acres of land to join fully with my lands that is in possession of William Crawford, to have and to hold the said 200 acres to her and to heirs of her body forever. I give and bequeath to my two step-daughters, Julia Cump and Mary Hurbus 100 acres of land to join the lands I have given my daughter and Valentine Switzer, the said 100 acres to be equally divided between them. January 28,1791," An index of the Minute Book,1788-1791 for Hampshire County shows a suit in 1789 William Crawford vs. Adam Schried continued. Adam Schried appears first in Hampshire County records when on August6th,1773 "Adam Schried to Edward Kennison of Boutecourt Co, 400 acres on Cacapon Creek, mortgage - recorded August 10, 1773" Then this record "August 6, 1773, Edward Kennison and wife Matilda of Boutecourt County to Adam Schried of Hampshire County, lease and release 400 acres on Cacapon Creek, recorded August 10, 1773." (Sage & Jones, Early Records,Hampshire County, Virginia.) On the 1782 census of Hampshire County we see Charity Schreld on the list of Levi Ashbrook with 4 white souls, on the list of the year 1784 she is still there and on Elias Poston's list again with 4 white souls - strange that the household is not listed under the name of Adam Schried, he being alive until 1791 - makes one wonder if he is in Virginia on those particular dates and if he is included in the count of 4 whites but I have concluded that the four were Adam,Charity, Elizabeth and perhaps Juliet since she (Juliet probably has not yet married Henry Kump, also a Revolutionary veteran, and son of Henry Sr. and Catherina Emmet Kump. Kumps were from Berks County, Pennsylvania, and it is my belief that Adams Schried came from there as well, and believed to be the brother of John Schreit of Reading Town, County of Berks who on the 1767 Proprietary Return was shown as a gunsmith in Reading Town and taxed on 1 house, ½ lot, 1 horse, and 1 cow. Another brother of Adam Schried was probably Christian Scheid who married Maria Elisa _____ in New Goshenhoppen Church on March 29,1761. This is the place of the early settling in Pennsylvania upon disembarking from the ships at Philadelphia of the Kumps, the Emmets, the Millslagles, The Coopers, The Loys and many of the others who came down to Frederick and Hampshire Counties in Virginia. It is also my belief that Charity Schreid was Charity McIlwee, daughter of David McIlwee, and that she was a sister of Mrs. Jacob Clutter and Hannah McIlwee Orndorf. Charity Schreid outlived her husband a great many years, dying some time in the decade 1820-1830, and she is always found on every census next door to the Kump descendants, the Pennington brothers who married McKeever daughters and remained in Virginia and the Reid families (the daughter of Hannah McIlwee Orndorff having married John Reid.

Elijah Pennington and his wife Elizabeth Schreid Pennington with many of his 14 children went to Ohio, and there he died in Crawford County in the year 1834, and he is possessed of lands in Harrison County, Indiana, in Warren and Putnam Counties in Illinois, as well as his inheritance from his father-in-law, Adam Schreid in Hampshire County, Virginia. Putting together the Pennington records of Mrs. Louise Walsh and my records gleaned from the Hampshire County records this is the family of Elijah & Elizabeth Pennington: Henry Pennington, married by 1820, wife unknown with 2 daughters under 10 years of age. John Pennington, to Guernsey Co. Ohio by 1832, gives his age on 1850 census as 60, wifennamed Martha, age 30, Mary 18, born Ohio Andrew 20, Malinda 16 and William 14, all children born Ohio, the parents both born in Virginia. Thomas Pennington, born 1789 remained in Virginia, married Margaret McKeever - genealogy given previous family, the McKeevers. James Pennington, born 1791 married Hannah Millslagle, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Cooper Millslagle. James died childless in 1843 and his wife Hannah Millslagle Pennington died in 1852. Enoch Pennington born 1794, married Phoebe McKeever, he too remaining in Hampshire County, and records before given. William B. Pennington, birthdate also given as 1794 married Rhoda McKeever, this family did go to Ohio as you will note by their genealogy given under the McKeever family. Isaac Pennington born 1796, no record. Adam Pennington, born 1898, died 1849 married Cynthia _____, no further record. Elizabeth Pennington, born 1800 married Andrew Emmett. Frances Pennington married John LaFollette, birthdate unknown. to Ohio with her parents; Charlotte Pennington, b. about 1804 married William Caughey in Ohio John Pennington, (I wonder if this could be him ? taken from the 1850 census, Princeton in Gibson County, Indiana - J.J. Pennington, 44, physician born Virginia (1806) wife E.A. age 38 born Md. Children: Susan 15, born Indiana as are the following also, Helin 13, Agnes 11, Nickles (male) age 5, and Walter 2. - Jane Pennington, born about 1806 also married May 16,1825 to Samuel Millslagle, son of Jacob and Elizabeth Cooper Millslagle and brother of Hannah who had married James Pennington. Jane died shortly and Samuel Millslagle married November 5,1829 to Joanna Glaize. (Samuel and Joanna Glaize Millslagle are great grandparents of the author) Nancy Pennington, born 1810 married George Miller - Levi Pennington born 1811-died 1899 married Elizabeth Hammon - Phoebe Pennington, born 1815 married Jacob Miller. I cannot relate to Elijah Pennington the following persons who appear on the Harrison County, Indiana, 1850 census but will include them as Elijah's will showed that he owned land there. Living alone, Elizabeth Pennington, age 66, born V. (1784) next on the census is Walter Pennington, 73 born V. the 1767 Proprietary Return was shown as a gunsmith in Reading Town and taxed on 1 house, 1 lot, 1 horse, and 1 cow. Another brother of Adam Schreid was probably Christian Scheid who married Maria Elisa ____ in New Goshenhoppen Church on March 29,1761. This is the place of the early settling in Pennsylvania upon disembarking from the ships at Philadelphia of the Kumps, the Emmets, the Millslagles, The Coopers, The Loys and many of the others who came down to Frederick and Hampshire Counties in Virginia. It is also my belief that Charity Schreid was Charity McIlwee, daughter of David McIlwee, and that she was a sister of Mrs. Jacob Clutter and Hannah McIlwee Orndorff. Charity Schreid outlived her husband a great many years, dying some time in the decade 1820-1830, and she is always found on every census next door to the Kump descendents, the Pennington brothers who married McKeever daughters and remained in Virginia and the Reid families (the daughter of Hannah McIlwee Orndorff having married John Reid.

Elijah Pennington and his wife Elizabeth Schreid Pennington with many of his 14 children went to Ohio, and there he died in Crawford County in the year 1834, and he is possessed of lands in Harrison County, Indiana, in Warren and Putnam Counties in Illinois, as well as his inheritance from his father-in-law, Adam Schreid in Hampshire County, Virginia. Putting together the Pennington records of Mrs. Louise Walsh and my records gleaned from the Hampshire County records this is the family of Elijah & Elizabeth Pennington: Henry Pennington, married by 1820, wife unknown with 2 daughters under 10 years of age. John Pennington, to Guernsey Co. Ohio by 1832, gives his age on 1850 census as 60, wife named Martha, age 50, Mary 18, born Ohio Andrew 20, Belinda 16 and William 14, all children born Ohio, the parents both born in Virginia. Thomas Pennington, born 1789 remained in Virginia, married Margaret McKeever - genealogy given previous family, the McKeevers. James Pennington, born 1791 married Hannah Millslagle, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Cooper Millslagle. James died childless in 1843 and his wife Hannah Millslagle Pennington died in 1852. Enoch Pennington born 1794, married Phoebe McKeever, he too remaining in Hampshire County, and records before given. William B. Pennington, birthdate also given as 1794 married Rhoda McKeever, this family did go to Ohio as you will note by their genealogy given under the McKeever family. Isaac Pennington born 1796, no record. Adam Pennington, born 1898, died 1849 married Cynthia ____, no further record. Elizabeth Pennington, born 1800 married Andrew Emmett. Frances Pennington married John LaFollette, birthdate unknown, to Ohio with her parents; Charlotte Pennington, b. about 1804 married William Caughey in Ohio John Pennington, (I wonder if this could be him ? taken from the 1850 census, Princeton in Gibson County, Indiana - J.J. Pennington, 44, physician born Virginia (1806) wife E.A. age 38 born Md. Children: Susan 15, born Indiana as are the following also, Helin 13, Agnes 11, Nickles (male) age 5, and Walter 2. - Jane Pennington, born about 1806 also married May 16,1825 to Samuel Millslagle, son of Jacob and Elizabeth Cooper Millslagle and brother of Hannah who had married James Pennington. Jane died shortly and Samuel Millslagle married November 5,1829 to Joanna Glaize. Ruth Albin, daughter of Hugh Shannon is a legatee in the will of Hugh Shannon written Dec.7,1783 , though she still shows as Ruth Shannon on the 1784 census of Hampshire Co. Va. I believe her to have marrie the John Albin who moved over into Harrison County,Virginia where they live as neighbors to all of the George Nixon-Hannah Arnold Nixon children. And I believe John Albin to have been the son of James Albin Sr. born 1753. - 1850 census of Guernsey County,Ohio, William Albin age 58, born Va. THE CHESHIRE FAMILY

John Cheshire born 1665-70 married on February 14,1692 at Middletown, N.J. to Ann Sutton. (Suttons later to Hampshire Co. Virginia. Samuel Cheshire, son of Joh and Ann Sutton Cheshire married September 13,1740 to Ann Robbins, daughter of Benjamin Robbins. They came very early to Hampshire County area though of course it w Frederick County, even may have been Augusta County at the time of their arrival. Samuel Cheshire probably died before the Revolution for it is the wife as the head of the household who furnished supplies for the army in that war. Samuel may have been one of the unfortunate settlers who was killed in the Indian attack on Fort Edwards in 1756. Children of Samuel and Ann Robbins Cheshire were: Rebecca, who married Col. Elias Poston and whose genealogy is afore given, Rachel Cheshire who married Paul McKeever and whose descendants are already given, Samuel, Jr. who married Barbara ____Samuel Jr. died before 1829 for that is the death year of his wife Barbara and the following children are listed in her will, Uriah, Obediah, Samuel 3rd, Joel, Nancy, Axsha, Sarah and Rebecca. You will find in this book that Uriah Cheshire Jr. married into the family of my Millslagle ancestors. Though many of the Cheshire descendants went on westward, many did remain in Virginia though they are in the late 1880s found in Mineral County to the west of Hampshire now though in those early times a part of the original Augusta,Frederick, Hampshire areas.

THE PUGH FAMILY

There are 147 early Pugh Births in my Early Births Western Frederick County Virginia - Eastern Hampshire County, West Virginia and there are 56 Pugh Marriages in my Early Marriages Western Frederick County, Virginia - Eastern Hampshire County, West Virginia and there are of course the two good books written in the early 1940s by Miss Maude Pugh, her Volumes One and Two entitled Capon Valley, Its Pioneers and Their Descendants. There is much more available to us now in 1978 than there was to Maude Pugh who did not even have access to the census of 1850 which was first to list ALL persons instead of just the Heads of Families, so I have made many Pugh cards for my files; if neither ill health or senility overtake me I hope to edit a supplement to my three Hampshire and Frederick Counties books which will contain my notes, not only on the Pugh family but all the others in that area. Most Pugh research seem to agree that Evan Pugh, son of the Immigrant Robert Pugh as was Evan Pugh also, was an adult upon his arrival in America and that he quite soon after 1700 left the Bucks County, Pennsylvania area, moving southward into Chester and the lower counties which later were to become Maryland, and that he later moved back into Pennsulvania again, working westward and southward and came into Virginia and "west of the Blues" in the period between 1735-1745 at which time he had a large family of which the eldest were soon to reach their majority, and it is my belief that not all of the oldest of Evan Pughs children came to Virginia, some remaining in Pennsylvania. As I construct his family (and this remains to be proven) I believe Evan Sr. Pugh and his wife (reputed by an early genealogist to have been Mary _____, had these children: Robert, Jesse, John, Jonathan, Daniel, Evan, Jr., Elizabeth and probably other daughters. Evan Pugh Jr. as well as Evan, Sr. had land surveyed in 1749/50 and Jacob Pugh had a survey at that same time which was more southerly in that part of the county which was later set off into Hardy County. So I believe Jacob Pugh too was a son of Evan Pugh Sr., and his wife Mary. The daughter Elizabeth married John Cale (Kale) She was born December 13, 1730 , she died September 14, 1796 in Hampshire County, Virginia and is buried in the Kale family Cemetery. There they were neighbors of George Nickson, James Caudy, John Arnold, John Ashbrook, John Parks, John Parks, Jr., the Pritchard brothers, the Edwards brothers. I believe Robert Pugh who married Mary Edwards to have been a son of Jesse Pugh of Evan Sr., not the son of Evan Sr., and I believe Jonathan Pugh who married Margaret Wood to have been the young uncle of Robert rather than his brother. I believe the Robert of Evan Sr., and Mary Pugh stayed in Pennsylvania. Evan Pugh Jr., married Catherine and these are some of his children: Jacob, Nicholas, Michael, a daughter who married William Wilson, Jonathan, John, Evan 3rd and Bethuel. During the Indian forays in the area in the period 1754-55 Evan and Catherine Pugh deeded their lands to William Wilson and returned to Pennsylvania and they may have even died there, and as the Indian troubles subsided some of the sons and daughters returned, other went over into Harrison and Wood Counties of Virginia, settling on or near the Ohi river. Jacob returned to Hampshire as did Nicholas who died there in 1785, and Michael Pugh was administrator for the estate of Nicholas there. Jonathan of Evan Jr. west westward very early into Ohio country. John and Evan Junior went southward, John into Orange County, North Carolina. 1794 finds Evan 3rd in Darlington County South Carolina where he is serving as county clerk in the county Court there, and I have a copy of his deed to Joseph Pugh (son of Robert and Mary Edwards Pugh) in which he conveys 129 acres lying and being in Virginia in the county of Hampshire in a valley between Great Cacapon and North River at the head of a branch that leads into the North River formerly known by the name of Plum Tree Bottom. This deed so clearly written in such excellent writing and accurate spelling gives good evidence of early education. This attest to the deed: "Darlington County Court, May term, 1794...The within Evan Pugh appeared in open court and acknowledged tha he did sign, seal and deliver unto Joseph Pugh the within instrument of writing (t said Evan Pugh being a single unmarried man) as his act for all the uses and purposes therein set forth. Acknowledged in open Court and in my presence, being the only presiding Judge of said Court, this 20th day of May, 1794. Signed by Evan Pug in the presence of Robert Ellison, Judge of the Court."

Page 141, Volume one of Maude Pugh's Capon Valley, Its Pioneers and Their Descendants is in error in the opening paragraph when she states "Jesse Pugh II, son of Jesse and MARTHA Pugh.... Jesse Pugh II was the son of Jesse Sr., and Sarah McDonald Pugh. Martha Hiett Caudy did, after the death of David Caudy in 1783 and before June 27,1798 marry a Pugh, and he may even have borne the name of Jesse, but she had not married the Jesse Pugh, son of Robert and Mary Edwards, and it was to the Jesse of Robert and Mary Edwards Pugh and his wife Sarah McDonald Pugh that the Jesse Pugh who married Charity Gard was born. Jesse Pugh Sr., son of Robert and Mary Edwards Pugh and his wife Sarah McDonald Pugh moved over into Washington County, Ohio about 1813-1815, and their son Jesse Jr., who was at that time married remained on his fathers farm on Dillon's Run, lived out his days there as did most of his children and grandchildren, and many of them are buried in Capon Chapel Cemetery.

THE EDWARDS FAMILY

Early Edwards men who came to the "west of the Blues" very early chose lands quite distant from each other (not by today's standards, but quite a travel when trails were the early roads), they were named Joseph, Thomas and John Edwards and may have been brothers or cousins. Their forbears had migrated from Massachusetts down through the Jersies, Pennsylvania and then into Virginia, some of them leaving Virginia before 1760 and settling in North Carolina. By the times of earliest avail able records of lower Pennsylvania and Virginia so many of the descendants had been named Thomas and Joseph that it is impossible to give the parents of any of the thr Edwards to Western Frederick or Eastern Hampshire areas. John Ward probably settle in what is now Hardy County, as did Isaias Ward and John Edwards. John Edwards of that area is believed to have had a son Richard Edwards. The earliest Thomas Edwards appears to have settled northeast of Winchester and when the Indians became troublesome he removed to Rowan County,North Carolina, probably making the journey South with or at near the same time that his early neighbor John Hiett also went to North Carolina, and he (Thomas Edwards) witnessed a deed there April 28th, in 1760 at the time John Hiett was making ready to return to Virginia. Thomas Edwards had married Mary Hiett, a daughter of John Hiett born of his first marriage to Mary Smith. It is believed that Thomas Edwards and his wife Mary Hiett Edwards also returned to Virginia . One genealogist says that this Thomas Edwards was actually Thomas Edwards,Jr, his father Thomas Sr. was supposedly the son of one John Edwards, and the wife of Thomas Edwards Sr., was Tabitha. Thomas Sr. Edwards and his wife Tabitha supposedly married Rebecca Hiett, daughter of William and Alice London Hiett, (granddaughter of John and Mary Smithh Hiett, and they moved a bit to the South of the Turkey Springs area in Frederick County and one of their children was Joseph Edwards,Jr., William Edwards son of Thomas married Ann Albin and their descendants are given in Volume 2 of Maude Pugh's Capon Valley Pioneers.

Joseph Edwards settled on Great Cacapon. He was the builder of Fort Edwards, and it was frfom this Fort that 40 of the menfolk left to pursue an Indian band in the spring of 1756 and of that 40 men, but 16 returned, the other 24 being killed from ambush; a sad,sad day along the Capon River. The children of Joseph Edwards, whose wife was Sarah _____ were: David whose wife was Abigail and who had by 1765 sold his Hampshire land to Peter Reeve and Thomas Wharton of Philadelphia and gone westward. David while making a trip back to Winchester to buy salt and gunpowder was killed by the Indians. David and Abigail had a son Samuel who married Catherin Hiett, daughter of William Hiett. Samuel was after the death of his father and gran father,Joseph Edwards to sue Jesse and Samuel Pugh,his cousins because grandfather Joseph Edwards awarded lands in his will to the Pugh grandsons after having promised it to Samuel Edwards. Samuel won the suit, and shortly afterward he sold those ancestral acres and went to the West. Joseph Jr. Edwards, son of Joseph Sr. and Sarah _____Edwards married Elizabeth Vance. Thomas Edwards, son of Joseph and Sarah Edwards married Mary Smith and they had Thomas Edwards who married Martha Keener on December 13,1785 and became the parents of children, one of whom was Ann Edwards who married John Powell. Thomas Sr. and Mary Smith Edwards were par-

Page 141, Volume one of Maude Pugh's Capon Valley, Its Pioneers and Their Descendants is in error in the opening paragraph when she states "Jesse Pugh II, son of Jesse and MARTHA Pugh.... Jesse Pugh II was the son of Jesse Sr., and Sarah McDonald Pugh. Martha Hiett Caudy did, after the death of David Caudy in 1783 and before June 27,1798 marry a Pugh, and he may even have borne the name of Jesse, but she had not married the Jesse Pugh, son of Robert and Mary Edwards, and it was to the Jesse of Robert and Mary Edwards Pugh and his wife Sarah McDonald Pugh that the Jesse Pugh who married Charity Gard was born. Jesse Pugh Sr., son of Robert and Mary Edwards Pugh and his wife Sarah McDonald Pugh moved over into Washington County, Ohio about 1813-1815, and their son Jesse Jr., who was at that time married remained on his fathers farm on Dillon's Run, lived out his days there as did most of his children and grandchildren, and many of them are buried in Capon Chapel Cemetery.

THE EDWARDS FAMILY

Early Edwards men who came to the "West of the Blues" very early chose lands quite distant from each other (not by today's standards, but quite a travel when trails were the early roads), they were named Joseph, Thomas and John Edwards and may have been brothers or cousins. Their forbears had migrated from Massachusetts down through the Jersies, Pennsylvania and then into Virginia, some of them leaving Virginia before 1760 and settling in North Carolina. By the times of earliest avai able records of lower Pennsylvania and Virginia so many of the descendants had been named Thomas and Joseph that it is impossible to give the parents of any of the thr Edwards to Western Frederick or Eastern Hampshire areas. John Ward probably settle in what is now Hardy County, as did Isaias Ward and John Edwards. John Edwards of that area is believed to have had a son Richard Edwards. The earliest Thomas Edwards appears to have settled northeast of Winchester and when the Indians became troublesome he removed to Rowan County,North Carolina, probably making the journey South with or at near the same time that his early neighbor John Hiett also went to North Carolina, and he (Thomas Edwards) witnessed a deed there April 29th, in 1760 at the time John Hiett was making ready to return to Virginia. Thomas Edwards had married Mary Hiett, a daughter of John Hiett born of his first marriage to Mary Smith. It is believed that Thomas Edwards and his wife Mary Hiett Edwards also returned to Virginia . One genealogist says that this Thomas Edwards was actually Thomas Edwards,Jr, his father Thomas Sr. was supposedly the son of one John Edwards, and the wife of Thomas Edwards Sr., was Tabitha. Thomas Sr. Edwards and his wife Tabitha supposedly married Rebecca Hiett, daughter of William and Alice London Hiett, (granddaughter of John and Mary Smith Hiett, and they moved a bit to the South of the Turkey Springs area in Frederick County and one of their children was Joseph Edwards,Jr.. William Edwards son of Thomas married Ann Aitkin and their descendants are given in Volume 2 of Maude Pugh's Capon Valley Pioneers.

Joseph Edwards settled on Great Cacapon. He was the builder of Fort Edwards, and it was from this Fort that 40 of the menfolk left to pursue an Indian band in the spring of 1756 and of that 40 men, but 16 returned, the other 24 being killed from ambush; a sad,sad day along the Capon River. The children of Joseph Edwards, whose wife was Sarah ____ were: David whose wife was Abigail and who had by 1765 sold his Hampshire land to Peter Reeve and Thomas Wharton of Philadelphia and gone westward. David while making a trip back to Winchester,to buy salt and gunpowder was killed by the Indians. David and Abigail had a son Samuel who married Catherin Hiett, daughter of William Hiett. Samuel was after the death of his father and gran father,Joseph Edwards to sue Jesse and Samuel Pugh,his cousins because grandfather Joseph Edwards awarded lands in his will to the Pugh grandsons after having promised it to Samuel Edwards. Samuel won the suit, and shortly afterward he sold those ancestral acres and went to the West. Joseph Jr. Edwards, son of Joseph Sr. and Sarah ____ Edwards married Elizabeth Vance. Thomas Edwards, son of Joseph and Sarah Edwards married Mary Smith and they had Thomas Edwards who married Martha Keener on December 13,1785 and became the parents of children, one of whom was Ann Edwards who married John Powell. Thomas Sr. and Mary Smith Edwards were par-

David Edwards who was deceased before 1791 leaving children, David, Andrew and Jesse. Jesse sold slaves in 1791 and 1794. Sarah Ann, Naomi, Margaret and Hannah Edwards were the daughters of Thomas and Mary Smith Edwards. Mary Edwards, daughter of Fort Builder Joseph and Sarah ____ Edwards married about 1755 to Robert Pugh, and their children are given on page 140 of Volume 2, Maude Pugh's Capon Valley Pioneers.

CAPTAIN JEREMIAH SMITH

Thomas Smith, married Ann ___. He died 1692 and his inventory was taken by William Johnson and James Pierce at Cohansey, Salem County, New Jersey. By December 4, 1693 it was agreed Ann Smith and Thomas Yard could give her two sons, Seth and Jeremiah Smith each a heifer when they attained the age of 12 years, children of Thomas and Ann Smith were Solomon, Seth, Jeremiah and Deborah Smith. Jeremiah Smith 1st, son of Thomas and Ann Smith was born about 1685 and 1690. It is not known whom he married, Their son Jeremiah Smith 2nd was born 1711, married Susanna Smith on February 19, 1750 and she soon died, leaving a son Thomas Smith who was raised by Susanna Smith Smith's family and went with them to South Carolina where he married and had a son Jeremiah. Jeremiah Smith 2nd married again after the death of Susanna to Elizabeth ____. Sometime about 1752-55 Jeremiah Smith came down into Frederick County, Virginia and settled on a place he had staked sometime in the 1730s. Ten children were born to Jeremiah and Elizabeth Smith. Probably of early Quaker upbringing, Jeremiah Smith 2nd was almost certainly disowned for he almost at once upon his arrival either formed or joined a local militia for protection of the now threatened area by the maurading Indians now being urged to attack the early Virginians. Early Augusta County in September of 1977 names the following officers viz; Col. T.B. Martin, Lt. Col. Meredith Helm, Major Richard Morgan, Capt. John Funk, Capt. JEREMIAH SMITH, Capt. Samuel Odell, Capt. Jacob Funk, Capt. William Bethel, Capt. Isaac Parkins, Capt. Edward Rodgers, Capt. William Vance, Capt. Lewis Stephens, Capt. John Denton, Capt. Thomas Sweringen. Jeremiah Smith 1st is thought also to have had a son William Smith who wrote his will February 18, 1743/4, Cape May County, New jersey in which he names his children: John, William, Richard, Jonathan, Daniel, and Jeremiah, daughter Elizabeth, the wife of Samuel Foster, and granddaughter, Ruth Foster. - So we cc see that he too names a son Jeremiah for his father, a custom so prevalent in the period 1700 to about 1825 as to forever confuse and perplex genealogists ever afterward. The children of Captain Jeremiah Smith and his wife Elizabeth of Frederick County, Virginia were perhaps all born in Virginia and upon the place he had staked so many years before which lies on Back Creek in the area now known as Gore, Virginia, but originally called Back Creek. These children were: Sampson (Samuel ?). He died unmarried in the early fall of 1803 and it is from his will that one defines his brothers and sisters. Jeremiah Smith 3rd son of Jeremiah 2nd, md. Elizabeth (Genealogist Ralph L. Triplett says she was Elizabeth Snyder) born 1755/65. He was deceased at the time his brother Samuel wrote the above mentioned will in 1803 who left legacies to the children of his deceased brother Jeremiah, naming them as Elizabeth Bowman, Joseph, Sarah, Thomas, Mary, Samuel and Ann (Hannah) Smith. A daughter of Captain Jeremiat and Elizabeth Smith, name unknown married a Mr. Frum, for Samuel Smith leaves legacies to Sampson Smith Frum, Mary Frum, and Delilah Frum. Andrew Smith, sor of Capt. Jeremiah and Elizabeth Smith married Susan Williams. Andrew died and Susan Williams Smith married Morris Ellis, widower of Sarah Hancher, the daug'ter of John And Sarah Caudy Hancher, and granddaughter of James Caudy the Pioneer, Sarah Hancher Ellis having died around 1800. Morris Ellis married Mary Smith, (Mary Susannah Williams Smith ?) on April 26, 1801, and to this marriag was born a daughter Ann Ellis and Ann Ellis married James Albin, and after hi' death she married secondly-Ann Ellis Albin married secondly to George Smith, a brother of her mother's first husband. To George and Ann Ellis Albin Smith was born a daughter, Emily Ann Caroline Smith who married William Cather on

David Edwards who was deceased before 1791 leaving children, David,Andrew and Jesse. Jesse sold slaves in 1791 and 1794. Sarah Ann, Naomi, Margaret and Hannah Edwards were the daughters of Thomas and Mary Smith Edwards.
Mary Edwards, daughter of Fort Builder Joseph and Sarah ____Edwards married about 1755 to Robert Pugh, and their children are given on page 140 of Volume 2, Maude Pugh's Capon Valley Pioneers.

Their son Jeremiah Smith 2nd was born 1711, married Susanna Smith on February 19,1750 and she soon died, leaving a son Thomas Smith who was raised by Susanna Smith Smith's family and went with them to South Carolina where he married and had a son Jeremiah.
Jeremiah Smith 2nd married again after the death of Susanna to Elizabeth ___. Sometime about 1752-55 Jeremiah Smith came down into Frederick County,Virginia and settled on a place he had staked sometime in the 1730s. Ten children were born to Jeremiah and Elizabeth Smith. Jeremiah Smith 1st is thought also to have had a son William Smith who wrote his will February 18,1745/6, Cape May County, New Jersey in which he names his children: John, William, Richard, Jonathan, Daniel, and Jeremiah, daughter Elizabeth, the wife of Samuel Foster, and granddaughter,Ruth Foster. - So we can see that he too names a son Jeremiah for his father, a custom so prevalent in the period 1700 to about 1825 as to forever confuse and perplex genealogists ever afterward. A daughter of Captain Jeremiah and Elizabeth Smith, name unknown married a Mr. Frum, for Samuel Smith leaves legacies to Sampson Smith Frum, Mary Frum, and Delilah Frum. Andrew Smith,son of Capt.Jeremiah and Elizabeth Smith married Susan Williams. Andrew died and Susan Williams Smith married Morris Ellis, widower of Sarah Hancher, the daughter of John And Sarah Caudy Hancher, and granddaughter of James Caudy the Pioneer, Sarah Hancher Ellis having died around 1800. Morris Ellis married Mary Smith, (Mary Susannah Williams Smith ?) on April 26,1801, and to this marriage was born a daughter Ann Ellis and Ann Ellis married James Albin, and after his death she married secondly Ann Ellis Albin married secondly to George Smith,a brother of her mother's first husband. To George and Ann Ellis Albin Smith was born a daughter, Emily Ann Caroline Smith who married William Catlett on George Smith, born 1769, son of Captain Jeremiah and Elizabeth Smith was married three times, first marriage to Frances Curlett on Jan.13,1795, secondly to Margaret McDonald on April 21,1814, and thirdly to Ann Ellis Albin on November 26,1819. In addition to the daughter Emily Ann Caroline Smith aforementioned the children o George and Ann Ellia Albin Smith were: Mary Caroline Smith who died at the age of five years with scarlet fever. - Jeremiah George who married Elizabeth Furr on Oc-ober 5, 1843 - Joseph F. who married Ellen Cunningham on October 3, 1854 - Isiah Dorsey Smith who married Elizabeth Lockhart, daughter of Gen. Josiah Lockhart on March 18, 1856. The children of George Smith and his first wife Frances Curlett were: Jeremiah Smith who died at age 18, (Typhoid fever) - Thomas Smith and he died at age 16 with same typhoid fever, Ann Smith died at age 14, typhoid fever also, William Smith born December 18,1796, died March 3,1883, married Lucy Bywaters. - Samuel Smith, born Mar.7,1802, married in 1826 to Julia M. Next son of Captain Jeremiah 2nd and Elizabeth Smith as named in his brother Samuels will was Jonathan, and of him nothing further is known. The daughters of Captain Jeremiah 2nd and Elizabeth Smith were : Sarah Smith who married Evan Hiett, son of John and Margaret Stevens Hiett and their genealogy is well given in both Maude Pugh's Capon Valley Pioneers and a Hiett Genealogy recently written and in most large libraries. I am grateful to Mr. Ralph L. Triplett of Western Frederick County for much material on the Jeremiah Smith family (b.1898) who has lived his lifetime on Back Creek, as did his parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents on both his paternal and maternal lines; to me he is the most knowledageable genealogist and historian of his area and has done more to collect records and history of the Western Frederick-Eastern Hampshire,Virginia area than has anyone ever put together. How very grateful we are now, and those who will follow us will be to the untireing labor of this dedicated man.

married about February 1736 Sarah ____Miller, the widow of Richard Miller and

William Davis and his wife Alice in August of 1769 leased and released a parcel of land on Hughes Run in Hampshire County to James Moore. William Davis was the son of either Thomas and Sarah Pue Davis or Elijan and Sarah Miller Davis, and no further record of him appears in Hampshire County. Samuel Davis, son of Elijan and Sarah Miller Davis married Mary Parks, widof of John Parks Jr. who had settled in Hampshire County, Virginia about 1735-40 as had his father John Parks Sr. Samuel and Mary Parks Davis returned to New Jersey to live. Elijah Davis, Jr., son of Elijah Sr. and Sarah Miller Davis was born about 173__and the name of his first wife is unknown, but I have long wondered if she had not been Margaret Caudy, daughter of David and Martha Hiett Caudy, and if his second wife was her sister Ann Caudy who was probably the widow of a Pugh (maybe Jacob Pugh who was killed during the Indian uprisings). Children of the first marriage are thought to have been : Thomas who married Ann McKee on November 1,1801 - John, whose genealogy will follow, - Elizabeth who married a Mr. Hellyer, - Ann who married Charles Simmons and this couple are interred in Capon C$_h$apel Cemetery; this burial place being one basis for my belief that there is a Caudy relationship in the Davis family. - Miriam who married a Mr. Secrist, - Absalom and Attelia about whom nothing is known other than their being named in the will of Elijah Davis which he wrote on May 27,1813, and which was proved on November 15,1813, - Sarah, "my youngest daughter" and David and Elijah,"my two young sons"., these latter two children believed to have been born to the second marriage of Elijah Davis which was to Ann Pew in Christchurch in Phil$_a$delphia, Pennsylvania on January 24,1788. John R. Davis, son of Elijah and ______Davis was born 1780/85 and he married Ann B. Scaarf , daughter of George Scaarf on O$_c$tober 5,1806. Born to them on May 18,1811 was Samuel Davis who died at Yellow Springs, Virginia on March 6, 1882. He married Maria Swisher, born April 11, 1825, died August 31,1908, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Kline Swisher. (it is during this period of history that the spelling of Swetizer, Schweitzer and Switzer is changes to Swisher). The descendants of Samuel and Maria Davis are given beginning on page 140 of the Vance Family Scrapbook authored by Joseph F. Vance to which the Davis researchers are referred, and will not be repeated here. At this point I wish to express my very deep gratitude to Caudy G. Davis my "double cousin" for he and I relate through both my paternal and maternal ancestry. Caudy G. Davis, son of George Davis and grandson of Samuel and Maria Swisher Davis was born on April 30,1886 (he was 92 years of age yesterday if he is still with us). He well remembers my father (born 1869) for his fathers farm adjoined my fathers place and he was aged 18 when my parent left that place at Concord, Virginia. Caudy Davis gave so liberally of his knowledge concerning the early surveys of all those neighboring farms, he being an engineer and a surveyor, is well-versed in the early "meets and bounds" and often inaccurate early surveys of young George Washington's early surveys. In 1948 when my father had passed his 79th birthday, my brother and he flew back to the home of his childhood, and this trip included a good visit with Caudy Davis and his ther living sisters-in-law, Bertha and Elvie Spaid, and I often look at the good pictures of all of them that were taken at their home at Yellow Springs, Virginia. When my sight grows dim, I hope to send these good pictures to the children or grandchildren of Caudy G. and Ada Spaid Davis.

THE SIRBAUGH FAMILY

The earliest Sirbaughs of Western Frederick County came down from Pennsulvania, and it is not known just when the immigrant arrived from Germany. Jacob Sirbaugh born about 1765-70 married in Frederick County, Virginia in 1789 to Sally Anderson and some of their sons were David, Henry and Jacob Jr., and possibly daughters. Jacob Jr., son of Jacob Sr. and Sally Anderson Sirbaugh was born 1807, died November 22,1868 at age 61. He married Elizabeth Barr.

William Davis and his wife Alice in August of 1769 leased and released a parcel of land on Hughes Run in Hampshire County to James Moore. William Davis was the son of either Thomas and Sarah Pue Davis or Elijah and Sarah Miller Davis, and no further record of him appears in Hampshire County. John M. Davis, son of Elijah and ____ Davis was born 1780/85 and he married Ann D. Secart, daughter of George Secart on October 5, 1806. Born to them on May 10, 1811 was Samuel Davis who died at Yellow Springs, Virginia on March 5, 1892. Mrs. David J. Read

Dear Mrs. Read,

Thank you very much for your letter regarding the Pennington's, with connections to the McKeever's. My husband is descended from William B. Pennington, who died in 1878 in Texas Twp., Crawford Co., Ohio. I am very interested in William B. and his father, Elijah Pennington.

Your "small bit of information" regarding Jacob Miller, who ~~x~~ married first Phoebe Pennington (sister to William B.) and ~~x~~then Nancy LaFollette (niece of Phoebe Pennington), is very interesting. Thank you. I enclose copies of my notes on the family of Elijah Pennington (with 14 or more children).

If you wish to help in Pennington research, there is a magazine called "Pennington Pedigrees" which comes out twice a year. The April issue should have more of my notes on the pension records of Pennington men. Before we moved, last month, I found it convenient to spend time at the National Archives. I read all the Revolutionary, 1812, and later pensions. The Civil War pensions for all Penningtons number about 350, and I have not intended to read all ~~thoxx~~ those!! However, I understand people are appreciative of the material on the early pensions.

If you wish to contribute your Pennington information, including census records, please send a letter to:
Penny Floyd
Rt. 1, Box 228-E
College Grove, TN. 37046
She is in charge of the section on 'original records' for "Pennington Pedigrees." I do hope you can send her some material.

As for "helping" me, you mention your Genealogical Society. Do you have any tombstone records for William B. Pennington and his wife Rhoda (or Myranda, or Elizabeth?) in Texas Twp., Crawford Co., Ohio. Or in any other vicinity? I have seen death ~~x~~ certificates for both of them, so I am assuming they might have been buried in the locality they died.

Also, do you have any tombstone records for Elijah Pennington and his wife Elizabeth? You will note from the enclosed material that Elijah died around 1833 and his wife may have died after May 1832. Is there any record of Revolutionary service for Elijah? (Is his grave marked, etc.?) I have seen a copy of his will, probated both in Crawford Co., Ohio and Hampshire Co., Va. This will is a genealogist's delight as it mentions all 14 children by name.

If, upon reading the enclosed material on the families of Elijah and William Pennington, you feel you can fill out more information from the public library, please do. I find that sometimes information on children and grandchildren can give a lead as to the parentage of the parents. I am looking for information about the parents of Elijah Pennington. I suspect he came from eastern Md. or Delaware, but there are many early Pennington families in that vicinity. Any help would be appreciated.

If, also, you happen to locate living descendants of Elijah Pennington, I would be most happy to share my information with them. Incidently, I believe Elijah P. has recently been accepted by the DAR as a revolutionary ancestor. Naturally some women would be interested to find a Revolutionary ancestor.

Throop' pronounced "Troop" and sometimes misspelled "Troop"

Incidently, I am currently undating and amending a book called "The Throop Tree." If you run into any records of any kind on any Throop, I would appreciate learning about them. If your Society has any tombstone records, I would be interested in those. Some Throops settled in the corner of Indiana which borders on Michigan and Ohio. Others came through the Detroit area ~~and~~ south, perhaps to Lucas Co., Ohio.

I look forward to hearing from you. Please note my new address. And again, thank you for sending me the Miller-Pennington information.

Sincerely,

Lowe M. Throop

Dear Mrs. Throop,

I was recently given your address by Mr. Vance in Lombard, Ill. I am connected with him on the Swisher line. He stated that your husband was descended from the Pennington's.

Although I am not related to Pennington's, I am related to the McKeever's who seemed to have intermarried quite a bit.

I have one small piece of information that it seemed you might not have.

From HISTORY OF CRAWFORD CO. OHIO by Baskin and Battey 1881 - I have the following: Jacob Miller m. (1st) to Phoebe Pennington who d. April 9, 1875. She was born in Va. and came to Seneca Co. in 1826. They had 8 children. Mr. Miller the m. (2nd.) Miss Nancy LaFollet b. June 2, 1838 in Hampshire Co., Va. and came here in 1858. They had 2 children.

There are two Pennington families in this area that are not related to each other, but neither seem to be related to any of your Pennington's.

I have access to quite a bit of material on Crawford Co. and area at our Public Library. If there is anything that I can try to find for you, I would be happy to do it at no charge. I have read most even Census records (1820-40-60) but did not copy all Pennington's since they were not direct relatives.

In fact, the only reason I have as much is the hope that they would lead me to more Arnold-McKeever information.

At the presant time I am secretary for the Northwestern Ohio Genealogical Society. It is a small organization by most standards, but we have been coping and indexing all the cemetery records and stones of cemeteries in Lucas Co. and close area.

I would be happy to hear from you and hope that I might be of some assistance. I have received much help from Mr. Vance and a Mr. Arnold in Calif., and I have not been able to send them much information, so maybe I can redeem myself by helping someone else.

Sincerely,

Mrs. David J. Read

He was the second son of Hiram and Jemima La Falette Spaid who had fourteen children, and a grandson of John and Hannah Anderson Spaid, the parents of thirteen. Mr. Spaid was a shoemaker, not unlike the great shoemaker who shaped the young life of one of our most loved and worthy Presidents, Calvin Coolidge. He had a literary turn of mind and read and jotted down in a not book matters of vital interest. Mr. Spaid was of a jovial disposition and his songs kept time with the music of his hammer. His shop was an office as neat and beautiful as the footwear that he turned out. In winter

Thanks so much for your information on Sarah Arnold and family.

Yes, I do have an actual copy of the will of Paul, if you give me your mailing address, I will make a copy of it and send it to you. There is also a mention of Darby McKeever in the land records of someone else (whose name I can't remember at this time) where it mentions the lines of the property bordering on "Darby McCevers grave", which I can send you a copy of also.

No, I don't have ANY information regarding John, and its very frustrating to think he might be the link, however, not to have one single piece of evidence to prove it. Have you heard the phrase, "Without the evidence to prove it, Genealogy is just Mythology." That's the way I feel. I could apply for the DAR if I could make the link, however, I'm not sure that there is any hard evidence out there that anyone hasn't already discovered, so I think John just died before Paul, leaving at least Jacob, (my ancestor). I have only found in the land records where it is referrred to as the McKeever heirs.

I also have a page out of a book (I don't have the name now) but it talks about how the McKeever's fought off the indians in their cabin in Virginia? If not, I'll send that also, its very interesting reading.

I contacted a woman regarding Reuben McKeever from the Pocahontas area, and she is TOTALLY unable to connect her Reuben to Paul, or to Darby because she said the records of that county are non existant. The legend according to the Vance Family Scrapbook, says that three brothers came to the valley, which could be true, but we find Darby Sr. in Orange Co. in 1730 being sued (do you have that?) so if the brothers really did come, it must have been before that.

Let me know what you would be interested in, and I will make copies and send them to you. I would really like to find more information on them and their descendants, especially when that one person mentioned the name Clarisse. That is a name that has never come up in my search at all. She must have some information, otherwise where would it come from?

Just let me know what I can send you.

Susie

named as above. It continued in existance until 1897, although its editor, William Harper, died in 1887, it being continued until 1890 by Mrs. Harper, and then sold to a stock company with C. F. Poland as editor, until 1897, at which time Cornwell Brothers bought it out and combined it with the Review.

Then this beloved paper went out of existence and the people transferred their interest to th Hampshire Review, the strongest paper ever yet in this county, and one of the best county papers in the State; edited first by C. F. Poland, then the Cornwell Brothers, John J. and Wm. B. Later it was owned and published by John J. Cornwell and Lewis K. Dinkle, at present, 1936, Cornwell, Dinkle and Keller are the publishers; Miss Margaret Inskeep Keller being editor and Mr. Dinkle, manager; Mr. Cornwell owning the controlling interest.

Mr. Dinkle did the whole work while John J. Cornwell was Governor of West Virginia.

NAMES OF VILLAGES, POST OFFICES, ETC.

CAPON BRIDGE, on land first owned by Joseph Edwards, the Fort builder, 400 acres; and next by Samuel and Jesse Pugh, his grandsons.

Existed as a settlement before the Indian Wars and was known as The Ferry. It took the name of Capon Bridge from the old covered bridge which replaced the Ferry when the North Western Turnpike was made, 1835. This bridge was washed away about the year of the Johnstown flood and was replaced by an open wooden bridge which was used until the Turnpike was made into a highway, when a steel structure supplanted it.

Dr. J. J. T. Offutt was the first post-master at the Bridge and his descendants have served the people in that capacity most of the time since the office was established, See Book I for Offutt Family.

Among the earliest inhabitants of this village after the Edwards, Pughs, Hietts, Nixons, Caudys, and Bealls were the Postons, Gards, Fryes and Hooks, Monroes and Smiths, all, people of high standing and whose descendants are still taking an active interest in the Valley's welfare.

WARDENSVILLE

Wardensville was named for Jacob and Benjamin Warden who were, for many years, merchants in that village.

The pioneer Wardens settled on Lost River about 1750. They, with the Fryes, McKeevers, Ogdens and Hughs families, were

EDWARDS FAMILY

Among The Very Earliest Pioneers To The Northern Neck Of Virginia

Joseph Edwards, son of the Fort builder, married Rebecca Hiett, daughter of William Hiett who married Alice London, (or Elsie London), and who was son of John, the Pioneer.

Both Thomas and Joseph Edwards had sons named Thomas and Joseph.

Among the marriage records of the Edwards Family in Winchester, are:

Thomas Edwards married Martha Keener; (By minister, Christian Straight), December 13, 1785.

Joseph Edwards married Elizabeth Vance.

———Darlington married Polly Edwards, 18th March, 1788.

Simon Fish married Nancy Edwards, July 18, 1796.

Gabriel Darlington married Martha Edwards, May 8, 1798.

Edward Edwards married Margaret Darlington, March 17, 1799.

Joseph Edwards, Fort builder, stated in his will that his grandsons, Samuel and Jesse Pugh, sons of Robert and Mary Edwards Pugh, should cast lots for the land on which the dwelling house stood. You remember that he willed them his 400-acre tract located on both sides of the river where Capon Bridge now stands. Vol. 1.

William Edwards married Anne Albin, August 23, 1796. She was a great aunt of Mary Flory and Mrs. Schnibbe, Sr., both born at Pleasant Dale in what is now the Albin Inn.

Thomas Edwards, great, great grandfather of Walter Hiett, married Tabitha ———, and the father of this Thomas was John Edwards. So his line was:

1. John, 2. Thomas, 3. William, and William's children were:

I. ROBERT, who married Eva Hawkins, children: Elizabeth, married Isaac Grapes; Jane married Peter Largent; Hiett, married Lizzie Henderson, Jas. married, gave his life to C. S. A., left a son James, Ohio.

II. WILLIAM, who married Katie ———. Children: Robert and John. John married Abbe Bennett, of Delaware Illinois.

The children of William, son of Thomas, besides Robert and William were:

III. POLLY, who married Robert Grapes; no children.

IV. NANCY, who married Alexander Deaver; one son, Major George Deaver, given in Hiett Genealogy.

V. ANNA, who married John Hiett, son of Jeremiah Hiett. Children: Walter, Samuel, Lucinda, Harriett, Mary, Martha, Robert, Asa, Sarah and Jeremiah.

3. Clara Grant, who married W. H. Patterson, minister of Church of Christ. He died July, 1936. Mrs. Patterson died 1939. They are buried at Mt. Union, near Slanesville.
4. Page Grant, married Jiles.
5. Bud Grant, did not marry.
6. Ben Grant, married Jennie Adams.

Many soldiers by the name of Edwards fought in the Revolution.

This family was of same line as the distinguished Jonathan Edwards of New England. See Edwards Family History.

The Pioneer Edward's family of Great Capon married and went west, it seems—with a few exceptions.

Family of Robert Edwards, Sr.

Robert Edwards, Sr., son of William Edwards, was son of Joseph Edwards, who owned land and built Edwards Fort, near Capon Bridge, West Va., near route No. 50. Robert Edwards married Eva Hawkins, and moved to North River where they bought one of the Deaver farms (1 mile north of the Ice Mountain farm) where they lived and raised a large family. Shortly after the Civil War, about 1867, they sold the farm to their son-in-law and daughter Peter and Jane Edwards Largent, and moved to; I think, Peoria, Ill., where they died and are buried .

Their children were: John, who married Susan ———, lived and died in Keyser, West, Va. They had one daughter who married Henry Montgomery, an engineer on B. & O. R. R. Their children are: Erston, Ethil, Fay and Clem Montgomery, all living in Keyser, West Va., 1947.

Anna married a Carmichael, and moved to some of the western states.

Nancy married M. Hare, and moved to the west.

James married Harriot ———, killed in the Civil War. One child, James Jr., living in Marysville, Ohio.

Mary married John Ely, moved to Iowa, (see John and Mary Edwards Ely family, written by her nephew, H. E. Ely), Des Moines, Iowa, 1947.

Albert and George moved west, and the writer (E. F. Largent) their nephew, can find no trace of them, 1947.

Elizabeth married Isaac Grapes, (see their family sketch in Volume II.

Robert Jr. married Susan Funk, and moved to Iowa. His children are living in and near Stockport, Iowa, 1947.

Jane married Peter Largent, (see Volume II for family sketch.) They rode horseback to Stanton, Va., in 1863, where they were married. They started housekeeping on the Margaret Slonaker farm near Cold Stream, Va., just across the river where their son, the writer of this sketch, now has his home, 1947.

BUBBLING SPRINGS

Bubbling Springs, another of Capon's many natural phenomena, is a mineral spring that sends up innumerable bubbles which break at the surface constantly. It has a flow of about 500 gallons per hour and is located in Capon District near what is known as Kale's Ford. About the year 1740 a German family named Kale took up the land and built there and brought up their family. A daughter, Elizabeth Kale, born there, 1759, married George Nicolas Spaid, 1782 (See Mr. Secrest's History of the Spaid Family). He, born in Hesse Cassel, Germany, August 24, 1759, was kidnaped by the agents of the Duke of Hesse on his way to High School and sold to the English king to fight against the American colonies; captured by Washington in the midnight battle of Trenton, was sent as prisoner of war to Winchester and released at the end of the struggle. After their marriage they settled at the Bubbling Spring which was about one mile south of the Kale home and brought up their family, then removed to Ohio, but several of their children remained on Capon and are the ancestors of the Spaid family of the Valley.

After the Kales, Captain David Pugh, the Statesman, owned the Spring many years until his death; still later Amos L. Pugh came into possession of it. The present owner is a Mrs. B.C. Baker, a descendant of original Pioneer Kale family. She has built up quite a summer resort there for tourists. The water is thought to have curative properties for many diseases. That may have been one of the reasons for the advanced age of Mr. Spaid and of Captain David Pugh who lived to reach ninety-four years, despite his strenuous and active life as an officer of the county and state. When you come to Capon visit the Bubbling Spring, south of and near Capon Bridge.

Andrew Jackson and Henry Clay are said to have visited Mr. Pugh and doubtless drank from this spring enroute to the Capon Resort.

FORT EDWARDS

This fort was built by Joseph Edwards on his 400-acre tract, lying on both sides of Capon River, where Capon Bridge now stands. It was completed in or before the year 1748. It stood about one-half mile below where the old North Western Turnpike at a later date crossed Capon near a ferryboat crossing.

This Fort, located on the west side of the river, enclosed a never-failing spring of water, the same spring used by the family of Mr. Fenton Riley at this time, who lives north of and near Capon Bridge High School.

Fort Edwards must have been large, considering that it was for some years the only safe shelter from the Indians nearer than Winchester and, it is thought, saved nearly all the families then in the whole Capon Valley from slaughter during the early Indian warfare.

This 400 acres was willed by Edwards to Samuel and Jesse Pugh, his grandsons, the latter being the great grandfather of Mr. Amos L. Pugh, and the former the reputed founder of Capon Bridge, Settlement "The Ferry" — Mary Edwards, daughter of Joseph Edwards, married Robert Pugh, father of Samuel and Jessie. They, Robert and Mary, were later parents of ten other children, twelve in all.

In 1757 a large body of Indians crossed the Alleghenies into Hampshire. They then separated into small parties and scattered over the county in order to commit depredations, or murder, on the various settlements. Thirty or forty of these approached Fort Edwards late one evening. They went to the mill near by, killed the two men there, then took some meal and pretended to spill it along the pathway between the stream and the mountain in order to decoy the garrison to a place near the high bank of the stream where they hid with their guns in readiness.

About forty men from the Fort in command of Capt. Mercer, thinking the Indians had withdrawn, sallied forth to pursue and attack them. They took the path of the cornmeal, and when directly over the bank the Indians opened a deadly fire, killing sixteen of the men at the outset. Not knowing the number of the Indians they scattered, under cover of darkness, toward the hills and were pursued and slaughtered, only six returning to the Fort. One man, wounded in the ankle, with a bone shattered, concealed himself under a fallen tree and was not found until the third day, when men from the Fort ventured out to collect and bury the dead. He recovered but was always crippled. Capt. George Smith, from Back Creek, informed Mr. Kercheval, the historian, that he had often seen him.

Some time afterwards, the Indians in much greater force, led by a Frenchman, determined to take this Fort by storm, but it had been reinforced and among its leaders was the youthful Dan Morgan.

The Indians made the assault with great boldness, the garrison came out and a desperate battle ensued. The Indians were defeated with many killed, while the whites lost only a few men. In this action Morgan exhibited the firmness and caution that later made him famous in the Revolution.

The remains of a gun of fine finish was, in after years, plowed up on this ground. It was thought to have belonged to a French officer.

FORKS OF CAPON STOCKADE

During 1757 and 8, two men in the stockade felt it necessary for them to go four miles for the purpose of cultivating their grain in order to have bread. Their names were Bowers and York. On their return in the evening they were waylaid by seven Indians, Bowers was shot and fell dead. York ran and was pursued by three Indians. After running a while he took across a high ridge; one of the pursuers tired out before he reached the top. The others continued the chase. After running some distance, the second gave out. The third got so near that he several times reached to seize York but failed, and York got safely into the Fort.

This story was handed down by a John Largent living near Caudy's Castle, born 1826, son of Joseph and Mary Largent, French lineage, people well hnown and of good standing, pioneer stock.

LOST RIVER

The source of Lost River is several large springs near Beck's Gap at the base of the water shed which divides it from the North Branch of the Shenandoah River. This famous stream which rises above Lost City, unlike any other river, flows into a mountain, a phenomenon that takes place three miles west of Wardensville near McCauley, Hardy county, West Virginia, on State Route 23.

Normally the stream disappears quietly under a rugged ledge of Sandy Ridge, a spur of North Mountain, but when there is a freshet it sets up a roar that can be heard some distance.

The stream emerges one mile west of Wardensville, having been lost three miles in its meanderings under the mountain. It is still a crystal fount as before but with a new name, "Ca Caphon", (now called Capon) bestowed upon it by the Indians at a date unknown, before the white man set his foot upon the soil of the beautiful valley. From here it speeds away through old Hampshire, once Frederick, once Orange, once Spottsylvania county, to join the "Potomac" near Paw Paw, above the Nation's Capitol.

HAMPSHIRE HISTORY

Abridged from Chapter 35 of Maxwell & Swisher History and other works and from old records.

All of Hampshire which then included several other counties belonged to Lord Fairfax, from a grant by Charles II, lands bounded by the Rappahannock and Potomac to their headwaters, to various English proprietors, one of whom was Lord Culpepper — about six million acres. Culpepper bought out the others and from him this vast estate descended by inheritance to Lord Fairfax.

Lord Fairfax never married. He was a scholar and a man of letters; tall, dark of complexion. He came to Virginia, 1747, middle-aged, eventually settled and lived in a log cabin; planned a royal residence twelve miles from Winchester, Greenway Court, in Clark County, but finished only one building. His stewart lived in it. He had about 150 slaves in cabins round about. He lived simply and seemed satisfied. He took to his bed at the defeat of Cornwallis at Yorktown and died in the fall of 1781 at the age of 92. He was buried under the communion table in the Episcopal church in the center of Winchester, which, with its lot and burial ground, he had donated

HIETT FAMILY HISTORY

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN HIETT, THE PIONEER

JOHN HIETT, born in England, 1658, came to Pennsylvania, 1682. Children: William, John Jr., George, Mary, Rebecca, and Sarah.

This history, hereinafter, deals with the descendants of John Hiett, Junior.

JOHN HIETT, JUNIOR, the pioneer to Sandy Ridge, Capon drains, settled first on Sandy Ridge and lived there for a while. The date of this settlement is authentically given in Records as 1737. After some years he removed to North Carolina and remained there a while. After the Indian Wars ended he returned to Virginia and, September 1, 1764, purchased land of Thomas and Elizabeth Green on both sides of the Opequion in the line of Joseph Edwards of Bear Garden. Settled and died there, 1764, as per his will given in this book. The will was probated in Frederick county, December 4, 1764.

John Hiett, pioneer to Sandy Ridge, was married twice, the name of his first wife being unknown here. He evidently married her in Pennsylvania. Their children were:

1. George, who had married Martha Wakefield in Pennsylvania, went with his father to Rowan county, North Carolina and remained there. Their descendants moved northward and westward and have been found in Wilmington, Ohio, Indianapolis; Leavenworth; Lockport, and Nova Scotia.

2. John, married Mary Locke.
3. William, married Alice (or Elsie) London.
4. Joseph.
5. Catherine, married ––––– Harrell of Harrelsville, Rowan county, North Carolina.
6. Mary, married Thomas Edwards, of Joseph Edwards. See the will of the "Fort Builder", Romney Records, W. B. 2. They removed from Hampshire county to Ohio and lived near what is now Sandusky. There is a tradition that after Mr. Edwards' death there she came to Jefferson county and married a second time, the name of the seond husband being Hiett, presumably a cousin. Mary Hiett and Thomas Edwards had several children, the second daughter married Hugh McIvor of Capon Valley and they went to Greenbriar River to live; rich lands, but yet sparsely settled.

The Indians came and killed the husband and took the wife and children into captivity. After five years she managed to escape and return to her friends. During captivity she had been separated from her children and never allowed to see them but once; and she never again heard of them. This story is also known to the McIvor (McKeever) family, you will note, though told in a somewhat different way.

7. Ann, married ––––– Harris.
8. Margaret, married ––––– Craven, of Craven, Rowan county, North Carolina.

Children by the second wife, Margaret Stevens Post, were all minors at the death of the pioneer, 1764, as follows:

9. Evan, married Sarah Smith.
10. James, married a Miss Lucretia Pugh, went to Marietta, Ohio, it seems, from an old letter in the hands of the relatives of the Hiett family. She may have been a daughter of Robert and Mary Pugh.
11. Jonathan, M. Mary Conner.
12. Timothy, died single. He was a witness on the will of Joseph Edwards, April 10, 1781, with his brother-in-law, David Caudy and a Joel "Chesher".
13. Martha, married David Caudy, who died before 1783, leaving sons, John, Evan and James Caudy. See will of the pioneer, James Caudy, W. B. 2, Romney, West Virginia; given in the Caudy Family this Vol.

14. Ruth, married ——— Shirley.

15. Sarah, married Daniel Pugh, it seems from old records, son of Lieutenant Jonathan Pugh – Will Book 2 –, Romney, West Virginia.

Daniel and Sarah Pugh had three children: See his will –

1. Juliana, who married James Westfall (as per marriage records in Moorefield).

2. Amy, who married Strother McNeill and left two children: J. Hanson and George W. McNeill. J. Hanson was the famous Conf. Capt. McNeill of McNeill Rangers – See Book I.

3. Hannibal, who married Sydney McNeill (May, 1828, Romney Records); left a family in Hardy county. Nothing can be ascertained as to the whereabouts of the descendants of Juliana and James Westfall. They evidently pioneered to the west. See Book I.

THE HIETT FAMILY HISTORY

EVAN AND SARAH SMITH HIETT

EVAN HIETT, the "Quaker preacher", son of John and Margaret, married Sarah Smith. Children:

1. JOSEPH HIETT, married Ailsia Sutton; Six children.
2. JOHN HIETT, married Elizabeth ("Betsy") Tansy (sister to the wife of Captain Jonathan Pugh); Five children.
3. JONATHAN HIETT, married Hannah Harrison, related to the family of President William Henry Harrison. Eight children.
4. JEREMIAH HIETT, married Lucinda Kidwell; Fifteen children. All reached adult age.
5. MARGARET HIETT, married "Old Benjamin McDonald". Eight children.
6. ELIZABETH HIETT, married Thomas Gothrup.
7. ANN HIETT, married James S. Kidwell. Four children.
8. SARAH HIETT, married Adam Loy; Seven children.
9. MARTHA HIETT, married George Moreland; Children.
10. MARY HIETT, married Spaulding Kidwell; Nine children.

Evan and Sarah Smith Hiett lived on Sandy Ridge at the farm now known as the A. C. Cowgill place, they were industrious and thrifty as well as religious, for it has been said that he owned a farm for every child, which meant 10 farms, Evan Hiett died in 1815.

JOSEPH and AILSIA SUTTON HIETT lived on Capon and brought up the following children:

1. JOHN HIETT of Forks of Capon; married JULIA ANN STUMP. Children:
   1. Samuel, never married.
   2. John S. married a Miss Noland. Children: Eight.
   3. Mary, married Captain Simon Swisher; one son, Edward Swisher.
   4. Joseph, married Miss McDonald; no children.
   5. Anna, one daughter, Lina, who is still living and a favorite in her community.
2. EVAN HIETT, Forks of Capon, married JANE EASTER. Daughter of Peter Easter. Children; Five.

—but we find Justices continued to perform this service—of course they were not required by Statute to perform it. They seemed to treat the office as one of the emoluments of the Hon. Court. This was the case in the office of High Sheriff; the senior Justice always being named by the Governor for this office after the Justices had formally recommended one of their number for appointment. This gave the court the right to pass upon the fitness of their President. We find the court asking the High Sheriff to recommend several persons for Deputies; the court would then appoint one of the Justices who seemed willing to help along, for many were needed to serve processes in the sparsely settled country:

At the October Term, 1745, we have this minute to show how work on the public buildings is progressing:

"Levied to James Bruce for mending the seats in the Court house to be paid in Tobacco	64 pounds
To John Littler for plank for prison..	890½
" Marquis Calmes for iron work on the Prisons	3200 "
" Duncan O'Guillon for work on Goal, tobacco	6400 "
" Hugh Campbell for digging the Dungeon of the Prison	1120 "

We are unable to account for the distinction between the Prison and Goal, doubtless the one building embraced both. From the next item, we infer the Justices were fortifying their judicial positions;

"Levied to Giles Chapman for bringing to the court 13 Acts of Assembly." The foregoing minutes clearly indicate a completion of the Jail or prison just prior to this term. Norris in his History, gives the date of completion September 8th 1748, (an error;)

The Court held Monthly terms; and from this period each term indicated new settlements springing up, to receive attention from the courts. The tide of immigration had turned towards the famed country lying South of the "Cohonguruta," where families were seeking homes West of the Blue Ridge. As has already been said, petitions for opening roads were pouring in at every term; and the ten years succeeding this term from which the last minutes were gathered, witnessed enormous development. A full list of roads opened prior to 1753, is given in chapters on the topography and physical features of the County. The court was also granting mill rights on the various streams. A number of superior mill sites were soon appropriated; and rude, but useful structures sprang up in all sections. We will try to locate the more prominent as this study progresses. The nucleus for villages being formed will be located—Churches or Meeting Houses were going up which will be found in Chapters on Churches. The Field notes of Washington show many surveys for tracts of land which were returned to Court, and ordered to be recorded or filed. Deeds were then made to many settlers at various places, extending from the Shenandoah to Great Capon, and along South Branch, Some were located in what is called, "Washington's Pattersons Creek Survey," embracing many thousand acres. Many found homes in what was known as "South Branch Manor," the old surveys are very instructive. They locate the tracts, names of grantees, and dates of entry. As it may serve to show who many of the arrivals were, brief notices of the names and regions where they settled about 1749-50, will be given, though some doubtless had erected the squatters cabin several years previously, and waited for some Lord of the Manor to come and give them title. Some names appear with surveys, who had other tracts and resided on such as the very earliest settlers. Andrew Campbell, one of the Justices, lived in the vicinity of the Baths northwest of Winchester; George Wm. Fairfax, survey for land on Long Marsh, John Anderson on same,—Captain Thos. Ashby on Shen. River above Burrells Island, Henry and Robt. Ashby on the Fairfax Road, Jas. Blackburn lived on his land on Long Marsh, Capt. George Neavill had survey on Long Marsh, Thos. Colston's survey on same, John Cozen's on same, Richard Carter for several large tracts on same, Isabella Jump, survey on same, John Vane and John Madden at Joe's Hole on Long Marsh, Saml. Isaacs and Isaac Pennington on Long Marsh, Thos. Johnston owned land on same, adjoining Col. Blackstone; George Smith, on the same; Jeremiah Wood, Patrick Rice, Nathaniel Daugherty, John Loftin, Hannah Southerd, Maj. L. Washington, had surveys on Long Marsh made by Washington and his chain carriers. Long Marsh has ever been noted for its fertile soil and Colonial Homesteads, and is today the name of one of the Magisterial Districts in Clarke County. The Bullskin Creek offered attractions for the following named persons, who were settling in that section, and the Washington surveys, embraced them. Henry Bradshaw, Lawrence Washington, Marquis Calmes, the Justice; Richard Stephenson, Wm. Davis; G. W. Fairfax; Joshua Haynes, George Johnston (in another tract he is mentioned as Capt. George Johnston) Thos. Lofton, & Dr. James McCormick are mentioned as "abutting owners" to Capt. Johnston's tract. Johnston sold his tract to George Washington. Patrick Mathews was on the South side the Bullskin; Capt. Isaac Pennington, mentioned as a resident, on the Bullskin:—Washington in his notes says, "I lodged there, the first night in first survey campaign," and Anderson Pitts had been previously on his patent, also Capt. Thos. Rutherford "was seated and desired no survey," likewise Nathaniel Thomas, also Saml. Walker (written in notes Waker,) Robt. Worthington was on a large grant. The following surveys were along the Shenandoah River; Robt. Fox, Edward Musgrove, George Neavill, adjoining Wm. Vestal who owned the Vestal Iron Works at base of Blue Ridge; Saml. Knisman, Henry Enoch, John Newton; Henry Harris's survey near the "Manor Line," "John Vestall, previously seated on Pattent." The following named persons had surveys made them on the South Branch. Washington, says John Collins had settled in the Manor—near the Indian Village (North of site of Moorefield,) and that he and Mr. George Wm. Fairfax spent the night with Collins. This note also appears "James Rutledge was settled about seventy miles above mouth of South Branch, where they spent a night. Michael Stump, Henry Venable, need surveys, for lands settled on prior to 1748. This note is dated April, 1758. The young surveyor evidently made one mistake in his life; for at that date, Col. Washington was in the Fort Duquesne campaign, and also interested in his election campaign on his return in June. This survey must have been made in 1753, while on his surveying expedition. In same note book this appears: "surveyed a tract of land——acres for William Baker on Lost River, November 10, 1749, which adjoins Barnaby McHandry," John Kinson had his survey on Lost River, several surveys are mentioned. Jonathan Arnold and David Woods on North River of Ca-Capon, Darby McKeever, Sen., for survey on Ca-Capon River, and several others; Abram Johnston and others were on Pattersons Creek in 1748, supposed to have come from Penn, via, Fort Cumberland. That was dangerous ground at that period, for many immigration trains were attacked by roving bands of Indians, as will be shown later on. Washington and Fairfax name their chain carriers and markers for each tract, and this will furnish some names that will not appear elsewhere. The list is given for reference. Frequently he selected men who were adjoining owners; the following represent several sections; John Anderson, Henry & Robt. Ashby, Capt. M. Calmes, markers on their own lands, Francis & Thos. Carney, Joshua Haynes, Henry Henricks, Tos. Jones, John Keith, Timothy McCarty, Thos. McClanahan, Dr. James McCormick, John Miller, Jno. & Ned Musgrove, Hgh. Rankin, Ruben Rutherford, Stephen Sebastian, Richard Taylor, Lewis Thomas, Owen Thomas, Jno. Urton, Alexander Vance, Wm. Wiggons, Jeremiah Wood, and Worthington. For much interesting matter relating to surveys, the old deed books deserve careful study; and for personal matter relating to Surveyor Washington—see Field Notes, among the Washington Papers, and especially, one marked "A Journal of my Journey over the Mountains." His companion in this "Journey" was George Wm. Fairfax. There is some evidence that he was Senior Surveyor in this work, begun in 1748, one year prior to Washington's appearance with Lord Fairfax. One other field book and journal, contains notes indicating that Washington's first appearance as a surveyor was in 1749, where he continued in the work until 1753. We offer this for no speculation, but simply quote from old Washington papers, as matter that must interest the reader.

JOHN AND JIM BRIDGER

In 1752, while Marlin and Sewall were still at the mouth of Knapps Creek the elder Bridger, father of John and Jim, surveyed and laid claim to a large tract in the Swago Basin and between Buck's Run and Dry Creek. This survey included much level land, as well as the mountain, known today as "Bridgers." There were Bridgers about Harter on Greenbrier above Marlin's Bottom. If these settlements were made by the same family, one of the tracts must have been sold or abandoned, and move made to the other tract. It is probable, however, that there were two families. Tradition has it that our Bridgers were relatives of the famous Jim Bridger, of Wyoming, who lived with two Indian squaws, one of these named Dang-My-Eyes.

At the time of the Drinnen Raid the John and Jim family lived at the foot of Bridger Mountain, close by the Warrior's Road where John McNeill now lives. Remains of the cabin's foundation may yet be seen in McNeill's yard.

When Nathan gave alarm at Fort Keckley a rescue party, accompanied by Nathan, set out northward over Warrior's Road. When they passed the Bridger Cabin, they were joined by John and Jim. The elder Bridgers hurried to the fort.

This big trail through the Greenbrier River Country was, originally, no more than a footpath two feet wide, but the settlers enlarged it to accommodate horse-drawn sleds. In many places in Pocahontas these improved trails are plainly visible, and may, for short distances, be traversed by car and tractor.

The rescue party and refugees from Knapp and Stony Creek section followed the trail down river over route now occupied by 219. At Dr. Price's residence the trail left the river to go up Price Run, thence around the mountain close to Mrs. Waldo Waugh's home, then about the foot of Buck and Bridger Mountains, through the Loudermilk, McClintic, Smith and McNeill farms to the top of the mountain south of Buckeye, where the trail intersected present 219 and from there, in general, followed 219 to Keckleytown (now Mill Point). On land now owned by Mrs. Louise Pease, a minor trail came up from the mouth of Swago, to unite with the main trail. At this intersection a near way—a narrow footpath crossed the level to the west, then climbed a steep mountain, passed through the "notch", then down to join the Warrior's Road near Marvin Chapel.

"THE DEATH OF THE BRIDGER BOYS"

At the intersection on the Pease farm, the two Bridger boys and Nathan decided to take the near way through the notch, since known as "Bridgers", this gap is on land now owned by Dr. Sandy Auldridge.

The Bridger boys have been criticized and praised for leaving the main caravan and taking the near-cut. Some say "foolhardy"; others contend that they aimed at preventing a savage attack upon the main body.

Before the main body of refugees reached Alex Waddell's, who lived where Jim Cook now resides, a shot was heard on the mountain to the West.

The troop paused at Waddell's to learn why he, instead of fleeing to the fort, was building a hogpen far down in the woods. His explanation was that he and family might as well be killed by Indians as starve to death for lack of bacon.

As they talked with Waddell, there was crashing in the brush, and out popped Nathan, puffing, panting and sweating. By way of explanation, the colored man said: "Jis up dar et that low place, my moccasin cumed loose, and when I ties it, dem Indians shoot at de boys in de gap. Nathan cussed dem Injuns, den santered round de mountain to fine youse folks."

With most residents of the area safely in the fort, there was anxious waiting. The Bridger boys did not come. No attack was made upon the fort, but war-whoops were heard upon the ridges. Withers states that the Indians went farther and came upon John Pryor who, with his family, was on the way to Kentucky. Pryor was killed and the family carried away captive. According to Withers, the savages returned by way of Elk Mountain where they captured the families of Thomas Drinnen and a Mr. Smith. No mention is made of Drinnen or Smith. This capture occurred on Drinnen Ridge near the present village of Edray. Some of the captives were killed on Elk Mountain.

The body of one Bridger boy was found, scalped and dead, near the home of Joe Kramer close to Marvin. The other boy was found in what is now "Bridger Notch". While bordermen stood guard, a grave was dug and the Bridgers buried upon the knoll just back of Joe McNeel's residence. A few days later, the body of Hugh McKeever was found upon Stamping Creek, a few miles above the fort, where he had been killed by the Indians. The open space where he was slain is still known as "Hughy Field".

Michael Melone	Tunas Newkirk
Richd. Lane	Robt. Railton" [3]

On 22 September 1737, the Orange Court approved Williams after he took the oaths as required and designated the locations for the meeting houses; after approval, he was admitted to record.[4]

By this time, he had already built a house and was living on a 225-acre tract of land purchased from Jost Hite on 27 April 1738 for 50 pounds, part of Hite's 700-acre patent land which was located on the east side of Opequon Creek.[5] This land is located 1½ miles east of the Martinsburg Airport on Berkeley County Highway 9/17, at the mouth of present-day Shaw/Spa Run. (Tract 19B, Map 2)

On 23 June 1738, he petitioned the Orange County Court to view the improvements on this land.[6] He filed an "Action of Trespass" against his neighbors almost at once and the Justices of the Court granted judgment against the defendants Darby McCever, Jonathan Curtis, John Hyatt and Daniel Chancey on 26 October 1738.[7] (An Action of Trespass entails property lines which were on land claimed by one party and were either owned by Fairfax grant, Colonial Patent or controlled by marks on trees laying out claimed land, later assigned to another party and then received a Fairfax grant after this office opened in 1748.) The Judgment of the Justices was reached with only the testimony of the plaintiff Williams as documentation.

The court then ordered "the Defendants to appear at the next Court to answer the said Action." On 27 June 1739, the defendants being sued by Williams for 500 pounds damage each (McCever, Curtis, Hyatt and Chancey) were tried by a jury of 12 men "who after hearing all the Evidences and Arguments of both (sides) went out and in a Short time returning to the Barr brought in their Verdict in these Words. We of the Jury find for the Defentants." The Court then decreed "that the said Plaintiff (Williams) take nothing by his bill and that the Defentants recover of the Plaintiff for his Costs by him about his Defense in this behalf expended."[8]

The remainder of Williams legal actions were in regard to debt from money lent, services performed, land sales, bonds, etc. On 22 September 1737, before he legally owned property in Orange County, he filed his first "Action of Debt" against Noah Hampton.[9] They apparently filed "Action of Debt " against each other. By reason of a survey by James Wood in December 1734, Noah Hampton claimed a tract of land containing 100 acres on both sides of Opequon Creek, about ¾ mile north of the present-day West Virginia Highway 51 bridge in Berkeley and Jefferson County, West Virginia.

inventory of Lilburn to the Court (having the total valuation of 46 pounds, 7 shillings, 6 pence) and an account of the estate sale. Other than the above named, the following made purchases: William Roberts, Lewis Thomas, Jacob Worthington, Daniel Burnett, Evan Morgan, John Tredan, William Davis, William Myers and John Morgain.[29] Ann Lilburn bought many items at the sale, including their 360-acre plantation located on Rockymarsh Run in present-day Jefferson County, West Virginia for 37 pounds.

In a deposition by John Smith (Junior), he stated that he "believes the administrators (of Lilburn's estate) were frightened to the sale of the land by (Reverend) William Williams, who threatened them with a (law) suit, if they did not sell it."[30] (The threat probably arose from the Action of Debt filed and won by Williams against Noah Hampton, John Lilburn, Neil Thompson and John Hampton).[31]

Francis Lilburn (b. 1715 c.) and his mother Ann Lilburn (widow and relict of John Lilburn) sold 70 acres, part of Stephen Hollingsworth's 472-acre patent land, to William McMachen (probably brother and son-in-law) for 10 pounds on 3 September 1745.[32] (Tract 9, Map 4)

Anna Lilburn's will (written 23 August 1748 and proved 17 December 1748) listed daughter Anna McMachen with son Francis as Executor; witnesses were Nicholas Mercer, John Lemon and Peter Bradford.[33]

On 20 February 1754, Francis Lilburn received a Fairfax grant for 212 acres adjacent John Lemon on Rockymarsh Run that encompassed part of the 360-acre, 6 December 1735 survey land.[34] (Tract 86B, Map 1) On 29 October 1756, he received the tract, ("where he lives") on Mill Creek, a branch of the Opequon adjacent northwest of Thomas Anderson's 542-acre patent land. (Tract 144, Map 4) This tract is located about ½ mile east of present-day Bunker Hill, on Berkeley County Highway 26 on the south and adjacent southeast of Inwood on West Virginia Highway 51 on the north. On 19 October 1763, he received a 490-acre grant from Fairfax; this tract lays adjacent southeast of Anderson's 542-acre patent land on Three Run and Mill Creek with Highways 26 and 51 crossing the tract.[35]

Francis and his wife Mary (widow of Colbert Anderson, son of Thomas) sold the 212-acre Fairfax land on 4 September 1758 to Burkhart Reager for 120 pounds.[36]

On 31 August 1767, they sold the 490-acre grant land: 326⅔ acres to Isaac Johnson for 80 pounds and 163⅓ acres to Charles DeMoss for 36 pounds.[37]

On 8 March 1775, John Lilburn, heir at law of Francis Lilburn (deceased), Mary Lilburn (widow and relict of Francis Lilburn) and Morgan Morgan (executor of John) sold the 397-acre grant land where Lilburn lived to Colbert Anderson (grandson of Thomas and son of Colbert and Mary Anderson Lilburn) for 300 pounds.[38]

McCEVER

Darby McCever (b. 1710 c.) purchased a 360-acre survey tract on Opequon from John Lilburn (according to depositions of Francis Lilburn and John Strode) and sold the land to Edward Strode about 1740 when he moved to "Cape Capon"[39] (Cacapon River) where he received a Fairfax grant on 7 October 1751. His son Darby McKeaver Jr. also received a Fairfax grant for 315 acres on Cacapon Creek (River) on 13 November 1752; both surveys were made by George Washington.[40] (Probably present-day Hampshire County, West Virginia, near Capon Bridge, West Virginia)

A Darby McKeever was listed as a stepson-in-law with John McKeever as an heir and Paul McKeever as executor of the will of Hugh Shannon (written 7 December 1783 and proved on 9 March 1794) in Hampshire County, West Virginia. Paul McKeever's will (written 9 March 1828 proved on 19 May 1828) listed wife Margaret and nine children; Margaret, Christina, Sally, Elizabeth, Julian, Eleanor, Paul, Hugh and Moses;[41] Paul was probably a grandson.

On 26 February 1737/38, Darby, with William Warden, was accused at the Orange Court of robbery by the Reverend William Williams and after examination, the case was dismissed.[42] He was probably living on the 360-acre survey land by this time and as a consequence of the harassing legal problems with the disputatious Williams, he moved to escape from his tormentor. Darby McCever's Grave is on "Derby's Road" on Pughs Run near Timber Ridge.[43]

PINCHER

Francis Pincher probably lived on the land which he had surveyed by Robert Brooke on 26 December 1734.[44] He received a patent from the Colony of Virginia on 12 November 1735[45] for this tract located on the side of Opequon Creek at the mouth of Evans Run and where present-day West Virginia Highway 9 crosses the was the site of a grist mill in 1771. Jacob and Elizabeth sold 294 acres of the 394-acre tract to Jacob Hoover (Elizabeth's brother) on 5 March 1779. On 20 August 1788, Jacob Hotzenbeler gave Jacob Hoover a receipt stating that he had received "full satisfaction of all bonds, notes, debts due and demands from the beginning of the world till this day" from Hoover. Jacob and Elizabeth had sold the other 100 acres of the 394-acre tract to Stephen Hotzenbeler on 23 April 1773.[155]

Stephen Hotzenbeler Jr. was assigned 181 acres on Pond Run of Cacapon River from his brother Jacob on 18 February 1773; the same day, he received a Fairfax grant for it. Stephen Jr. was assigned 68½ acres on Pond Run from his father Stephen on 16 June 1773 and again, received a Fairfax grant for it the same day. He received another Fairfax grant for 127 acres on Dry Run (a branch of Pond Run) on 6 June 1777.[156]

Stephen Hotzenbeler Sr. was deceased by 7 May 1776 when his will (dated 2 April 1776) was proved in Frederick County Court. He listed his wife as Barbara, although in the deed of 1766 his wife's name was recorded as Elizabeth. He willed 40 pounds to son Jacob and 60 pounds to son Stephen. He bequeathed five pounds each to the Lutheran Church and the Calvinist Church. He listed his daughters as: Susannah Crigler, Anna Maria Stroop, Catherine Kerns, Elizabeth "Huver" (Hoover), Mary Switsler and Agnes Bumgardner. Stephen left 14 pounds to his granddaughter Rebecca Bumgardner. He appointed his son Jacob and son-in-law Valentine Switzler as his executors. In an 1801 accounting of Stephen's estate, legacies were disbursed to the surviving heirs of Catherine Kerns (Nicholas, Elizabeth, Mary, Magdalin, Frederick, Jacob and John Kerns), Peter Switzer, Rudolph Bumgardner (son-in-law) and Rebecca Bumgardner. Several members of the Kerns family were in Greenbrier County, Virginia at this time.[157]

Rudolph Bumgardner was deceased by 16 December 1805 when his will (dated 16 September 1805) was proved in Hampshire County Court. His wife Agnes and their children Reuben and Rebecca were listed.[158] The Bumgardners lived near her brothers on Cacapon River in present-day Hardy County, West Virginia.

Jacob Hotzenbeler's wife was Elizabeth Hoover, daughter of William Hoover who died in 1779 in Shenandoah County, Virginia. Jacob's sister Elizabeth probably married his wife's brother, John Hoover.[159]

George Hotzenbeler (b. 1740 c.), who may have been a son of Stephen Sr., purchased 120 acres on Cedar Creek from Lord Fairfax on 6 August 1762.[160] This tract is located about two miles east of Mountain Falls, Virginia on Frederick County Highway 606; it lies adjacent to Martin Crider's 346-acre grant land and Jacob Wolf's land on the road from Marlboro Forge to Henry Fry's place on Pond Run, a branch of Cacapon River in Hardy County, West Virginia.

George was deceased by 1 April 1794 when his will (dated 3 February 1794) was proved in Frederick County Court. He willed the house where he lived to his wife Cattrine and the plantation to his son David. He gave the grist mill to his son Joseph (now in his possession) in addition to 20 acres with house on the south side of the Great Road leading to North Mountain. He listed sons Jacob, Henry, Daniel and John; also a daughter, Juliana. George appointed his son Joseph and his brother-in-law Paul McKeever of Hampshire County to serve as executors.[161]

Paul McKeever's will was proved in Hampshire County, Virginia on 19 May 1828. He listed his wife Margaret and nine children: Margaret, Christina, Sally, Elizabeth, Julian, Eleanor, Paul, Hugh and Moses.[162]

REED, WILLIAM & JOHN

William Reed (b. 1695 c.) purchased 200 acres on the southwest side of Opequon Creek on 14 May 1740; the transaction was witnessed by David Vance and Huchil Gilder. William paid Jost Hite 12 pounds for the land, a part of Hite's 5,018-acre patent land.[163] (Tract 140D, Map 8) This tract is located between Bartonville and Stephens City, Virginia on Frederick County Highway 648/649. Highway 649 crosses the center of the tract while Highway 648 forms the eastern half of the south line and continues to Stephens City.

William was deceased by 14 November 1749 when his widow Mary Reed was appointed administrator of his estate in Frederick County. On 19 June 1751, Mary received a Fairfax grant for 100 acres adjacent south of the 210-acre tract. She paid four pounds, 10 shillings for the survey and the deed.[164]

Mary was deceased by 6 May 1755 when her will (dated 11 December 1754) was proved in Frederick County Court. She bequeathed 50 acres each from the 100-acre tract grant land to her youngest sons William and Jonathon. Her husband William had willed the 200 acres to their eldest son John and to their daughter Martha, wife of Samuel Givins (b. 1720 c.). Mary appointed her brother Robert Allen to serve as executor.[165]

Subject: Frances McKeever

Posted by: Ernie Lunsford

Message: Sandy,

Thanks for the reply. I too am related to her through the Cackley line--my great great grandmother was Mary Cackley (daughter of Frances McKeever Cackley and Benjamin Cackley) who married Lewis Myers in 1852 in Van Buren County, IA. Benjamin cackley died in Jackson Co, OH in 1842 or 1843, I haven't been able to determine the exact date. Frances died in 1882 near Bonaparte, Van Buren, IA and is buried in Thompson Cemetery just south of Bonaparte. I grew up in Bonaparte but never knew anything about my family until I started my search. I actually saw her grave. She was born in 1796 and her stone says wife of Benjamin and mother of Mary. I suspected her father was Paul McKeever, but do not have any proof. Do you have documentation or Bible records that verify this. I have learned that the better the documentation, the more accurate the "find". I have found all sorts of references to Paul McKeever but none to link Frances and Paul, so I would appreciate whatever you have. I believe Paul's father was Darby McKeever, but again no definite proof. Let me know the what branch of the Cackley family you are from and I dig out more of my notes and see what else I might be able to help you with.
Ernie

February 6, 1911, and his present term expires in February, 1915. The Upland postoffice is a high-class office, and besides the postmaster the business is conducted by an assistant, who is Mrs. Connelly, one clerk, and two rural carriers. The rural routes cover fifty-four miles of country highways surrounding Upland. The annual volume of business at the Upland office, amounts to about thirty-eight hundred dollars. Mr. Connelly's service has been highly satisfactory to all patrons of the office. He has used his energy and influence to extend the service in every possible manner and has been the incumbent during a period when more important changes have been inaugurated in the postal service than in any similar period of history. Owing to the cosmopolitan population at Upland, Mr. Connelly writes foreign money orders to nearly every European nation. Previous to his appointment as postmaster Mr. Connelly was for five years and a half a rural carrier, over route number twenty-six from the Upland Station, and thus his record in the government mail service has been continuous for twelve years. Samuel A. Connelly was born in Jefferson township, of Grant county, January 26, 1862. He is one of the older of the family of children born to John W. and Rebecca J. (Clevenger) Connelly. John W. Connelly was born at Williamsburg, Virginia, in 1825, and died in Grant county in 1893. Grandfather Rev. John Connelly was a minister of the Methodist faith, from 1808 to the early twenties was elder presiding over a large district including portions of Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania,, and Maryland. Soon after leaving that work, he emigrated west and settled in Wayne county, Indiana, among the pioneers, where he lived to the venerable age of fourscore. John W. Connelly was a small child when the family settled in Wayne county, grew up there, was well educated for his time, and spent about thirty years of his life in the work of the school room. He came to Grant county in 1857, and is well remembered by many of the older residents who were his pupils. Along with teaching he combined the vocation of farming, and in 1871 bought in Monroe township, a tract of land, which has since been known as the Connelly homestead. John W. Connelly married Rebecca Clevinger, of an old and prominent family of Virginia, and Wayne county, and she was born in 1834 and died in 1909. More detailed information concerning the earlier generations of this family will be found in the article concerning Harry T. Connelly on other pages of the history. John W. Connelly and wife had eight children, namely: John, who lives on the old farm in Grant county; Bell, who married Noah Johnson, and died in 1890, leaving three children, Alva, Elva and Bertha; Samuel, now postmaster of Upland; Mary, who died in infancy; Joseph who is an oil man in Oklahoma, and is married but has no children; Dora, wife of J. P. Richard, a resident of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and their children are Hugo and Homer; Flora, who died at the age of twenty-two years, and Harry T., who is cashier of the Upland State Bank.

Samuel A. Connelly was reared and educated in Grant county, which has been his home through practically his entire life. After a few early experiences in different lines of work he engaged in the livery business, and finally was employed as one of the early rural mail carriers in Grant county, and has thus followed practically one line of public service for a dozen years. Mr. Connelly is a man of progressive spirit, and contributes liberally of his time and means to the advancement of everything that will improve local conditions. He is an active Republican.

Mr. Connelly was married in Grant county to Eva Horner, who was reared and educated in Jefferson township, a daughter of Joseph C.

John L. Thompson. While the Thompson family history had its local beginning in Monroe, its base was changed to Gas City when natural gas transformed Harrisburg from a hamlet to a manufacturing center. In making the change from rural to urban environment, John L. Thompson was thinking of the future of his sons, who were ambitious fellows and who must have congenial employment. It is a rare thing for a man who has made a success of one occupation to change it for another, and it was simply the force of circumstances that caused it.

John L. Thompson married Elizabeth S. Hays, November 15, 1865, and the children born to them are: Oscar S. Thompson, who married Olivia Davis. He has one son, Arthur E. Thompson, who married Frances Peters, and their son, "Billy" Richard Thompson, is in the fourth generation—all of them closely associated in business relation.

Eva Thompson is the wife of Alva A. Nesbitt, and she is the remnant of the family still adhering to the farm surroundings. Their children are: Mabel, wife of Kemp Deering; Genevieve, Lucile, Francis T. and Howell D. Nesbitt.

William O. Thompson married Lela May Yates and two children, John L., Jr., and Virginia, were born to them. Miss Gertrude Thompson is now at the head of the Thompson household. Howell D. Thompson married Marie Neal and two children, Janet Elizabeth and Haydn, were born to them. Since November, 1872, Mrs. Ella Kelley Thornburg has been a member of the Thompson family.

John L. Thompson and his wife, now deceased, represent two pioneer Grant county families, he being a son of Samuel R. and Martha M. (Thornburg) Thompson, who located in Monroe township, July 20, 1842, in the green woods, and he cut away the brush to drive the wagon to the spot where he built his first primitive dwelling. After buying the eighty acres and paying on it all the money he had ($85), he had a considerable debt, a wife and two children. The present day financier wonders, how six years later, Mr. Thompson built the brick house now occupied by Edgar Thornburg but known to all as the Thompson family homestead. There were some secrets known to the settlers—economy and industry.

Samuel R. Thompson was a native of Clinton county, Ohio, and his wife came of old line Quaker stock in the same community. They had tried a home in Randolph county, Indiana, before locating in Grant county. He was a tanner, and put in a tan yard in the woods, now an unknown industry in Grant county. There were tanneries in Marion and Jonesboro, but from the beginning Mr. Thompson had excellent patronage. He was an expert at his trade and made an excellent quality of leather from cow hides when there were shoemakers around so many firesides in Grant county. Tan bark is now an obsolete term in local history. This farm house and about one section of land remained when Mr. Thompson and his wife had lived out their day and generation.

Samuel R. Thompson and his wife were married November 8, 1838, and the two daughters they brought to Grant county were: Judith, who married Dr. Mahlon Pugh, and Sarah J., who married W. H. Taylor, and their son, John L. Thompson, was born at the family homestead and all of his life has been spent in the community—Monroe and Gas City. Miss Alma M. Thompson, Uri H. Thompson and Mary A. who married J. M. Buchanan are all natives of Grant county. Mrs. Pugh and Uri H. Thompson are deceased; Mrs. Pugh is survived by one son, John T. Pugh. Mrs. Buchanan's family is elsewhere enrolled in the biography section.

After five years in this position he entered the service of the Panhandle road, remaining with this corporation for four years. In all he completed over thirty years of service in various railroads, both in train service and in station work, and when he left the service railroading lost a valuable and experienced man.

After five years in this position he entered the service of the Panhandle road, remaining with this corporation for four years. In all he completed over thirty years of service in various railroads, both in train service and in station work, and when he left the service railroading lost a valuable and experienced man.

On the 15th of March, 1901, he came to the National Military Home in the capacity of quartermaster and acting treasurer, and in 1906 he became treasurer of this great national institution. His military record begins in 1862 when he enlisted in the Eighty-fourth Ohio Regiment for the three months term of service. He served through this enlistment and then re-enlisted in the One Hundred and Thirtieth Regiment, and finally came into the command of a company in the One Hundred and Eighty-ninth Ohio, from which he was mustered out in September, 1865, having seen almost constant service since the beginning of his term of enlistment.

Major Sanderson was married on the 2nd of April, 1873, to Mary L. Sheldon, of Blissville, Michigan, a daughter of Judge Homer J. Sheldon, who was a delegate to the famous Michigan Constitutional Convention. They have one son, Zach C. Sanderson, who is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and has further added to his advantages by a trip abroad. He taught history in the Winona College, at Winona, Indiana, for one year and is now traveling for the Century Publishing Company. Major Sanderson has never cared to take an active part in politics for like all true soldiers he is a citizen of the United States and politics that disrupt the country and lead so often to genuine harm, seem of minor interest to him. He is, however, an advocate of the principles of the Republican party, and casts his ballot at election times.

Alfred Pugh. One of Grant county's native sons who has attained distinction in business circles and who ranks among the most enterprising and progressive citizens of Upland is Alfred Pugh, notary public and insurance man, who is widely known in fraternal activities of the state. Mr. Pugh comes of Welsh ancestry, his grandfather, Azariah Pugh, being an emigrant from Wales to the United States and an early settler in Virginia. Records of this ancestor have been lost, and little is known of him save that he died in Frederick county, probably in middle life, and that his wife likely died there. They were the parents of two sons and two daughters: Michael, the father of Alfred Pugh; Jesse, who died unmarried as a young man; Catherine, who was married; and Elizabeth, who married Jesse Trowbridge and died in Frederick county, Virginia.

Michael Pugh was born in that county about 1795, and there grew to manhood, being reared to agricultural pursuits. He was there married to Elizabeth Caudy, who was born in Hampshire county, Virginia (now West Virginia), in 1805, daughter of James Caudy, a native of Ireland, who came to the United States when young. Her mother was a Miss Lyon, whose father came from Ireland. They were married in Virginia where they lived to advanced years and died in the faith of the Methodist church. After their marriage, Michael and Elizabeth Caudy removed to Guernsey county, Ohio, and there settled on a farm, but following the birth of their first child, James, came overland to Indiana, with a yoke of oxen, one horse and a covered wagon, camping by the roadside at night in true pioneer fashion. In 1834 they located on a farm in section 13, Jefferson township, Grant county, where the father entered 160 acres of land, and for some years thereafter was compelled to walk over a blazed trail through the woods all the way to Fort Wayne, this journey taking four days. On this farm Mr. Pugh made numerous improvements, building two log cabins and then a frame house, the latter of which is still standing on the old homestead and occupied by his grandson. The old home farm has never gone out of the family name, but is kept as an inheritance. Mr. Pugh was a sturdy, industrious man, whose tireless industry and unbounded energy assisted him in making a success of his operations in the agricultural field. He stood six feet tall, was a man of iron nerve, and while he never saw active military service at the front, owing to his age, was captain of a local militia company at the time when soldiers were being mustered into the service. He was liberal in his donations to all worthy enterprises, and although he was a member of the Methodist Protestant church made a gift of the land for the cemetery at the Shiloh Methodist Episcopal church. He died August 23, 1863, widely mourned throughout the community, while the mother, who was a charter member of the Shiloh church, died at the old home in 1890. They belonged to the strong old pioneer stock which faced the dangers of the unknown forests, where the father with his trusty flintlock supplied the family with game, while the mother remained at home and wove and spun the cloth for the clothing and blankets. Politically a Democrat, Mr. Pugh never cared for public office, preferring to devote himself to making a home for his family. To Mr. and Mrs. Pugh there were born the following children: James, who died after his marriage to Nancy E. Stephens, by whom he had three children; David Wesley, who married Margaret Smith, both of whom died in Grant county, leaving a son and daughter; Josiah, who died in Colorado, was married and had a family of children; John W., who died in Upland, was twice married and had three children by his first union; Mahlon, deceased, who was married and is survived by one son; Branson, who died leaving a widow and one daughter, one daughter having previously died; Amos, deceased, who left a widow and had one son who had previously died; and Alfred, Sally, Margaret and Maria Jane, all of whom died before our subject was born; Arminda H., who married Joseph Horner, both now being deceased; and Eliza E., who married John Needler, both being now deceased. Both Arminda H. and Eliza E. left children.

Like the most of his brothers and sisters, Alfred Pugh was born on the old Pugh homestead in Grant county, Indiana, his natal day being May 26, 1846. He grew up on the home farm, assisting his father and attending the district schools and those at Hartford City, and on completing his education adopted the vocation of instructor and for five years taught school in Grant and Blackford counties, where he was widely and popularly known. Later Mr. Pugh gave up the teacher's profession to enter the business field, becoming the proprietor of a livery establishment, a business which he followed for six years. During the time that he was thus engaged he became interested in the insurance business, and after having engaged in this as a side line for some time determined to turn his entire attention thereto and accordingly disposed of his interests in the livery stable. He has continued to follow this line ever since, and the success that has rewarded his efforts demonstrates that he made no mistake when he changed vocations. It takes a peculiar talent to gain a full measure of prosperity in the insurance line—an ability that is a little different from that needed in almost any other. Strict integrity and honorable dealing play a large part, of course; energy, persistence and enterprise are essential, and a persuasiveness and stick-to-itiveness that knows not the meaning of the word failure. Mr. Pugh handles both life and fire insurance and their various branches, represents some of the leading companies in the country, and has become widely known in the insurance field as a man who can attain results. He has also for some years served in the capacity of notary public. As early as 1878 Mr. Pugh was commissioned a justice of the peace, and served until 1882, and again in 1886 was commissioned a justice and served until 1906, thus occupying this office for almost a quarter of a century. He was the incumbent of this position when a justice had the same jurisdiction as a justice of the peace, and through performing twenty-five marriages during the first year he acted in his official capacity became widely known as "the marrying justice."

Mr. Pugh was himself married in 1872, in Grant county, to Miss Hester Miles, who was born in Jefferson township, this county, May 13, 1852, and died February 22, 1892, daughter of Lorenzo and Phoebe (Wass) Miles. Her parents came from Steuben county, New York, to Rush county, Indiana, at an early day, and not long thereafter made removal to Jefferson township, Grant county, where both passed away, the father when about sixty years of age, and the mother in advanced years, she having contracted a second marriage. To Mr. and Mrs. Pugh there were born three children: Ocie V., who resides with her father and keeps house for him; Malevie L., the wife of John W. Doherty, of Benton Harbor, Michigan, who has three children, Miles A., Gayvelle E., and May H.; and Orie Hodd, single, a well known horseman of Wisner, Nebraska, who works for contractors.

Mr. Pugh is a Democrat in politics, and has been active in local and state affairs, having been a delegate to numerous conventions of his party. He is one of the best known figures in the fraternal life of Grant county, being past master of Upland Lodge No. 427, F. & A. M., having been made a Mason in 1868. He joined the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the following year, and is past grand and past chief patriarch of Shideler Lodge No. 352 and Upland Encampment No. 213. In addition he has four times been representative to the State Masonic Grand Lodge, three times to the State Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows, and twice to the Grand Encampment of the latter order. His friendships are only limited to the number of his acquaintances, not alone in fraternal life, but in business, public and private circles of the city.

Harry Williamson, M. D. Among the most popular men in Marion, Indiana, not only in his own profession but among people at large is Dr. Harry Williamson. He has the advantage of a thorough scientific education, long experience in his profession and a charming sympathetic personality that makes him a welcome guest even though he comes in his professional capacity. He has a large general practice and holds a high place in the regard of the people of Marion and Grant county.

Dr. Harry Williamson was born in Butler county, Ohio, on the 16th of September, 1864, the son of David and Frances (Siegrist) Williamson. Both of his parents were born in the state of Ohio and they are both living.

Dr. Williamson was educated in the public schools of Butler county, Ohio, until he was of an age to go away to school, when he was sent to the Central Normal College at Danville, Indiana. He received his medical education in the Indiana Medical College, from which he was graduated in 1892. He later took courses in medical work in the New York Polyclinic.

The doctor first began to practice at Knightstown, Indiana, only remaining there a year, however, before he removed to Chicago. He practiced in the city for seven years, and in the boundless opportunities of a general city practice he had the finest of practical training. In 1900 he came to Marion and began to practice. He has been located here ever since and has many warm friends throughout the city. His offices father died in young manhood in Blackford county, in 1861, and who was a blacksmith at Hartford City, spent all his career as a farmer. His mother was married again after his father's death. The brothers of Joseph C. Marley were Frank, George, Calvin, and William, all of whom were married, and George and William are still living. Frank was well known in musical circles, and William was a carpenter and builder and also had musical talent.

Charles F. Marley was the second child and first son in a family, the other members of which are mentioned as follows: Nora, the wife of Sylvester S. Smith, living on the Marley farm, and they are the parents of five children; Fred, a resident at Upland and section foreman for the Pennsylvania Railroad, who married Ethel Ballinger, a daughter of Webster Ballenger; Lee, lives at home with his mother in Jefferson township, and belongs to the Upland high school class of 1915.

Charles F. Marley grew up on a farm, and after completing his education decided that farming offered the best opportunities for a successful career, and since his marriage he and his wife have owned and operated four hundred acres of land lying in section eight, one hundred acres in section three, and fifty acres in section nine, all in Jefferson township. Fine farm buildings, including a dwelling of twelve rooms, a large barn on the main farm, sixty by one hundred and twenty feet in ground dimensions, and many other notable improvements indicate the progressive management of the Marley estate. Mr. Marley has learned the secret of making a high-priced land pay profits, and he does this by feeding all the grain and other crops to hogs, cattle, sheep and horses of the better grade, and his stock always command the top-notch prices, when sent to market.

On February 8, 1909, in Jefferson township, Mr. Marley married Miss Elva Johnson, who was born in Jefferson township in 1885, a daughter of Noah Johnson, whose career as that of one of Grant county's well known former citizens is sketched on other pages. Mrs. Marley grew up in this county, had a public school education, and has entered spiritedly and actively into the plans and career of her husband. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Marley are as follows: Geneva; Joseph J.; James Robert; and Charles, who died when three months old.

Amos Pugh. One of Grant county's sterling citizens, for many years an active farmer of Jefferson township, and a man whose quiet and upright character, left its impress in his community, was the late Amos Pugh, who died at his homestead in section fourteen of Jefferson township, April 12, 1905.

Amos Pugh was born in that township, on the old Pugh estate, entered by his father, on July 17, 1844, and was sixty-one years of age, when death came to him. He was reared and educated in his home locality, and from young manhood followed farming, and with such industry and good management that he left his family in good circumstances. From 1884 until his death he lived on a farm of forty acres in section fourteen. His personal labors had entered into the development of that place, and among its improvements are a comfortable nine-room house, surrounded with attractive grounds, and also a good barn. Mr. Pugh lived his later years as almost an invalid, and his death was from bright's disease.

The parents of the late Amos Pugh were Marshall and Elizabeth Pugh, who were born in Virginia, were married in Ohio and in the latter twenties, or early thirties came to Indiana and took up land in the wilderness of Grant county. Their first log-cabin home was built in the green woods, and as they possessed the hardy character of the typical pioneers they prospered in proportion to their efforts. Marshall Pugh was born in 1795, and his wife in 1804. They were working members of the Methodist faith, and assisted in the organization of the old Shiloh M. E. Church, and Marshall Pugh gave the cemetery in which the body of himself and wife now lie side by side. They had a large family of children, and the only survivor is Alfred, a justice of the peace at Upland, who lives with his children.

On January 18, 1866, Amos Pugh was married in Jefferson township to Margaret Walker, who was born in that locality August 27, 1842, and is now living on the Pugh homestead. She was reared and educated in her native township, and after her marriage entered actively into the plans and works of her husband and was a good manager and largely responsible for the success which came to both of them. Since her husband's death she has lived on the farm, and has done much to increase its value and improvements. Mrs. Pugh is a daughter of John and Miriam (Case) Walker. John Walker was born in Virginia, a son of Joseph Walker, and when a young man moved to Ohio, where he married in Preble county. Two children were born in that county, and in 1834, the Walker family came on further west and found location in Grant county. The journey was made across the country with wagon and team, and they entered upon their possessions in Grant county as typical pioneers. The portion of the land which he secured for his homestead was in the school section, and the father devoted many years of labor to the clearing up and developing of a home. A man of exceptional education, he not only did farming, but spent the winter seasons for a number of years in teaching in the community. His death occurred in Jefferson township in July 1845, when only thirty-six years of age. Some years later his widow married Jesse Ballinger, and they reared a family, and died on their farm in Grant county, she being past seventy-five years of age, and he a little older. There were six children in the Ballinger household. John Walker and wife also had six children, namely: Samuel, who died in 1908, in Jefferson township, where he was a farmer, and left two children; Catherine, became the wife of James Needler, and they are both now deceased, leaving a family; Mary died after her marriage to William Simons, who now lives at Summitsville, Indiana; Sarah J., died when nine months old. The next in line is Mrs. Pugh, and William C. Walker, deceased, was a well known carpenter of Grant county, to whom is accorded separate space in this volume.

Mrs. Pugh is a member of the Jefferson Christian Church as was her husband. The latter always voted the Democratic ticket. The only child of Mr. and Mrs. Pugh was William Elmer, who was born October 21, 1866, was well educated, took up the occupation of milling, and after some years spent in that business he died at the home of his parents, November 5, 1894. He was at that time less than thirty years of age, was a young man of great promise, and very popular in the community. In politics he gave his support to the Prohibition cause and voted for the candidate, Mr. St. John. Mrs. Pugh has also fostered two children, and has given them the care and affection of a true mother. The first of these is Effie, who was well educated in the public schools, and who married O. C. Needler, a successful young farmer in Jefferson township, and a son of Joseph Needler. Mrs. Pugh also reared a niece, Lois E. Simons, and she was married at the Pugh homestead to Louis Hanley.

Thomas J. Lucas. Among the old families of Grant county, that bearing the name of Lucas has been identified with this region since

He returned home in 1856, and later went to Missouri where he purchased land and remained a short time. After this he made a second trip to the gold regions crossing the plains and remaining away about one year, returning to Grant County at the end of that time and engaged in agricultural pursuits which he has since followed. He purchased his present home place of 160 acres in the fall of 1862, and is now one of the substantial farmers of Jefferson. Mr. Horner was married, September 20, 1860, to Miss Arminda H. Pugh, who was born in Grant County on the 7th of April, 1838. Mr. and Mrs. Horner are the parents of the following children, viz.: Elzona H., Inis G., Eva T., Nancy E., Maggie E. DAVID HORNER, farmer and stock raiser, son of Andrew Horner, was born in Miami County, Ohio, April 20, 1834. He was raised on a farm, and at the early age of fourteen began working for himself as a farm laborer, his compensation being $6 per month. He came to Grant County about the year 1851, from which time until 1855 he assisted his father in clearing the home farm. He then went to Bureau County, Ill., and engaged as a farm hand, and later rented land in that State, where he remained about three and a half years, returning to Grant County in 1860. On the 6th of June, 1861, he was married to Miss Mary McPharen, a native of Grant County, and daughter of James and Jane (Shaw) McPharen, of Ohio. The following are the children born to this marriage, viz.: Alva L., James A., Lydia R., Arza O. (deceased), Idalla E., Aniva and Harry Horner. DAVID HORNER, farmer and stock raiser, son of Andrew Horner, was born in Miami County, Ohio, April 26, 1831. He was raised on a farm, and at the early age of fourteen began working for himself as a farm laborer, his compensation being $6 per month. He came to Grant County about the year 1851, from which time until 1856 he assisted his father in clearing the home farm. He then went to Fulton County, Ill., and engaged as a farm hand, and later rented land in that state, where he remained about three and a half years, returning to Grant County in 1860. On the 6th of June, 1861, he was married to Miss Mary McPheron, a native of Grant County, and daughter of James and Jane (Shaw) McPheron, of Ohio. The following are the children born to this marriage, viz.: Alva L., James A., Lydia E., Arza O. (deceased), Idella E., Retta, and Harry Almont. On returning to Grant County Mr. Horner purchased a small farm in Richland Township, to which he has since added until he now owns 160 acres of fine land, all of which has been acquired by his own exertions. He cast his first tember 9, 1837. By this union are the following children: Ida M., Oscar W., Emory O. and Elnora O. (twins), Lewis A., Orville L., Edwin L. and Clyde H. Mr. Fergus owns a fine farm with good improvements, and is one of the thorough-going and enterprising farmers of the county. He is a member of the G. A. R., and a Republican in politics.

EDWIN FERGUS is a native of Jefferson Township, Grant County, and the fourth of a family of twelve children born to Sawyer B. and Julia (McFadden) Fergus, natives of Virginia and Pennsylvania, respectively. Mr. Fergus' paternal ancestors were natives of Ireland, and on the maternal side he is descended from Scotch-Irish stock. Sawyer B. Fergus moved to Ohio in an early day and from that State to Grant County, Ind., in the fall of 1833. He located a home in Jefferson Township adjacent to the river, entering forty acres of government land, to which he afterward added additional tracts. He became a successful farmer, and at the time of his death, June 23, 1863, was one of the prominent citizens of Jefferson Township. Mrs. Fergus departed this life April, 1872, at the age of seventy-two years. Edwin Fergus was raised in Jefferson Township, and received a limited education in the common schools. He assisted his father until attaining his majority, when he began working for himself at the carpenter's trade, which he followed for a period of fifteen years. He engaged in farming in 1875, locating upon his present place, which represents the results of his own industry. He was married, December 31, 1874, to Miss Lydia M. Jones, daughter of Joshua Jones, a union that has been blessed with the birth of three children, viz.: Ada E. (deceased), Carl B. and Edna A. Fergus. Mr. Fergus served a short time in the army as a member of Company F, Thirty-second Indiana Infantry, enlisting in 1864, and serving until May 11, 1865. He is a Republican in politics, and an estimable gentleman in every respect.

JOSEPH C. In 1851 he came to Grant County, Ind., and remained here until his death. Joseph C. Horner was taken to Ohio in his infancy, and remained in that in a saw mill at Portland, Oregon. Burr and Hannah Hanley had the following children: John, who died after his marriage to Mary Deeren, who now lives in Muncie, and has a family; William, who is married and has a family and lives in Alexandria, Indiana; Henry A.; and Mary, who died in early girlhood.

Henry A. Hanley was reared until nine years of age in the home of his parents in Blackford county, lived with his step-father a few years, and at the age of nine was taken into the home of James Pugh, a farmer in Jefferson township of Grant county. That was his home, and there he learned the lessons of industry, but very little by attendance at school, until he was twenty-four years of age. With his savings he then bought forty acres of land, in section fourteen of Jefferson township, and was the third successive owner of that land, its pioneer settler and owner having been a Mr. Oswald, who got it direct from the government. Mr. Hanley has continued his business career in this vicinity ever since, improved his first estate and has developed and increased his property until his farm will now bear favorable comparison with that of any to be found in the township. The forty acres were first increased to eighty acres, and subsequently he bought eighty acres lying in section fifteen. It is in section fourteen that a few years ago he built his fine ten-room modern home, and in 1890 put up a substantial red barn on a foundation forty by forty feet. His other farm buildings and all his cultivation and improvement show the thrifty farmer. A believer in the modern system of cultivation which conserves the fertility of the soil, he keeps a lot of high-grade stock, and feeds practically all his crops to his cattle and hogs. The most commendable thing of all is that all of the property thus described represents the concrete achievements of a career which was begun practically in poverty and with many handicaps such as the majority of Grant county farmers did not have to contend with.

In Jefferson township in the spring of 1882, Mr. Hanley married Miss Emma Gadbury, who was born in Licking township, Blackford county, Indiana, in February, 1863, and was reared and educated in that vicinity. She died at her home in Grant county April 1, 1891, and is buried in the Elizabethtown cemetery. Four children born to them are named as follows: Tillbury, who died in infancy; Louis, the manager of his father's homestead, and one of the enterprising young farmers of Grant county, married Lois Simons of Jefferson township, who was reared and educated in this locality, and they have one child, Herbert Simons; Nira Myrtle, who is a graduate of the Upland high school; and Cora May, who is likewise well educated, and is the wife of Samuel Bishop, of the state of Montana. Mr. Hanley's parents were communicants of the Methodist Episcopal church, and he is likewise of the same denomination and attends worship at the Shiloh Methodist Episcopal church. He and his sons are of the Democratic political faith.

Anderson D. Mittank. Few families of Grant county have been longer identified with the practical working of the farm, and with civic and social affairs than the Mittanks, whose residence here began nearly eighty years ago, and who as farmers, as business men, as faithful workers for church, morality, and good government, have been effective factors in their community. Anderson D. Mittank has spent practically all his life in Jefferson township, is the owner of a beautiful rural estate in section twenty-nine, and is a man of practical energy and business ability, his standing in the community also being well indicated by the fact that he has served as president of the Farmers State Bank of Matthews, since the reorganization of that institution in 1910.

Mr. Mittank's grandfather was Christopher Mittank, a native of Bedford county, Pennsylvania, and of Pennsylvania parents and of Dutch ancestry. At one time the name was spelled Mettong, but suffered the usual American change to a form which is more easily pronounced. Christopher Mittank married a Bedford county girl, and after several children were born to them in that state, including David, father of Anderson D., the family moved in 1831 to Ohio, and in 1835 continued their pioneer migration as far as Delaware county, Indiana. Christopher Mittank found a home on a new tract of land in Washington township, and went through all the experiences characteristic of pioneer life, in trying to improve his land and make satisfactory provision for his growing household of children.

Christopher Mittank since died in Delaware county, and both he and his wife were past seventy years of age. They were active members of the New Light Christian church, and honorable and upright souls, loved by all in their community. Besides David, there were several other children: John, Michael, and George, the last named being killed early in the war while fighting the battles of the Union army. John and Michael are still living, the former in Pendleton, Madison county, Indiana, and the latter at Fairmount. Of the daughters, Hannah is the widow of George Kolp, of Bureau county, Illinois; Catherine died after her marriage to Coleman Sanders, leaving a family of children; Eliza is the wife of John Dunlap, near Fairmount, and they have no children; Mary died after her marriage to Albert McCoy, of Delaware county.

David Mittank, who was born in Pennsylvania, November 15, 1824, was seven years of age when the family went to Ohio, and four years later became a resident of Grant county. He grew up to manhood, in the midst of pioneer conditions, and his schooling was of the most limited character. After his marriage he started out to work out his salvation on a place in Jefferson township. He first leased land, the old McPherren farm, the property of his wife's father, and situated on the Mississinewa river. There he lived, developed a good home, bought out the other heirs to the estate, and finally was possessed of a homestead of one hundred and thirty acres. His death occurred on that place, November 16, 1897. He came of age during the declining years of the Whig party, and probably supported that organization by his vote, and when the Republicans perfected a party organization in 1856, he was one of the supporters of its first candidates, and steadily voted that ticket until his death. However, he was reared in a family of Democrats, and according to the belief of that party. He was long an active member of the Shiloh Methodist church, in Jefferson township. Throughout his career he was known and respected for his uprightness, his honesty, his worthy citizenship, and his thrift and enterprise. While he had no early advantages in education, he became by self effort a thorough student, read history extensively, was constantly studying the Bible, and it is said that by virtue of his remarkable memory seldom forgot a fact acquired through reading or observation, and could repeat for a long time afterwards the substance, and even the greater part of the words of the sermons which he heard. Few men have so splendid a natural endowment of intellect.

David Mittank was married in Jefferson township, October 3, 1850, to Margaret McKeeber. She was born in Clinton county, Ohio, July 29, 1833, and when two years of age was brought to Grant county, so that practically all her life was spent in this section of Indiana. Her parents were Moses and Sarah (Moore) McKeeber, both natives of Virginia, but were married in Clinton county, Ohio, in 1832. Her father on coming to Grant county bought land in Jefferson township, and settled in the rough log cabin which was almost the only improvement on the place. The cabin had no floor, and for a time the fleas were so numerous that the family suffered constant discomfort from their ravages. Moses McKeeber died on the old homestead in middle life, while his widow married a Rev. Mr. Wheat of the Methodist Protestant church, and had one child by that union, and was afterwards twice married, but without children by either of her last husbands. Mrs. Margaret Mittank, wife of David, died June 16, 1900, at the home she had lived on practically all her life. She was for many years a devoted member of the Shiloh Methodist Episcopal church. Her children were as follows: John W. and Amanda, both of whom died in childhood; Amariah, who lives on a farm in Jefferson township, is married and of her three sons and two daughters all are married, except one son; Mary Etta is the wife of William Tibbett, of Marion, and they have four sons; Edward died in infancy.

Anderson D. Mittank was born on the old home farm, February 17, 1861, received a public school education, and as soon as he reached his majority, he started out on his own account, and has effected a generous prosperity. He now owns the old McKeeber homestead, where his father lived for so many years, comprising one hundred and thirty-three acres in sections twenty-one and forty-eight and half acres in section twenty-nine. All his land is kept up to the highest notch of modern cultivation and improvement, and in 1908 a comfortable rural dwelling of eight rooms, painted brown, and with all the modern furnishings and facilities was built. The barn is now about seventeen years old, and all the improvements show how progressive a farmer Mr. Mittank is.

Anderson D. Mittank was married at Upland in 1885, to Miss Clara Gadbury, who was born in Licking township of Blackford county, Indiana, in September, 1861. Her parents were James and Mary A. McVicker Gadbury, the former of whom died on his father's farm in Licking township, in Blackford county, having been born April 25, 1833, and dying May 12, 1891; while his wife, who was born in Ohio, May 14, 1832, was brought in childhood to Blackford county and died there December 28, 1874. James Gadbury was an active member of the United Brethren church, a Democrat in politics, and a prominent and influential citizen of his community. Mrs. Mittank, who was reared and educated in Blackford county, was one of six children, as follows: Hulda, who died when ten years of age; Mrs. Mittank; Emma, who died after her marriage to Henry Hanley, and left three children; Riley, who is a farmer in Licking township of Blackford county, has two sons and three daughters; John, who lives on the old homestead in Blackford county, has five children; Jennie, who died when nine months old. To the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Mittank has been born one child, William B., on February 21, 1886. His education was in the public schools, and since taking up the serious responsibilities of life he has proved a capable manager of his father's farm in Jefferson township. William B. Mittank married Gertrude Sutton, of Jefferson township, and to their marriage two children have been born as follows: Eva Marjorie, born March 28, 1909; and Opal C., born December 10, 1911. Mrs. Mittank is an active member of the Kingsley Methodist Episcopal church.

Warren Fergus. In 1832, one year after Grant county government was organized, the Fergus family was transplanted from Ohio to the unbroken wilderness and hills and valleys of Jefferson township. Many lives have entered into the development of Grant county, and of those of pioneer stock none have done more credit to their lengthy residence than those of the Fergus kith and kin. Warren Fergus, whose ample and fruitful acres and establishment makes him one of the most prosperous of Grant county's farmers, was born here before father's farms, married Blanche Keever; John Clifton; Fred O., born February 8, 1901, who is now attending the graded schools; and Earl S., born August 13, 1892, who died in 1894. The children have been given excellent educational advantages, the parents being firm believers in the benefits to be gained through thorough schooling. Both father and sons are Prohibitionists, and although they have not mixed extensively in politics, being essentially agriculturists, have done much to further the interests of their community in various ways. All are widely known and highly esteemed and are filling honorable positions in the world, ably maintaining the honor of the name they bear.

John Clifton Stanley, son of Jesse and Mary J. (Wise) Stanley, was born October 8, 1889, in Jefferson township. After attending the common schools, he became a student in the Upland high school, from which he was graduated in 1909. He is single, lives with his parents, and is assisting his father in the work of the homestead place. A young man of self-reliance, with a strong, alert and intelligent mind, he has introduced a number of innovations into his work, and is known as one of the progressive and energetic young agriculturists of his township.

Edmund F. Ballinger. For nearly half a century the late Edmund F. Ballinger was one of the well known agriculturists of Jefferson township, Grant county, and during this time through his careful management, sound judgment and unflagging industry he overcame many obstacles and steadily worked his way upward until prosperity crowned his labors with a fitting reward. It was not alone in the material things of life, however, that Mr. Ballinger attained success, for his thorough integrity and honorable dealing won him the unqualified respect of his fellow-men, and his memory is still kept green in the hearts of a wide circle of friends who recognized and appreciated his many sterling qualities.

Mr. Ballinger was descended from an old southern family, his grandparents, James and Rebecca Ballinger, being natives of Tennessee. There their children, Josiah, Daniel, James and a daughter, were born, and during the latter 'twenties, or early 'thirties, the family migrated to Indiana and entered land in Miami county. Later removal was made to Grant county, where the grandfather carried on agricultural pursuits until his death, which occurred at Upland, in advanced years. He had married a second time, to Nancy McCoy, and they became the parents of a large family of children. The second Mrs. Ballinger died when eighty years of age, and both she and her husband were laid to rest in Jefferson church cemetery. She was a charter member of this church of the Christian faith, to which Mr. Ballinger had originally belonged, although he later joined the Society of Friends.

Josiah Ballinger was born in Tennessee about the year 1815, and was still a youth when he accompanied his parents to Indiana. He was married in Miami county, in 1842, to Miss Tama R. Cook, and at that time entered land, on which he resided until 1860, then coming to Grant county and settling on a property on section 5, in Jefferson township. This tract contained something over 100 acres, partly improved, and here the father built a hewed-log house, weatherboarded and plastered, which was his home until his death. Like his father, he belonged to the Quaker faith, and was a man of sturdy qualities. After his death, Mrs. Ballinger contracted a second marriage, being united with Richard Deeren, a Civil War veteran, who died at the Soldiers' Home, in February, 1913. Mrs. Deeren passed away at Upland, at the age of seventy-two years, in the faith of the Methodist church, of which her husband was also a member.

Edmund F. Ballinger was born in Miami county, Indiana, July 21, 1851, and was nine years of age when he accompanied his parents to Grant county. Here he grew to manhood in Jefferson township, attending the district school and assisting his father in the work of the home farm, and after the death of the elder man he bought the Ballinger property, to which he subsequently added forty acres. He continued to cultivate this land and to make improvements here until his death, which occurred September 15, 1908. Mr. Ballinger was a skilled farmer, developed his property to a high state of cultivation, and it contains a good set of buildings, including a large white house and two commodious red barns. While he met with success in his general farming operations, he was probably better known as a breeder of thoroughbred Shropshire sheep, and his animals carried off numerous prizes at the various county and state fairs. In political matters a Republican, he worked tirelessly for the betterment of his community, but did not seek office, preferring to devote his entire time and attention to his agricultural operations. His religious connection was with the United Brethren church, to the teachings of which he was a faithful adherent.

Mr. Ballinger was married to Miss Huldah Reasoner, of Jefferson township, in 1877. She was born in Blackford county, Indiana, October 27, 1856, and was reared and educated in Jefferson township, where she had been brought at the age of three years by her parents, Richard and Lydia (Capper) Reasoner. Her father was a native of Ohio and her mother of Virginia, and they were married in Grant county and later moved to Blackford county, but eventually returned to Jefferson township and located on a tract of 120 acres, located on section 5. Here they spent the remaining active years of their life, and upon their retirement went to Upland, where the father died in June, 1909, and the mother June 18, 1898. He had been born September 11, 1828, and Mrs. Reasoner, November 15, 1832. They were consistent members of the New Light Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger were the parents of the following children: Perry, born June 20, 1878, a resident of Antrim county, Michigan, where he owns a farm, married Cora Mulkins, and has two children, Ivory N. and Marvel P.; Elva A., born February 28, 1887, attended the Upland high school, is now the wife of William C. Horburg, and has one daughter, Melva B.; and Carrie, born October 16, 1889, educated in the graded schools and Upland high school, and now in the second year as a student of music in Taylor University, is single and residing at home. Mrs. Ballinger, who survives her husband, is a consistent member of the United Brethren church, and has many warm and appreciative friends in its congregation.

John D. Bell. In the business community of Upland, Mr. Bell has been a leading factor for nearly twenty years. His entrance into business was on October 15, 1894. Mr. Bell is the fourth successive hardware merchant at Upland, and has succeeded in producing a large, prosperous concern where others have failed. He has had both the persistence and the good judgment and industry required of a man who makes a success in retail merchandising, and is now to be ranked among the successful men of Grant county. His first attempt at conducting a hardware store in Upland occurred about nineteen years ago. The Bell store carries a splendid stock of varied goods comprised under the general name of hardware. This includes both shelf and heavy hardware, stoves, tinware, plumbing goods, a complete line of harness, buggies, wagons and farm implements, sporting goods, a general stock of household supplies and paints, oils, and decorative material. When Mr. Bell began business knowledge, he entered upon the scientific course of study of Taylor University, which he completed in 1899, receiving his diploma that year. During the time thus spent, which covered the period from 1897 to 1899, he was not a regular attendant at the university, but pursued his studies a part of the time under the direction of private tutors and was graduated with a commendable standing in his class.

Mr. Remy is a careful student and brought to his profession a mind well fortified with general knowledge and a thorough acquaintance with the principles of law. By patient industry he has won recognition at the Hartford City bar and is considered a safe and reliable counsellor, careful in the preparation of legal papers and sparing no pains to give his clients the best service at his command. His legal career thus far has been marked by a high order of merit and since his admission to the practice he has been an important factor in the courts of Blackford county, standing deservedly high in the profession, with a future of still greater promise before him. He was appointed city attorney in 1898 and still holds the position to the satisfaction of the public.

Mr. Remy was married on the 9th day of November, 1892, to Miss Nettie Jocelyn, a native of Columbus, Indiana, and step-daughter of William Henderson, a well-known resident of Columbus, Indiana. This happy wedded life was rudely terminated by the untimely death of Mrs. Remy on the 7th day of August, 1896.

In politics Mr. Remy is a Republican and has been all his life; he takes an active interest in political affairs and contributes his service to the party during campaigns, in a number of which his efforts have been of great value and highly appreciated. Fraternally he belongs to the Pythian order and in religion is a Methodist, of which church his wife was also a devoted member.

MICHAEL CAPPER.

Out of the religious and political convulsions of Europe has come some of the best blood of America. The Puritans of New England, the Quakers, Germans and Scotch-Irish of Pennsylvania. The coming of the Germans and the Scotch-Irish of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and others of their like, was not to satisfy the cravings of the animal nature. It was a protest against the then existing regime in their respective countries, and to this class of people are we indebted for the important contributions to the totality of our national life.

The gentleman whose name heads this biography is descended from both the German and Scotch-Irish race. His grandfather was a native of Ireland and his grandmother of Germany. He was born in Grant county, Indiana, March 28, 1839. Charles Capper, the father of our subject, was born in Virginia and there married Sarah Elizabeth McKeever. The grandparents, it is presumed, settled in Virginia on coming to America from their respective countries. In 1829 Charles Capper removed from Virginia and settled in Grant county, Indiana. His family consisted of eight children, as follows: Lydia, Charles J., Thomas A., David and Michael, twins, Elmira Margaret, James and Merideth, and of this family the three boys all served in the Civil war with the exception of Merideth, and in the same company, and all returned at the expiration of their term of service.

Michael Capper, the subject of this review, received his education in the public schools of his native county, and at the age of sixteen he engaged in farming, which occupation he followed until August 16, 1861, when he, in response to his country's call, enlisted in Company F, Thirty-fourth Indiana Volunteers, and was mustered into the service at Anderson, Indiana. His regiment participated in the battle of Green River Bridge, and also some skirmishing at Bardstown, Kentucky. They were then force-marched to Salt River and joined General Nelson and were embarked on boats and arrived at Fort Donaldson on the Red River, where they received reinforcements. They then went to St. Louis and were sent across the river to New Madrid, Missouri, where they had a hard engagement. From there they were sent into the country ten miles to the south where they captured a band of five hundred guerrillas going hence from there to Helena, Arkansas. At this point they laid in camp for a part of the summer, when they were ordered to Little Rock, by way of the White river. From this point they proceeded down the Mississippi to Natchez, where they were in camp about one week, when they were ordered to Vicksburg and ran the blockade, after which they were sent to Grand Gulf, on the Mississippi river. Here they crossed and, marching all night, in the morning they were engaged with the rebels at Magnolia Hills, which fight lasted all day. They then proceeded to Rayney, Mississippi, and participated in the battle of Rayney, after which they went to Jackson, Mississippi, where they were again engaged and took the city. They were then ordered back to Vicksburg, from where they were sent to Champion Hill, where the Confederate army, composed of 75,000 men, was driven two miles down the Black river. Here the federal forces built a pontoon bridge and drove the Confederates twelve miles into Vicksburg, when the siege commenced which lasted forty-seven days. They then followed the rebels back over the same ground to Jackson, and hence to the Mississippi river, where they took boat to New Orleans and were marched through Louisiana into Texas, where they were engaged at New Iberta. They were then ordered back to New Orleans and from there were sent again to Texas, to Gartas Island. Their time being about expired they re-enlisted and came home on a furlough, and upon its expiration reported back to New Orleans. They were then shipped to the mouth of the Rio Grand river, to the Island of Biasas Peach, and from there were sent two hundred and ninety miles up the Rio Grand river. Three months later peace was declared, and in the spring of 1865 they were discharged, two hundred and ninety miles up the Rio Grande river, but Mr. Capper was mustered out at Indianapolis in March, 1866, when he came home.

On the morning of August 16, 1863, our subject's major, who had charge of the post at New Madrid, Missouri, got orders to fix up winter quarters. On the morning mentioned the Major ordered Mr. Capper to take a man and go to the wreck of a ship and get some nails. When they got there, his companion took a crowbar and opened a box, which contained a nice kit of tools. Another box attracting his attention he thought he would open it: forcing the bar through the cover it struck a twenty-pound shell, which at once exploded, wounding them both and causing blindness to both. Eventually Mr. Capper recovered the sight of one eye, but his companion, Adison Keever, never recovered his sight and was totally blind. On his return from the army Mr. Capper engaged in farming, which he followed until he was forty years of age, when he located in Upland and engaged in the house-moving business. Here he remained for twenty years, when he moved to Walnut Creek and in 1891 he settled in Hartford City and purchasing city lots, he bought a house and moved it upon one of the lots where he now resides. He now carries on his business of moving houses and the transporting of engines, boilers and heavy machinery of all kinds. Mr. Capper was married, on September 5, 1869, to Miss Lacy A. Darrin, daughter of Richard and Mary Ann Bougher, by whom he has had nine children: Odus, Ollie, Minnie, Lydia, Lillie, Dora, Luther, deceased, Le Roy, deceased, and Lewis.

Mr. Capper was for sixteen years an Odd Fellow, and is regarded as one of the enterprising and progressive citizens of Hartford City.

JOHN R. GETTYS.

The subject of this review, a son of Joseph and Maria (McMillan) Gettys, is a native of Blackford county, Indiana, born in the township of Licking on the 12th day of October, 1838. From this date it will be seen that he is one of the oldest natives of the county now living, and practically he has spent all his life within its borders. When of sufficient age he entered the old-fashioned subscription school, common in the western country a half century ago, and after attending the same during the winter seasons until his eighteenth year began farming, which he pursued profitably for a period of thirty-two years. In 1894 he abandoned agriculture and engaged in the mercantile business at Hartford City where he has since carried on the grocery trade.

Mr. Gettys was married, April 23, 1863, to Miss Anna E. Worster, who bore him four children: Maria E., now the wife of Henry Daugherty; Emma V. married Alonzo Williams; S. Pomeroy, of Hartford City, now in the Phillipine Islands, and Mary S. The mother of these children was born in 1842, and departed this life November 20, 1890. Subsequently Mr. Gettys entered into the marriage relation with Jessie Bock, daughter of Milton and Elizabeth (Cain) Bock, a union without issue.

In 1864 Mr. Gettys was elected justice of the peace for Licking township, and served in that capacity for four years, discharging the duties of the office in a highly acceptable manner. A number of years ago he became identified with the Wesleyan Methodist church and has ever since been active in religious work, holding at this time the position of trustee of his local congregation, besides being a regularly licensed minister. While not in charge of any circuit or station he frequently preaches at different places throughout the country and his services are in demand upon funeral occasions or in the absence of the regular pastor whose place he often fills to the edification of large and appreciative audiences.

Mr. Gettys grew from childhood to manhood in the community where he was born and by his many admirable traits won the confidence and esteem of a large circle of friends and neighbors in Licking township and other parts of Blackford county. He has assisted in maintaining churches and schools, charitable and benevolent societies, and in every sense is an honored and valuable citizen. It is such men that make American Mail. On his return from the army Mr. Conger engaged in farming, which he followed until he was forty years of age, when he located in Upland and engaged in the manufacturing business. Here he remained for twenty years, when he moved to Walnut Grove and in 1898 he settled in Hartford City and purchasing city lots, he bought a house and moved it upon one of the lots where he now resides. He now carries on the business of moving houses and the transferring of engines, boilers and heavy machinery of all kinds. Mr. Conger was married, on September 3, 1865, to Miss Lucy A. Harris, daughter of Richard and Mary Ann Harris, by whom he had nine children: Clara, Ollie, Minnie, Lydia, Lillie, Drew, Lester, deceased, Le Roy, deceased, and Lorin.

Mr. Conger was for sixteen years an Odd Fellow, and is regarded as one of the enterprising and progressive citizens of Hartford City.

Mr. Gettys was married, April 23, 1863, to Miss Anna E. Weaver, who bore him four children: Marietta E., now the wife of Henry Daugherty; James C., married Abbie Whiteman; S. Fleming, of Hartford City, now in the Philippine Islands, and Mary B. The mother of these children was born in 1842, and departed this life November 20, 1895. Subsequently Mr. Gettys entered into the marriage relation with Jennie Buck, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Caste) Buck, a union without issue.

It is such men that make American tence and has retired from agricultural pursuits, giving time to keep informed in public events. He has decided opinions and the courage of his convictions in expressing them. In the matter of religion he is liberal in all the term implies, being what the world calls a free thinker. Tenacious in the support of his own opinions, he is charitable toward those who differ from him, and withholds no credit due religious or fraternal institutions for any good influence they may have upon the community. The only secret society with which his name was ever identified was the Order of the Sons of Temperance, an organization long since disbanded, but the principles of which he still earnestly and uncompromisingly advocates. While he feels that he has made no brilliant achievements in the world, he also feels that the world is not any worse for his having lived in it.

X FRANCIS M. CAPPER.

Francis M. Capper, farmer and stock raiser of Harrison township, is a native of Ohio, and dates his birth from the 6th day of May, 1851. He first saw the light of day near the present thriving little city of Van Wert, where his father, Michael Capper, settled at an early period in the history of the western part of the Buckeye state. The elder Capper, also a native of Ohio, was born in the year 1812, in the county of Carroll, and came of an old and highly respectable Virginia family. The subject's grandfather, David Capper, emigrated from Virginia to Carroll county in pioneer times and bore an active part in the development of that section of the state, dying there a number of years ago. Michael Capper married, in the county of Carroll, Margaret A. Barnhouse, and shortly thereafter emigrated to what was then the wilderness of Van Wert, cutting his road most of the way through a dense forest in which but little work had been done by the pioneer woodmen. He entered one hundred and sixty acres of government land, and after erecting a diminutive log cabin of the most primitive pattern, went to work with a will to remove the forest growth, much of which in due time fell before the sturdy strokes of his ax. Within the course of a few years he had a goodly area prepared for the plow and he lived long enough to see one hundred and forty acres cleared of trees and stumps and under successful tillage, besides placing thereon improvements which made his farm one of the most valuable in the county of VanWert. Michael and Margaret Capper were the parents of nine children, namely: John, Hannah, David, Nancy, Mary, Sarah, Isabelle, Francis M. and Margaret, all living except David. Michael Capper continued to reside in Van Wert county from his arrival there in the fall of 1840 until called away by death on the 18th of March, 1897. He was a true type of the rugged, patient pioneer, did well his part in life and died as he had lived, a faithful and devoted member of the Methodist church with which he became identified in early manhood.

Francis M. Capper was reared on the old homestead in Van Wert county, and such educational advantages as the indifferent country schools of the times afforded were his for a few years during his minority. The first building in which he obtained his preliminary knowledge was an insignificant frame structure situated on his father's farm and the methods of his first teacher were in keeping with the house and surroundings. By reason of his services being in demand on the farm, his school days were considerably limited, consequently he is not what might be termed an educated man as far as scholastic training is concerned. However by coming in contact with his fellow men and making the best of his opportunities he became the possessor of a fund of practical knowledge which has enabled him to meet successfully the duties of a very active life.

Mr. Capper remained with his parents until his thirtieth year, when, in 1880, he came to Blackford county, Indiana, and purchased the farm in Harrison township which has since been his home. Prior to the above date, September 10, 1873, he was united in marriage to Miss Sophia Fenter, by whom he had three children: Gertrude, Ina D. and Ila B., the last two twins. Ila is the wife of Jacob Kutler, the other two being unmarried.

Mr. Capper's original purchase consisted of seventy-nine acres lying in section 28, of which sixteen acres were in cultivation at the time of his taking possession. At the present time all but seven acres is improved and the farm, though not as large as some in the township, is a valuable tract of land, rendered so by the vast amount of well-directed labor put upon it by the progressive owner. Mr. Capper is a good farmer, and has never failed to make his place return a handsome income. In connection with tilling the soil he realizes a liberal return every year from live stock, in the raising of which his success has long since been assured. Politically Mr. Capper is a Republican, earnest in the support of his party, but never stooping to the questionable methods of the professional partisan. He is a member of the Baptist church and aims to make his daily life and conduct exponents of the religion he professes.

JACOB LISTENFELTZ.

Prominent among the successful farmers of Harrison township is Jacob Listenfeltz, whose native home is Germany, where his birth occurred on the 12th day of April, 1824. His father was Conrad Listenfeltz and his mother before her marriage was Susan Peteman. Both were natives of the Fatherland where for many generations the ancestors of both branches of the family lived.

Conrad and Susan Listenfeltz reared the following children: Daniel, a farmer of Harrison township; Peter, also a resident of Harrison township; Conrad lives in Marion, Indiana; Catherine, wife of Aaron Allman, of Camden, this state, and Jacob, who, by the way, is the first of the family in order of birth.

Conrad Listenfeltz and family came to the United States in 1828, settling first in New Jersey, thence, six years later, moved to Warren, Ohio, where they made their home until 1839. In that year Mr. Listenfeltz emigrated westward until reaching Blackford county, Indiana, where he decided to locate, choosing a home site consisting of eighty acres in the township of Harrison, which he purchased from the government at one dollar and twenty-five cents an acre. He cleared a farm and from time to time added to the original tract until at the time of his death, in 1861, he was the owner of three hundred and twenty acres of as valuable lands as lies within the boundaries of Blackford county.

The subject of this sketch was a youth of fifteen when the family came to Harrison and with the exception of the time spent in the west his life, since 1839, has in the main been passed within the limits of the

OAKWOOD CEMETERY
Bucyrus, Ohio

Although the first burial of record in Oakwood Cemetery was that of Lillie, the five-year old daughter f John A. & Susan S. Craig who died November 12, 1858, the remains of many other people have been trans-erred from burial places such as the Old Lutheran Cemetery, the Bucyrus Mausoleum, and several rural emeteries as well as private burial plots on farms. Many of these are transfers of people who died well efore November of 1858. To August 31, 1988 regular numbers in the burial register include 14,418. There re several reasons why this does not accurately reflect the number of identities enumerated in this book.

1- There are several instances where the same number has been used to identify two interees. In these ases, to avoid duplication of numbers, a suffix has been added to the number to create separate identities. For example, 2245 (duplicated) has been made into 2245 & 2245A.

2- There is a duplication of the numbers 1 through 126. One set has been given the prefix "DU" (for duplicate). They are the numbers DU001 through DU126.

3- There is also another duplication of numbers 5681 through 5710, plus 5714, 5715 and 5716. These records have been given a prefix "X" (for Extra) and will appear in this book as the numbers X5681 through X5710 and X5714,X5715 and X5716.

Both the "DU" numbers and the "X" numbers are said to be the result of a fire which destroyed burial records during the years 1904, 1905 and 1906. The records which exist in this case are said to have been gleaned from "Cash Book" records. It should not be assumed that these "gleaned" records are either complete or totally accurate.

4- In addition, there are approximately 275 entries which are the result of finding grave markers for people whose identities are not entered in the burial register. They have been identified with a prefix "NR" (for no record). They appear as NR001 through NR275. These "NR" identities represent mostly cenotaphs, but some represent burials during 1904, 1905 and 1906 for which only skimpy records exist and others for which no explanation is available.

For the above and unknown other reasons there are approximately 14,870 identities included in this publication.

In the period from 1919 to 1942, the location was not recorded for a great many burials. Merely the word "Single" was entered for location. In only the instances where a grave marker has been found are we able to define location of burial. On all others, the location is indicated as "unkn" (unknown).

Mishael Pugh "

Looked on the map and found Cheat L and Cheat river up in Monogalia County West Virginia - that seems a long way for him to go back to Capon Bridge doesn't it to you?
The "start to Gafreonfron (spelling?) couldn't find - have no idea where it is!
I note there is a Scioto trail marked on the Ohio mMammmmapp map - but the Hapland? Highland

Do you suppose he would follow the river on his way home? Guess that sounds logical since it was "virgin" country back yet in 1852.

I'll go to the library Tues after work and see if they have a map that would help me find names (but probably Gafreanfron (not sure of the spelling from this letter) is out of existence by now. But maybe could follow the Cheat River .

Wonder if the Nancy Pugh could be Nancy (Offut) Pugh -she then married a Patterson Paul didn't seem to know. (I left my Maude Pugh book with James Pugh so can't look it up tonight). - Dorothy Pugh

Jesse Trowbridge his brother-in-law. Sale = sell? L. Thompson

Shiloh

SHILOH CEMETERY.

Shiloh Cemetery lies across the road from the site of a Methodist Episcopal Church of that same name. The church house was erected in 1864 or 1854 on land obtained from Elias Lyon. He and his wife Nancy McVicker were charter members of this church" The building has been removed from its original site and only the foundation stones and cement steps give evidence of the once thriving church. Elias Lyon is said to have killed the last deer in Jefferson Township.

Michael Pugh came to Jefferson Township in 1834 and located in Sect.13. He made a gift of three acres for this cemetery. He was a member of the Methodist Protestant church but his wife Elizabeth Gaudy Pugh was a charter member of the Shiloh Methodist Episcopal Church.

This cemetery is two and a half miles south of Upland and a half mile east. It is a beautiful, well kept place and is in present day use. The earliest date is on that of Mary A. McHenry age 17- Feb.15,1841.

on the Tibbits, but I can't find it! Grrrrr!! Somewhere I must have seen that Wm D. Tibbits was born in Oct. 1848 and Maryetta M. was born in Jan. 1859, but can I find it now? I also found that Charles (their son) was born in Jan., Son Wm. was born in April, Fred in Dec. and Lawrence in Sept. Hopefully, that just confirmed what you already knew.?

Now, in the 1900 Census I found (jumping back to McKeever) a John R. McKeever w/Zelpha A. with son Bert born in Nov. 1883. Could this be the same "Burt"? (Vol 24 ED 40 Sh 12 L 48 Grant Co. Jonesboro) John was 37 yrs old b. Dec 1862 in Ind. What I thought was interesting was that where it asked how many children Zelpha (age 40 b. Feb 1860) had it said 0. Also they had only been married 10 years. Bert's age was 16. They also had a Niece - Egypt C. Lotridge b. May 1892, Ind. 8 yr old enumerated with them. John's father was born in Ind and his mother in Ohio. His occupation was listed as a stock tender in a stockhouse. Does any of this sound useful?

As far as Tibbets marriages:
I did find a Wm O. Tibbetts and a Mary J. Moore marriage on 22 July 1916 C24-190.

I found no Burt McKeever in the 1900 Indiana Census. I did find one in the 1920 Census:

I found no Joseph w/ Thelma in either. I didn't look for just Thelma.

On the Tibbits, I found quite a bit, but you probably already have all of it. But I'll give it to you anyway. ☺

1920 Census:

Also on the 1920 Census I found a Fred wife Katherine. Although he was close to the right age, they were in Clay Co., Brazil. (see other side!) Well, right now I'm kicking myself because I know I copied down the census info ↘ over

I've also copied some index pages for Grant Co., and Starke Co. There are also some pages from the History of Grant Co. with some Tibbit/Mittank info. Tell me if you think I've followed this line down properly according to the history.

I know I had more info than this, but I have no idea where it could be unless when I was hurriedly cleaning up to go it got tossed. That's hard to imagine, but I have no other explanation! So basically I found nothing for you. Doesn't that make you want to ask me again to look up something? ☺

Let me know if any of this was useful -

Oh, almost forgot - here's the 1920 Census info on that Fred.

GRANT COUNTY,

INDIANA.

FROM THE EARLIEST TIME TO THE PRESENT, WITH BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, NOTES, ETC., TOGETHER WITH AN EXTENDED
HISTORY OF THE NORTHWEST, THE INDIANA
TERRITORY, AND THE STATE OF INDIANA.

ILLUSTRATED.

CHICAGO:
BRANT & FULLER.

County when nineteen years of age, locating in Franklin Township, where he followed hunting and trapping for a number of years, working for the settlers at intervals during the summer seasons. He afterward engaged in farming, which he followed until his death, April, 1879. The subject was reared on a farm, and remained with his parents until his seventeenth year, at which time, October, 1864, he entered the army, enlisting in the Eighty-seventh Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, with which he served until the close of the war, participating in a number of battles of the southwestern campaign during his period of service. He received a good education, the greater part of which was acquired after his twenty-first year, when he began attending school for the purpose of preparing himself for the teacher's profession. He engaged in teaching in 1869, and followed the profession for a number of years, having had charge of eighteen schools during the period devoted to educational work. He is peculiarly fitted for the duties of the school room, and has earned an enviable reputation as a painstaking and able instructor. He engaged in the tiling business several years ago with Snead Thomas, continuing the partnership until 1882, at which time he purchased the entire interest, and has since operated the mill by himself. He does a lucrative business, and is one of the leading citizens of this township. Mr. Thomas was married, April 17, 1872, to Miss Elma Stout, of New London, Howard Co., Ind., who has borne him three children, to wit: Myrtie (deceased), Charles C. and Homer Thomas. Mr. Thomas is a strong temperance man and a Prohibitionist in politics. He belongs to the Friends' Church, as does also his wife, both being active members of that society.

CHARLES S. TIBBITS, of Marion, is one of the best known men of Grant County. He is a genuine "down easter," having been born in the Green Mountains, in Vermont, on the 28th of May, 1819. He is the eldest son of John C. and Sophronia (Chattuck) Tibbits, who were natives of the town of Monkton in that State, and of English extraction. When Charles was but seven years of age the family moved to Toronto, Canada, where they remained until a political revolution caused them to return to the United States. They took up their residence at Saginaw, Mich., where the father assisted in laying out the town and started a "wild cat" bank. This last enterprise proved unsuccessful, and in 1840 they moved to Stark County, Ind. Our subject's education was mostly acquired in the primitive schools of Canada. Upon his locating in Indiana he began progress for himself. He was elected justice of the peace soon after that county was organized. In 1847 he was elected county auditor and recorder, a position he held about four years. He then began a mercantile business at Knox, the county seat, a town he had been instrumental in clearing and laying out. He remained there in trade until 1860, when he came to Marion. Here he became engaged in the dry goods trade in the firm of Turner, Winchel & Tibbits. In 1862 he was elected county commissioner. At that time the county was without a railroad and Mr. Tibbits took active steps to secure one by public assistance. Although a Democrat he was endorsed by both parties and was elected against a generally large adverse majority. An appropriation was made of $80,000 which secured what is now the Pan Handle. Upon the completion of the railroad he retired from the store and began buying and selling grain. He continued this until 1881, when he retired from active business. He married Miss Sarah A. McLerath, a native of New York, June 16, 1844. Their union has been blessed with eight children, these four now living: William D., John C., Emma E. and Ella M. He is a Sir Knight in the Masonic order and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

JOHN DEVINE TIMONY, justice of the peace, Marion, was born in Guernsey County, Ohio, on the 14th of March, 1842, son of John and Ann (McCluskey) Timony, the father a native of Donegal, Ireland, and the mother of Montgomery County, Md. John Timony, Sr., was born in the year 1803, and at the age of three years was brought to the United States. He came to Grant County, Ind., in 1852 and settled in Monroe Township, where his death occurred about sixteen years later. Our subject was raised on a farm and received a fair education in the common schools, which he attended during the winter seasons until his seventeenth year. He remained at home until the breaking out of the war, when he entered the army, enlisting, 1862, in the Seventh Indiana Cavalry, with which he served some time, and was afterward a member of Company C, Fifty-fourth Regiment. He served in the southwestern campaigns and took part in a number of battles in Mississippi, Georgia and other States, among which can be named Chickasaw Bluffs, Thompson's Hill, Arkansas Post, Champion Hill, widow of George Kolp, of Bureau county, Illinois; Catherine died after her marriage to Coleman Sanders, leaving a family of children; Eliza is the wife of John Dunlap, near Fairmount, and they have no children; Mary died after her marriage to Albert McCoy, of Delaware county.

David Mittank, who was born in Pennsylvania, November 15, 1824, was seven years of age when the family went to Ohio, and four years later became a resident of Grant county. He grew up to manhood, in the midst of pioneer conditions, and his schooling was of the most limited character. After his marriage he started out to work out his salvation on a place in Jefferson township. He first leased land, the old McPherren farm, the property of his wife's father, and situated on the Mississinewa river. There he lived, developed a good home, bought out the other heirs to the estate, and finally was possessed of a homestead of one hundred and thirty acres. His death occurred on that place, November 16, 1897. He came of age during the declining years of the Whig party, and probably supported that organization by his vote, and when the Republicans perfected a party organization in 1856, he was one of the supporters of its first candidates, and steadily voted that ticket until his death. However, he was reared in a family of Democrats, and according to the belief of that party. He was long an active member of the Shiloh Methodist church, in Jefferson township. Throughout his career he was known and respected for his uprightness, his honesty, his worthy citizenship, and his thrift and enterprise. While he had no early advantages in education, he became by self effort a thorough student, read history extensively, was constantly studying the Bible, and it is said that by virtue of his remarkable memory seldom forgot a fact acquired through reading or observation, and could repeat for a long time afterwards the substance, and even the greater part of the words of the sermons which he heard. Few men have so splendid a natural endowment of intellect.

David Mittank was married in Jefferson township, October 3, 1850, to Margaret McKeeber. She was born in Clinton county, Ohio, July 29, 1833, and when two years of age was brought to Grant county, so that practically all her life was spent in this section of Indiana. Her parents were Moses and Sarah (Moore) McKeeber, both natives of Virginia, but were married in Clinton county, Ohio, in 1832. Her father on coming to Grant county bought land in Jefferson township, and settled in the rough log cabin which was almost the only improvement on the place. The cabin had no floor, and for a time the fleas were so numerous that the family suffered constant discomfort from their ravages. Moses McKeeber died on the old homestead in middle life, while his widow married a Rev. Mr. Wheat of the Methodist Protestant church, and had one child by that union, and was afterwards twice married, but without children by either of her last husbands. Mrs. Margaret Mittank, wife of David, died June 16, 1900, at the home she had lived on practically all her life. She was for many years a devoted member of the Shiloh Methodist Episcopal church. Her children were as follows: John W. and Amanda, both of whom died in childhood; Amariah, who lives on a farm in Jefferson township, is married and of her three sons and two daughters all are married, except one son; Mary Etta is the wife of William Tibbett, of Marion, and they have four sons; Edward died in infancy.

Anderson D. Mittank was born on the old home farm, February 17, 1861, received a public school education, and as soon as he reached his majority, he started out on his own account, and has effected a generous prosperity. He now owns the old McKeeber homestead, where his father lived for so many years, comprising one hundred and thirty-three acres in sections twenty-one and forty-eight and half acres in section twenty-nine. All his land is kept up to the highest notch of modern cultivation and improvement, and in 1908 a comfortable rural dwelling of eight rooms, painted brown, and with all the modern furnishings and facilities was built. The barn is now about seventeen years old, and all the improvements show how progressive a farmer Mr. Mittank is.

Anderson D. Mittank was married at Upland in 1885, to Miss Clara Gadbury, who was born in Licking township of Blackford county, Indiana, in September, 1861. Her parents were James and Mary A. McVicker Gadbury, the former of whom died on his father's farm in Licking township, in Blackford county, having been born April 25, 1833, and dying May 12, 1891; while his wife, who was born in Ohio, May 14, 1832, was brought in childhood to Blackford county and died there December 28, 1874. James Gadbury was an active member of the United Brethren church, a Democrat in politics, and a prominent and influential citizen of his community. Mrs. Mittank, who was reared and educated in Blackford county, was one of six children, as follows: Hulda, who died when ten years of age; Mrs. Mittank; Emma, who died after her marriage to Henry Hanley, and left three children; Riley, who is a farmer in Licking township of Blackford county, has two sons and three daughters; John, who lives on the old homestead in Blackford county, has five children; Jennie, who died when nine months old. To the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Mittank has been born one child, William B., on February 21, 1886. His education was in the public schools, and since taking up the serious responsibilities of life he has proved a capable manager of his father's farm in Jefferson township. William B. Mittank married Gertrude Sutton, of Jefferson township, and to their marriage two children have been born as follows: Eva Marjorie, born March 28, 1909; and Opal C., born December 10, 1911. Mrs. Mittank is an active member of the Kingsley Methodist Episcopal church.

WARREN FERGUS. In 1832, one year after Grant county government was organized, the Fergus family was transplanted from Ohio to the unbroken wilderness and hills and valleys of Jefferson township. Many lives have entered into the development of Grant county, and of those of pioneer stock none have done more credit to their lengthy residence than those of the Fergus kith and kin. Warren Fergus, whose ample and fruitful acres and establishment makes him one of the most prosperous of Grant county's farmers, was born here before the county had finished the first decade of its existence, and is the grandson of a patriot who bore arms for the colonies in the war of the Revolution.

His ancestry is Scotch-Irish, and his grandfather, Francis Fergus, was born September 8, 1752, in the north of Ireland, and of that people of Protestant lineage, who several generations before, had been transplanted from Scotland to the northern counties of Ireland. Francis Fergus with two brothers came to America some time previous to the Revolutionary war, and he and one of his brothers took up arms and fought in behalf of the colonies, during that struggle. The other brother, however, was a Tory, and in his loyalty to the mother country returned during the course of the war to England, and remained there until the final triumph of the American cause, when he returned to this side of the Atlantic and spent the rest of his years in the independent colony. Francis Fergus and his brothers lived in Virginia, the former was a farmer, and after the death of his wife, whose maiden name was McCormick, of the same family which produced the makers of harvesting machinery, he went to live with a daughter in Tennessee, where he

This cemetery was evidently overlooked by the DAR in the 1940's. I could find no reference to it in their readings. Now many references are made to this small, seemingly forgotten burial ground. I had trouble finding this cemetery, but finally as luck would have it, I located it. It seems no two people told me the same directions. In the Marion Public Library you will find several directions to this cemetery. One map I found is a developers map. Evidently the Moses McKeever farm was destined to be a small sub-division. As of May 1994, this has, thus far, eluded the planners. This cemetery is about 100 to 150 feet behind a barn owned at this time (1994) by John Clester. Get permission from him when visiting this site. One reference states that Moses McKeever and relatives are probably buried here. This is very likely, although the only reference I found to McKeevers, is Aldona son of John and Nancy McKever (not misspelled, as found on stone).

The cemetery also carries the name of Trask, this was a nearby postoffice, many years ago. The Mulberry Schoolhouse was also located nearby at this time. I noted one place made reference to this cemetery by the name of Carter. Many Carters owned land around the Moses McKeever farm, perhaps there are also Carters buried here. The cemetery is fenced in, and a new gate has been installed fairly recently. It is approximat 35 feet wide by 70 feet long, room enough to have probably 50 to 60 grave sites. One can only guess at what is actually here, for very few markers are left to mark the graves of th people who are resting here.

I would also like to note that in the early years of this township, Mittank's ford nearby on the river.

This cemetery is located in Jefferson Township, Twp. 23 Range 9 E , N.W. 1/4 of Sec. 21./8421 S. 810 E.

On the following page I have included a recent map of the area which is fairly accurate in showing the roads as they are actually laid out. Hopefully this map will stand the test of time, so that others will not have the same problems I did in finding this lost little cemetery.

*Denotes a stone not found at this time.
